After the animals had gotten a good scent of articles which had been touched by the thieves, they storted on the trail with a boundleaping through the rear window and heading in the direction of the Missouri Pacific depot. Nearly the entire population of Murray turned out followed the animals to this city.

As stated in yesterday's issue, the thieves took the cash register down to the deput and opened it. It was genhauled away in a light vehicle, but the supp sition was found to be a mistake, as the dogs started down the track from the depot in the direction of this city. This course was followed to Mynard-frequent delays being occasioned where the burglars stopped the club parlors. Nearly all of the on the way. From Mynard the wagon club members were present and a numroad was followed east a little over half a mile and thence north to this city. They came along Chicago avenue as far as James Sage's barn, thence turned north' on Seventh street for a few blocks. The trail was then continued east to a deep guich in the vicinity of the old brewery site-in the upper Burlington yards. Here the having been used for a bed.

It was the intention to take the hounds to Ashland and follow the trail west, but shortly before the time for departure arrived a telephone message was received from Cedar Creek, informing the authorities that the hardware store of August Schneider at that place had been entered by burglars last night and goods to the value of about $85 carried off. One hundred knives, two razors, two revolvers, $4 in money and other articles were taken. It was decided to get the animals on the trail of the Cedar Creek burglars without delay-the authorities feeling confident that the Musray thieves would be apprehended before they can get out of Nebraska.

News received from Cedar Creek this afternoon announced that the hounds had gotten the scent of the thieves at that place and had started on the trail after them-leading in a westerly direction.

Forgot Her Promise,

Annie Frish, the seventeen-year-de girl that is employed at the Sitzmann boarding house on Lincoln avenue, was brought before Judge Archer this afternoon, upon the complaint of Mrs Ramsden, who charged the young lady with unneighborty conduct. It will be remembered that the same parties had a little trouble - me time ago, when the Frish girl amused herself by to-sing bad eggs over into Mrs. Ramsden's yard, but the court let her go that time on condition that she would endeavor to conduct herself more lady like in the future. She soon forgot her promise, however, with the result that she was again in court this afterneon. Judge Archer gave her a little lecture and concluded his remarks by taxing her a fine of $1 and costsamounting to $4. The girl's employer following committees: went security for this amount and she was released.

Blood Troubles:

As the blood contains all the elements necessary to sustain life, it is important that it be kept free of all impurities, or it becomes a source of disease, poisoning instead of nourishing the body, and loss of health is sure to follow. Some poisons enter the blood from without, through the skin by absorption, or inoculation; others from within, as when waste products accumulate in the system and ferment, allowing disease germs to develop and be taken into the circulation. While all blood troubles have one common origin, each has some peculiarity to distinguish it from the other. Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Eczema and other blood diseases can be distinguished by a certain sore, ulcer, eruption or inflammation appearing on the skin. Every blood a certain sore, ulcer, eruption or inflammation appearing on the skin. Every blood

Chronic Ulcers. disease shows sooner or later on the outside and on the weakest part of the body, or where it finds the least resistance. Many mistake the sore or outward sign for the real disease, and attempt a cure by the use of salves, liniments and other external applications. Valuable time is lost and no permanent benefit derived from such treatment. BLOOD TROUBLES REQUIRE BLOOD REMEDIES; the poison must be completely and permanently eradicated—the blood reinforced, purified and cleansed, or the disease goes deeper and saps the very life. Mercury, potash and arsenic, the treatment usually prescribed in this class of diseases, are violent poisons, even when taken in small doses—never cure, but do much harm by adding another poison to the already overburdened, diseased blood. S. S., Nature's own remedy, made of roots and herbs, attacks the disease in the blood, antidotes and forces out all impurities, makes weak, thin blood rich, strong and healthy, and at the same time builds up the general health. S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the only one that can reach deep-seated blood troubles.
