THE LARGEST CIRCULATION

Of any Cass County Paper.

FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1900.

FARMERS report excellent prospects for good crops.

LOUISVILLE has re-elected her present corps of teachers and raised the salary of the principal $5 per month.

It has been aptly said that the difference between the democratic and the republican party is, that the former promises and the latter performs.

GOVERNOR POYNTER has an advantage over any other citizen of the state. He says that if he is imprisoned for contempt of court he will pardon himself.

THE social democrats are divided on the question of the "referendum," on account of which Harriman, their candidate for vice president, may pull off the ticket. Mr. Debs will have to look for another running mate.

ADMIRAL and Mrs. Dewey were given a grand reception in Knoxville, Tenn., yesterday. Today they will visit Low's Ferry, the birthplace of Admiral Farragut, under whom the admiral served during the civil war.

THE SOUTHERN democracy disfranchises the negro and taxes them without giving them representation and yet holds up its hands in holy horror because they fear the republicans are going to oppress the natives of Porto Rico and the Philippines.

DR. B. F. LANG evidently intends to make Governor Poynter all the trouble he can. Since handing the governor his resignation he has changed his mind and desires to hold the fort. He will doubtless have a difficult task before him, as the executive is determined to get him out, if he has to call out the state militia.

It is reported that Senator Butler will resign his position as chairman of the national populist committee and recommend J. H. Edmiston of this state for the place. Mr. Edmiston failed to get votes enough at the Sioux Falls convention to elect him to the coveted position and why his successful rival should be so generous all at once is not apparent.

STOCKMEN in the western part of the state held a convention recently and took occasion to roast Governor Poynter for pardoning so many cattle thieves. Citizens of Cass county feel that to pardon the cold-blooded murderer of one of the best citizens is so much worse than pardoning a thief that the cattle men have comparatively little of which to complain.

WHEN you find a republican that is not for the re-election of President McKinley, please let us know. Notwithstanding the enormous amount of abuse heaped upon him by the fusion politicians, he has preserved a dignified silence, successfully carried on the war and at the same time carefully guarded the industrial and commercial interests of the country. He deserves the strongest kind of an endorsement.

THE topic of conversation today has been the march which Senator Clark of Montana took on his enemies by resigning his position in the United States senate just as he was about to be formally ousted. Said resignation was handed to Montana's acting governor (Spriggs) in the absence of Governor Smith of that state. Spriggs at once appointed Mr. Clark to succeed himself and it is thought he will be able to hold his seat until the legislature again assembles.

SUPERINTENDENT B. F. LANG of the Institute for the Feeble-minded at Beatrice continues to embarrass Governor Poynter by refusing to turn things over to Dr. Dearing. The governor probably did such a good job of whitewashing that the doctor concluded he was a fairly good fellow after all, and to turn him out in the cold would be very ungrateful, if not altogether unjust. A temporary injunction against Governor Poynter and Dr. Dearing has been granted.

WHEN William J. Bryan's train the other day stopped at Gallup, N. M., he stepped out on the back platform and made one of his characteristic speeches, says the New York Tribune, the people applauded, and when the noise subsided the mayor of the town climbed up to the speaker and presented to him a large Navajo blanket neatly done up in a parcel, saying that it was the work of an Indian squaw of the city who admired Mr. Bryan. The train drew out and Mr. Bryan deposited his gift upon a seat, going into a smoking room. On returning he spread out his present for a better view, and as he did so a piece of paper pinned on the inside came in view. This was what he read: "My Dear Mr. Bryan: Under the republican administration the wool in this blanket sells for 22 cents a pound. Under the democratic administration it sold for 6 cents. Please tell that to your constituents."

THE argument used to keep many fusionists in line for Bryan is that since the senate will be republican for several years yet "he can do no particular harm;" that sound money legislation having been enacted, there is no danger of having a debased currency so long as we have a republican senate. We should figure on the amount of good a president can do rather than on the amount of harm he cannot do.

