GENERAL SICKLES says the Paris treaty was a logical outgrowth of the United States as an Atlantic and Pacific power, and that if the commerce of this country is to be world-wide and our products are to find a market in every quarter of the globe, we must secure avenues, outposts, harbors and naval stations under our own control and belonging to ourselves.

THE Omaha Bee offers these words of consolation: "Matt Gering an nounces that he will never again ask for political preferment. He should not be so easily discouraged. A true popocrat never gives up the hunt for office while life lasts and he might console himself in the present case that his successful competitor for nomination stands no more show of being elected to congress than himself."

THE Plattsmouth Journal is making a bitter 5ght on Congressman Burkett. The position Mr. Dunroy is taking will not make any votes for his candidate for congress, peither will it raise him in the estimation of the people of Cass county. The citizens of this intelligent community do not approve of mud slinging, and Mr. Dunroy might be kept until claimed by merchants just as well conduct a clean campaign. -Eagle Beacon.

LEGISLATION RUNNING FIGHT WITH THUOS

Charlotte, Mich., May 26 .- A success ful attempt was made Thursday morning to rob the safe in the postoffice at Olivet. Sheriff Shepard was notified at 3 a. m. and accompanied by half a dozen deputies reached the scene half an hour later. Two rigs were stolen and all indications are that the robbers started for this city to catch the Grand Trunk train east. The stolen teams were found in the southern part of the city about 6 a. m. Two hours later three well dressed men were reported in the Grand Trunk yards and Sheriff Shepard hurried to the scene accompanied by a number of deputies.

The trio ran, drawing revolvers and keeping a running exchange of shots with the officers; other assistance was summoned and the men were captured. At the jail they were found to be heavily armed, having a large supply of cartridge, dynamite, fuses, pepper and knives. A map of Michigan with a circle around Olivet was also found. Twenty cents was all the money they had. A memorandum was found in the pockets of one of the men containing the names and addresses of two persons in Chicago. They gave the names of Edward C. Gilman, machinist, Hillsdale, Mich.; James Gilmore, railroad man, Albany, N. Y., and Frank Graham, railroad man, Buffalo.
