

STEVENSON IS CHOSEN.

Illinois Supplies Second Name on the Ticket.

STRONG EFFORT MADE FOR HILL.

Who Takes the Platform Against His Own Nomination.

Jones to Manage the Democratic Forces Again—Action on the Ticket by the Silver Republican Convention.

For President,
WILLIAM BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

For Vice President,
ADLAI STEVENSON, of Illinois.

Kansas City, July 7.—The Democratic national ticket was completed yesterday by the nomination of Adlai E. Stevenson for vice president. The nomination was made on the first ballot, state after state joining in the wild scramble to record their support of the winning candidate. It was not accompanied by any such frantic demonstration of approval as had marked the proceedings at previous stages, although the result followed a spirited and at times highly dramatic contest between the advocates of Stevenson, Towne, Hill and the lesser candidates. The distinct triumph of the day in the winning of the ticket was that of the nomination of Hill and in its spontaneity and enthusiasm was one of the most notable features the convention has produced.

Hill Pleads with the Convention.

It was accompanied, too, by a remarkable scene when Hill earnestly pleaded with his friends against being placed in nomination, and then—finding his protest in vain—when he took to the platform and in tones which left no doubt of his sincerity earnestly besought the convention not to make him the nominee. Anticipating the close of the convention the general public was admitted freely to the hall, and as a result the great crowd filled every available seat in the arena and aisles and overflowed into the arena reserved for delegates, while some more adventurous individuals scaled the iron girders and looked down from a dizzy height on the 30,000 people packed below.

Towne's Name Causes a Demonstration.

On the call for nominations Alabama yielded to Minnesota, and the latter state presented its young champion of Silver Republicanism and Democracy—Charles A. Towne. The mention of his name was the signal for a cheering demonstration in his honor, men and women joining in the outburst. Far off in a corner of the auditorium a young woman could be seen frantically waving in one hand a lithograph of the Minnesota and in the other the stars and stripes. It was noticeable that it did not evoke any widespread enthusiasm among those who were about the voting, but for ten minutes the demonstration to Towne lasted with varying degrees of intensity.

HILL IS SORELY BESET.

His Own Delegation Insists on Him Running While He Refuses.

Meantime attention was being directed to an excited group massed in front of the New York section with Hill as the vortex of a struggling throng of delegates. They pressed forward from all quarters of the hall, urging him to permit his name to be placed before the convention. The face of the New Yorker was a study as the demands upon him came from all sides. He sat in the front row of delegates, with ex-Senator Murphy on his right and Judge Van Wyck on his immediate left. A second seat away was Croker. Hill protested vociferously. Judge Van Wyck said he could not refuse. Murphy and Croker pleaded with him to obey the will of the convention and accept. While the pleadings continued the call of Delaware was heard above the roar and Delaware yielded her place to New York.

At this the bulky form of Senator Grady, the silver-tongued orator of New York, pushed through the jostling packed aisles up to the platform. There was a hush through the hall to hear what word New York had to offer. "In behalf of the United Democracy of New York," shouted Grady, "I present as a candidate for vice president the name of David Bennett Hill."

The effect was electrical and a tidal wave of enthusiastic approval swept over the convention. Delegates stood on their chairs and waved frantically—not in a few scattered groups, but in solid phalanxes. Flares and standards were again mingled in triumphant procession while a roar as from Niagara pulsed through the great structure. Grady stood there waiting for the storm to subside. But as the New York delegation and push through the throng up to the platform, they could see him appeal to Grady to withdraw, while Grady's answer was apparent from the shake of his head and his advances to the front of the platform to continue his nominating speech. When the demonstration had subsided Grady completed his speech placing Hill before the convention. But as he stepped from the platform the man who had just been placed in nomination took his place. The senator looked out sternly, even savagely, on the shouting thousands. When he could be heard he made due acknowledgment of the honor done him. "But I cannot, I must not, be the nominee of this convention," he declared with resolute emphasis. He was frequently interrupted with enthusiastic shouts of approval, but when he left the platform the delegates were firmly convinced from his words and manner that he was sincerely desirous of hav-

COULDN'T BLUFF SLATER

One of Stoddard's Men is Landed in Jail.

Had Come to Town to Have a Good Time.

But Marshal Slater Spills His Fun—Considerable Excitement in Happy Hollow Over a Missing Child Which Was Found After an Hour's Search.

From Saturday's Daily.

A young man who is employed in the big cut by the Stoddard Grading company came to town last evening to have a good time. He soaked up plenty of liquor, and when he had gotten enough on board to make him stagger, he wandered out on Main street to let the people get a good look at him. The marshal Slater arrived on the scene about this time, and politely notified the young "sport" that the best thing that could happen to him would be to forthwith make tracks for home, the officer even consenting to accompany him. However, the man had come down to have a good time, and he "lowed no one had better interfere with him, much less request him to go home."

The fellow seemed determined to stand his ground, but the marshal grabbed him by the collar and before the fellow fully realized what had happened he was squinting through the bars of the jail.

The sum of $5.30 was deposited in the police fund this morning and the man was allowed to go his way. The experiences of this man ought to be an object lesson to others who may take a notion to paint the town red.

Thought Her Child Was Lost.

There was a great deal of excitement last night in Happy Hollow about 9 o'clock last night. Just about the time it commenced to rain Mrs. Charles Haraska discovered that her eight-year-old daughter was missing, and fearing that the child was lost in the timber, she proceeded to spread the alarm.