THE Fremont Tribune doesn't miss it as far in the following: "If the democrats had the least idea that McKinley would take any action to help the Boers, they would be urging him to keep his hands off. In other words, there is no sincerity in the cry that they are making. They are merely striving for a little sorely-needed campaign thunder."

GEORGE W. BERGE of Lincoln has been unanimously endorsed by the fusionists of Lancaster county for congress. Mr. BERGE is going to give our townsman, Matthew Gering, a tussle for the nomination. E. J. Burkett, however, can easily walk off with either one of them.

KANSAS republicans have renominated W. E. Stanley for governor. The convention passed resolutions endorsing, unqualifiedly, President McKinley and his administration. Everything points to another republican victory in Kansas next fall.

EDITOR DUNROY no doubt noticed on his return today the marked improvement in the Journal, as edited by its business manager on the Sheldon plan during his absence.

GOVERNOR POYNTER seems to think he can get rid of Dr. Lang without much trouble. The wily little doctor is a nuisance to the governor.

ADMIRAL DEWEY and wife are again in Washington. It begins to look as though the admiral would have to run independent, if at all.

SENATOR BUTLER has denied the report that he had resigned as chairman of the populist national committee.

EDWARD ROSEWATER has been honored by being elected one of the directors of the Associated Press association.

CARTER HARRISON says he will not accept the democratic nomination for governor. Wise man.

AN EXCHANGE says it is a paradox to think of asking country folks to vote for Towne.

INFORMATION AND OPINION.

An odd and somewhat ghastly event of late was the seizure of a cemetery in Pennsylvania by the sheriff under foreclosure proceedings. In this case the mortgage was literally a death grip.

Governor Robert B. Smith of Montana has, like Senator Clark, made a fortune in mining. He is popular in the mining districts, the men regarding him almost as one of themselves, but respecting him none the less.

If the fusionists hope to stand any chance whatever of electing a governor they will have to make arrangements early in the campaign to head their ticket with some man besides Poynter. Poynter is altogether too small to run against Dietrich. Judge Westover is big enough to take care of the Hastings man, but have the fusionists got the nerve to take loose from the little 2x4 clique at the state house to commit such a fortunate blunder as to nominate a big, clean and able man like Westover? We hope so.—Kearney Democrat.

An instructive insight into the manner in which the British are treating the Dutch in Cape Colony is given by a correspondent of the Chicago Record: Writing from Capetown, he says: "A discussion is proceeding in the colonial press as to what should be done with the Dutch colonists who have joined the republicans. One suggestion is that they should be indentured—that is to say, enslaved—to their British fellow-farmers. Other suggestions are that they should be transported as slave laborers to Australasia and Canada and that they should be branded with a hot iron! Confiscation of their farms is in all cases assumed as a matter of course, though this would plunge into beggary their innocent wives and families. Dutch colonists are being thrown into jail by dozens and their cattle declared confiscated and sold, although such confiscation is in absolute defiance of the colonial law. Worst of all, it has been assigned to the chairman and secretary of the South African league to go about the border and arrest Dutchmen. These two men, one of whom contested a border constituency at the last election as a Rhodesite and was beaten, have taken service with the imperial government for the time being, but of course the farmers view them not as General Brabant and Captain Crewe, the imperial officers, but as Brabant and Crewe, the chairman and secretary of the political association which Dutch South Africa believes to have caused the war. Thus we give to the proceedings the worst aspect of a civil war. During the last few weeks Dutch churches to the number of over half a dozen have been forced by drunken mobs and the bells rung in honor of the relief of Ladysmith and Kimberley. At Spearman's camp, in Natal, a church, of which the pastor is the nephew and namesake of the saintly Andrew Murray, has been used as a stable, the communion service stolen and the big bible defaced with the words 'God curse the Dutch.'"

