London, Feb. 14.-A dispatch to The Dally Mail from Rensburg, dated yesterday, says: "There has been hard fighting for two days near Colesberg. the Boers making strenuous efforts to outflank the British left. The enemy occupies strong positions from Achtertang through Potfontein to a point five miles south of Jasfontein. The fighting at the outpost camps has been very severe during the last few days. Yesterday the Boers attacked the position of the Worcesters, to the southeast of Colesherg. Fighting continued all day, and after dark it was considered necessary to withdraw to Rens burg Our losses are not vet known

British Withdraw to Rensburg. "On the left the West Australians, Wiltshires and Berkshires had hot fighting, but held their positions against long odds. The Boer losses were considerable. Owing to the growing difficulty experienced by convoys in reaching the camps all of the latter were vacated last night and the troops withdrew to Rensburg. The Boers are burning the farms of the loyalists, but the latter have contrived to get away with their stock."

Outnumbered by the Boers. An early dispatch from Rensburg said: "The Boers numbered some thousands and were five to one wher ever fighting occurred. The British are chating under the necessity of a retreat from their posts, some of which they had held since the new year. The British now have no camp west of Rensburg. They safely brought off the guns from Coles kop.

dum Are Dominating Features. Chicago, Feb. 14.-The committee on resoltions of the anti-trust conference, after a stormy session, last night finally agreed upon a report which will be submitted to the conference for adoption today. The discussion was caused by a difference of opinion among the members as to the details of how the government should obtain control of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines. Finally Jhon P. Altgeld suggested a compromise which brought the warring factions together. A provision denying the value of the franchise right was stricken out and an amendment substituted declaring that owners should receive just com pensation for all property taken, isrespective of watered stock or other