In a short time nearly every inhabitant in that part of town had joined the almost distracted mother in the search for her missing child. The timber and hazel brush for half a mile around was searched high and low, but not the slightest trace of the missing child was visible. After a consultation, it was decided to make a more thorough examination of the Haraska premises, and to the great surprise and delight of the mother and the rest of the searchers, the little girl was found cozily tucked away beneath the covers of her bed. She was sound asleep, and her little arm gently encircled a pet kitten, which was also sleeping. The search continued for about an hour.

SILVER REPUBLICAN ACTION.

Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—After a long and exciting debate the national convention of the Silver Republican party adjourned sine die without making a nomination for vice president, the whole matter being referred to the national committee with power to act. W. Bryan was made the unanimous choice of the convention for president. The action of the Democratic convention in nominating Stevenson for vice president precipitated a long debate for two hours. Teller, Shafroth of Colorado, Cheadle of Indiana, and others made speeches in favor of endorsing the Democratic ticket, but it was not until Towne himself appeared and appealed to the convention to concentrate their forces that the delegates calmed down, and the vice presidential nomination was referred to the national committee.

The national committee of the Silver Republicans organized by electing D. C. Tillotson, of Kansas, chairman, and General E. S. Corser, of Minnesota, secretary. Senator Dubsels offered a resolution pledging the support of the Silver Republicans to Adlai E. Stevenson, but there was opposition to the nomination of Adlai E. Stevenson, and a motion was made to appoint a committee to investigate the political independence of any people. The Boer resolution is stronger than that in the Democratic platform, declaring "the destruction of these republics to be a crime against civilization."

Senator Jones Again Chairman.

Kansas City, July 7.—Senator Jones, of Arkansas, has been re-elected chairman of the national Democratic committee.

Case Is One of Murder Now.

Cairo, Ill., July 7.—Marshal Hillman, the Villa Ridge merchant who was the victim of a brutal assault by three men last week, died from his injuries. Witnesses, Tom Russell, George Hackney and Gene Wilson, three colored men, are in jail at Mount City, charged with the crime. The crime was a most brutal one. Hillman was set upon, beaten to insensibility, robbed of his watch and money and his body thrown on the railroad tracks. He recovered consciousness just in time to escape being run over by a train.

Lighted Candle Causes an Explosion.

Cincinnati, July 7.—A furnace being constructed at California, an eastern suburb, for the new Cincinnati waterworks. One of the workmen was carrying a lighted candle when an explosion was caused, doing considerable damage and seriously injuring Robert Legner, electrician; Edward Lightfoot, George Brown, Joseph Johnson, "Bal-timore Dick"—James Donnelly, Frank Gibson and two other workmen whose names could not be learned.

Railway Brakeman Killed.

Fort Dodge, Ia., July 7.—A fatal accident occurred in the night, in which a railroad brakeman named Ripley was killed. He was engaged in making a coupling in the Illinois Central yards and, falling, was caught between the draw bars and crushed. Lying shortly afterwards, his home was in Waterloo.

"We have sold many different cough remedies, but none has given better satisfaction than Chamberlain's," says Mr. Charles Halshauer, Drug-gist, Newark, N. J. "It is perfectly safe and can be relied upon in all cases of coughs, colds or hoarseness." Sold by all druggists.

SORES and ULCERS

DRAN THE SYSTEM, ENDANGER LIFE.

That old sore or ulcer, which has been a source of pain, worry and anxiety to you for five or ten years—maybe longer—doesn't heal because you are not using the proper treatment, but are trying to cure it with salves and washes. While these are soothing and relieve some of the pain, they do not cure the disease, which no poison can reach of external applications.

A sore heals promptly when the blood is in good condition, but never if it is diseased. The tendency of these old sores and ulcers is to grow worse, spreading and eating deeper into the flesh. They are a constant drain upon the system, gradually but surely ruin the health and sap the very life. A person's capacity for work or pleasure is soon lost in the great desire and need to get rid of the trouble, and forced the poison out of my blood, soon afterwards the sore healed up and was cured sound and well. I have perfect use of the leg, which was swollen and very stiff for a long time. J. H. McBRAY, Lawrenceburg, Ky.

A Gunshot Wound.

"Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. It developed into a running sore and gave me a great deal of pain. I was treated by many doctors and took a number of blood remedies, but none did me any good. I had heard S. S. S. highly recommended and concluded to give it a trial. The result was truly gratifying. S. S. S. seemed to get right at the trouble, and forced the poison out of my blood, soon afterwards the sore healed up and was cured sound and well. I have perfect use of the leg, which was swollen and very stiff for a long time. J. H. McBRAY, Lawrenceburg, Ky."

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known; it is made of roots and herbs of wonderful purifying properties, which no poison can resist. S. S. S. quickly and effectually clears the blood of all morbid, unhealthy humors, and the old, troublesome sores heal. At the same time the general health is invigorated and built up. When a little scratch or hurt fails to heal readily, you may be sure your blood is bad. S. S. S. will soon put it in order and keep it so.

Celebrate Silver Wedding.

Saturday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Madson, who reside in the south part of town. About sixty of their friends, in response to invitations, called at their home in the evening to celebrate that happy event.

The host and hostess entertained their guests in a very pleasing way, and it was generally agreed that the supper served was one which could not be excelled.

The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Madson with many costly and beautiful presents, and these gifts will doubtless help them to remember, in years to come, the anniversary of their silver wedding.

A gentleman recently cured of dyspepsia gave the following appropriate rendering of Burns' famous blessing: "Some have meat and can not eat, and some have none that want it; but we have meat and we can eat,—Kodol Dyspepsia Cure be thanked." This preparation will digest what you eat. It instantly relieves and radically cures indigestion and all stomach disorders. F. G. Fricke & Co.

D. K. Barr and Harry Ballinger were damaged by fire on last Thursday night. No insurance. D. K. was struck down and wounded just above the right eye, Harry being struck in the eye.