A little incident at the banquet of the homeopathic physicians might be set forth to give the friends of C. H. Dietrich a great deal of satisfaction. About seventy-five doctors were in attendance, representing all political parties as well as all portions of the state. During the period of good feeling that marked the speechmaking, Dr. A. H. Van Sickle of Hastings took occasion to say a good word for his friend and neighbor, C. H. Dietrich, the next governor of Nebraska. Instantly the entire company broke out into heartfelt applause, which was repeated when Dr. W. H. Hanchett of Omaha seconded everything that his colleague had said about the good qualities of the republican candidate. The reception given to Mr. Dietrich's name convinced his friends that his personal popularity has not been overestimated.—State Journal.

According to a Paris correspondent of the New York Herald, Commissioner Peck hesitated to offer champagne to his guests at the opening of the United States pavilion at the exposition, "as he was afraid that it would not be approved in New York."

IS WANTED FOR PERJURY.

District Judge Jensen Orders the Arrest of Henry W. Dewey.

The trial of a very interesting divorce case has just been finished in Judge Jensen's court at Nebraska City. It is entitled Henry W. Dewey vs. Mrs. Belle Dewey, his wife. The following in regard to the case is taken from the Nebraska City News:

"The case had been tried to the court and Judge Jensen in rendering his decision last evening spoke very plainly and said just what he thought, regardless of how hard it hit those who were interested in the trial of the case. He said that the plaintiff had been guilty of most flagrant perjury and would recommend that the county attorney file a complaint against him at once. He said that there had been more perjury committed there in a shorter period than he had heard in some time.

"The Judge gave the wife a separation as prayed for in her petition and then he gave her $1,000 in alimony and $200 attorney fees. This is the bitterest contested divorce suit that has been tried in the district court in this county in years. The litigants are not residents of this city, save for the past six months. The husband is a baker and has been working for Thee. Webering, while the wife has been living at Plattsmouth and Omaha. The mother of the young man now resides at Plattsmouth, having moved there last July or August from Glenwood, Ia. The man and woman had been married, according to the testimony, for four or five years before the husband told his mother, who, it seems, was bitterly opposed to his marriage and, from her evidence, was the real cause of the son wanting to leave the wife. All during the trial a bright little girl ran about the court room and seemed to make friends with all the people therein but the father and his parents. It seemed to keep away from them at all times.

The man denied that it was his child, while the wife offered to prove by a present of affidavits that he was present at its birth and gave the child its name and paid all of the expense incident to her illness. To every one who heard the evidence in the case the sympathy was with the wife, and they heartily endorsed every word that Judge Jensen uttered in his arraignment of the plaintiff for the way he had perjured himself and seemingly caused others to do the same in his behalf.

"County Attorney W. W. Wilson last evening issued a warrant for the arrest of the plaintiff, but when the sheriff went to look for him it was found that he had flown. He evidently took the cue given in the court's lecture and left for greener fields, for at 9 o'clock last evening he could not be found. Just how he got out of the city no one seems to know."

CLASH HAS BEEN AVERTED.

Governor Poynter Talks to Judge Stull Over the Telephone.

Governor Poynter is resting easier today, says the Lincoln News. The threatened clash between his authority and that of the judiciary is drifting off into the misty future, and bids fair never to develop.

This morning the governor talked over the telephone with Judge Stull, who is at Beatrice holding court. The judge assured the governor that he knew nothing of Dr. Lang's resignation until he read a copy of it in the News. He had no idea that such a document was in existence when he issued his temporary injunction.

"Send your representatives down," he said, "and I will give them an immediate hearing. I assure you my court will not be made a tool for trickery."

Dr. Dearing, the new appointee, Dave McEntee, recorder in the governor's office, and Clerk Stewart, from the Lincoln asylum for the insane, left for the scene of trouble this morning. They will go before Judge Stull and ask that the injunction be dissolved, and from the intimations given Governor Poynter, it is quite probable that their prayer will be granted.

