French Arrives There and Has a Warm Fight.

Together with an Offer to Do Anything Possible in the Interests of Peace, Which Offer Is Declined with Thanks-Text of the Telegram Sent to Lord Salisbury by Kruger and Steyn, with the Text of the Premier's Reply Declining to Assent to the Independence of the Republics.

London, March 14 .- The following dispatches from the front in South Africa have been received:

"Cape Town, March 13. Evening .--General French has arrived at Bloemfontein.

Lord Roberts telegraphed yesterday morning from Venter's Viel that on Monday afternoon General French, after a warm fight, had occupied two hills commanding the railway stations and city of Bloemfontein, captured a brother of President Steyn and cut the telegraph line and railway leading north from the Free State capital. Roberts added that he was himself leaving with the Third cavalry brigade to reinforce French.

Lord Roberts reported that the casnalties at Dreifontein Saturday were sixty or seventy killed and 321 wounded on the British side. The British buried 172 Boers at that place.

In the lobbies in the house of commons last night rumors that Mafeking had been relieved were in circulation, but they still lack confirmation.

Cape Police Occupies Barkly East. "Herschel, Cape Colony, March 13. -The Cape mounted police have reoccupied Barkly East."

"Aliwal North, Cape Colony, by Courler to Burghersdorp, via Stormberg Junction, March 13. - General Brabant's forces arrived here on Sunday. The Boers had retired the previous night, taking up a position four mlles beyond the Orange river, where General Brabant attacked and drove them back, securing the position after a sharp engagement.

Pretoria, March 10, via Lourenzo Marques, March 12 .- General Joubert has arrived here to consult with the government; rumors of peace overtures are in the air. All attention is directed to the British advance on Bloemfontein, but the federals are still confident of being able to check it."

WEDNESDAY.

Mr. J. O. Malley, 123 W. 15th Street, Indianapolis, Ind., for eighteen months was so terribly afflicted with Rheumatism he was unable to feed or dress himself. Dettors said his case was hopeless. He had tried fifty-two prescriptions that friends had given him, without the slightest relief. A few bottles of S. S. S. cured him permanently, and he has never had a rheumatic pain since. This was five years ago.