By his own resignation, accepted by the governor, Dr. Lang became a private citizen yesterday, May 15. He is holding the superintendency without even color of authority, says the governor, and for that reason he thinks Judge Stull will hold that Lang has absolutely no right to interfere with Dr. Dearing in his exercise of duty in accordance with his appointment.

Reports from Beatrice indicate that the little doctor is growing desperate in his effort to hang onto the position he has enjoyed for something over a year. McEntee and Stewart went down there yesterday. Immediately on their arrival they called on Dr. Lang. They didn't take the trouble to send up their cards in advance.

Their reception was somewhat feeble, for the doctor telephoned for the sheriff who responded immediately. He landed on the two gentlemen from Lincoln with all the force of a representative of the court, and commanded them to refrain from interfering in any manner with Dr. Lang. McEntee and Stewart heeded the command and returned to Lincoln on an evening train.

They were sent back this morning by the governor. If Dr. Dearing succeeds in getting into office McEntee and Stewart will check over the accounts left by Dr. Lang.

Conditions about the home are deplorable. Nothing has been done by Dr. Lang towards ploughing and planting the ground, and it lies there idle and overgrown with weeds. Dr. Dearing will do what he can to overcome the results of his predecessor's innocent demands.

LABOR TROUBLE AT THE MINES.

Strike Fever Spreading in the Iron Properties—Arcadian Settles.

Houghton, Mich., May 16.—The Wolverine is the only copper mine which has broken the strike, which lasted only a few hours at that mine. The miners are getting 5 per cent. and trammers 8 per cent. increase. About 3,500 men are now idle at the Quincy and Osceola mines, with prospects of speedy strikes at a number of the other properties. The disaffection is spreading to the iron mines. The trammers at the Winthrop mine at Ishpeming, owned by the company of which Mark Hanna is a leading stockholder, have struck for an increase. Lake Superior mines employ 30,000 men digging iron ore and 15,000 mining copper.

Cabnet, Mich., May 16.—Arcadian strikers accepted the offer of Superintendent Shiels for $4 per month increase, instead of 20 per cent., which they wanted, at a conference, and returned to work Monday evening. Superintendent Parra granted the striking trammers a 5 per cent. raise in pay, instead of 10 per cent., which they asked, and the men returned to work.

WOMEN TO RUN THE CARS.

Receipts Go to Sweet Charity—A Rubber Scrap Collection.

Rockford, Ills., May 16.—The Ladies' Union Aid society, of Rockford, has arranged with the local street car people to set aside Saturday, June 9, as "trolley day," when all the lines of the town will be turned over to the women, who will run the cars and pocket the cash. This practice was established here three years ago and resulted successfully, the people for sweet charity's sake doing much riding and knowing better than to expect any change.

The same day, the kind-hearted townspeople will do considerable "rubbering" all over the city. For charity's sake, also, that is to be "rubber" day, when everything of a gummy nature is to be collected and sold, the proceeds to be devoted to the cause. Receipts will be set around the city and to these the citizen with a kind heart and a pair of discarded goloshes will march and make a deposit. Old rubber of all kinds meets a ready sale.

More Trouble with the Machinists.

New York, May 16.—The joint arbitration committee of the National Metal Trades Association and the International Association of Machinists was in session yesterday at the Murray Hill hotel. It has been reported that there is a deadlock, and that if an agreement is not reached soon 100,000 men may be called out, the strike extending all over the country. The committee has now been in session several days, and so far as is known nothing definite has been accomplished. The points in dispute include the "recognition of the union," a reduction in hours, a minimum rate of wages and regulations as to apprentices.

Houghton, Mich., May 16.—President Agassiz, of the Calumet and Hecla Mining company, refuses permission to the Houghton County Street Railway company to cross the lands of the former at every point. "Yes, sir," "Indeed! And what kind of a bonnet?" "An imaginary bonnet, sir." The visitor asked no more questions.
