

CHASING THE ROBBERS

Men Who Broke Into the M. P. Depot Still at Large.

Detective Delong, Sheriff Wheeler and Deputy McBride are hot on their trail—suspects held in South Omaha are not the men wanted in Plattsmouth—Other News.

Ever since the burglary at the Missouri Pacific depot Wednesday night Detective Delong, Sheriff Wheeler and Deputy McBride have been hard at work on the case in an effort to apprehend the criminals. Yesterday the authorities of nearly all the surrounding towns were notified of the affair by telegraph.

The first response to these telegrams was received late yesterday afternoon from South Omaha, to the effect that a couple of men had just been arrested there who were thought to be the men wanted in Plattsmouth. It afterwards developed, however, that the suspects were not the parties wanted.

Late last night a message was also received from the authorities at Pacific Junction, which stated that a couple of suspects were being held at that place. Operator Becker went to that place this morning, but he found that no arrests had been made—two suspicious-looking tramps had simply been seen loafing around the town, but in the meantime they had started out for other parts.

Messrs. Delong, Wheeler and McBride have been out of the city, and no further facts in regard to the progress of the search for the criminals could be learned today.

An Enjoyable Dinner Party. A very enjoyable dinner party was held at the beautiful new residence of Isaac Pollard in Nehawka Wednesday in honor of Mr. Pollard's seventieth birthday.

Mr. Pollard located in Nebraska in '56, burned the brick and made the shingles for his first residence in which his family of seven children were born, six of which have grown to maturity, and in which they lived for forty years, moving into their new home in July of '99. The children were all present on this occasion except Mrs. Cook of Detroit, Mich.

Mr. Pollard received slight tokens of respect and esteem a beautiful little mantle clock, a writing set, hand painted photo frame and an elegant lamp with which it is hoped he will be able to read the platforms and speeches of the coming campaign with ease and comfort. The friends, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Pollard health to meet in many more pioneer gatherings, departed, feeling that it had been a day well and most enjoyably spent.

The guests present were among the remaining friends of Mr. and Mrs. Pollard's pioneer days as follows: Messrs. and Mesdames Ed Wolsey, Wyoming, Neb.; William Rose, Lawson Sheldon, Levi Pollard, Nehawka; J. H. Haldeman, Mrs. Emma Walker, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Higgins, Roseville, Ill.; Mrs. Eliza Barnum, Mrs. L. G. Todd, Miss Jessie Todd, Union and Henry DuBois, New Pauly, New York.

MURDOCK ITEMS.

L. Neitzel visited Omaha Tuesday on business.

W. L. Brown of Lincoln made a flying trip to Murdock Tuesday.

Al Bauer of Lincoln called upon the merchants here last Saturday.

Miss Morrow of Lincoln is visiting the family of J. W. Connally this week.

This village enjoyed a most excellent rain Tuesday and crops are looking fine.

E. Sturtzenger of South Bend showed his friendly face on our streets Thursday.

John Stroy is hauling lumber for a large bank barn on his farm now occupied by Conrad Baumgartner.

The lecture on the Philippines given by George Boomer last Tuesday evening was enjoyed by a crowded house.

Miss John Leis and Mrs. J. H. Neitzel spent Thursday visiting with the family of G. H. Weidman in Greenwood.

Louis Baumgartner occupied his father's pulpit in the Lutheran church two miles north of town very acceptably last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Holmes, who have been visiting in Fremont and other points during the past two weeks, returned home today.

Bert Long, station agent here during the past four years, has exchanged positions with the agent at Kensington, Kan. His departure is generally regretted.

Mrs. David Thibang went to Omaha today to bring back her son, Danny, who underwent an operation by having his left limb amputated above the knee.

The Murdock Times, which became a candidate for public patronage and favor in May after changing editors three times, finally gave up the ghost. The excitement of a too frequent change was too much for it.

The Whipple sisters, who are at present located at Fremont, have been engaged to teach the local school during the next term. They come highly commended.

Mattie Patton, who for the past two years has conducted a millinery here, has removed to Iowa, selling stock of goods to Bertha Goebry, who will continue the business, and for whom we bespeak success.

If you want a new spring suit, made the latest style, call on Hudecek & Elroy in Rockwood block.

The case of W. A. Boyer vs. the City of Plattsmouth, which was to have been tried before County Judge Douglas this morning, has on motion of the defendant, been continued for thirty days.

George Goodman, an employe of the B. & M. freight car repairing department, accidentally ran a spike into his right foot while at work Wednesday, and as a consequence is taking an enforced layoff for a few days.

Bertha, the thirteen-year-old daughter of Phil McCully, was sentenced to a term in the reform school this morning by Judge Douglas. The girl is charged with incorrigibility and it was thought best to send her to the reformatory at Geneva.

The Nebraska City citizens who recently purchased the Independent Telephone exchange at that place, have arranged with the Plattsmouth company for the extension and overhauling of the system. Several of the employes of the local company are now at work at that place.

The B. & M. band gave one of the best concerts of the season at Third and Main streets last evening. As usual, a big crowd was out, and the excellent music furnished was greatly appreciated. The people of Plattsmouth certainly have good cause to feel proud of the band—it being generally conceded to be the best in the state—and are giving the boys the encouragement they justly merit.

A young widow, whose name is withheld, appeared before Judge Archer this morning and told that official about an experience she had last night with a man who appeared at her home and insisted upon being admitted into the house. He was an objectionable character, and she requested him to forthwith vacate the premises. He disregarded her requests, however, and became so persistent that she finally drew a revolver and by pointing it at him she succeeded in getting rid of the intruder. She says she recognized the party, but as yet has taken no legal action.

Church Bug Incubation. The Nebraska Agricultural Experiment station for three years furnished inoculated chinch bugs for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not this method of fighting the insect was practical. It was learned during this time that, where instructions were followed faithfully and the climatic conditions were favorable, the disease worked well. On the other hand, where conditions were unfavorable and instructions only in part or not at all complied with, the results were almost invariably negative.

Since no supply of the infection can be obtained from private sources by our farmers, the pressure has been so great recently for a continuation of this work here that the university has concluded to send out a limited supply of the fungus to those who are sufficiently interested in it to give it a fair trial. It can be obtained by writing to the Department of Entomology, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

HOLD UP THE OPERATOR

Missouri Pacific Depot Visited by a Couple of Robbers.

At the Point of a Pistol They Demanded the Man in Charge to Open the Safe, But Fortunately He Did Not Know the Combination—Thieves Secure a Very Small Amount of Booty

From Thursday's Daily. Shortly before 12 o'clock last night Operator Becker of the Missouri Pacific had an experience with a couple of robbers which he will perhaps remember for some time to come. About that time two men, with handkerchiefs concealing their features, quietly entered the depot, and before Mr. Becker realized what was up one of the men had him cored with a revolver, and he was politely requested to behave himself or he would get filled full of lead. The man appeared at the ticket window. A dog happened to be the operator's only companion at the time, and when the animal rushed out to attack the strangers, Mr. Becker quickly slammed the ticket window shut.

There was a skirmish for a few moments, but the dog was finally disposed of and the window again opened before the operator could arm himself. After that the robbers were masters of the situation. They tapped the money drawer and took therefrom about $5 in money, and then told the operator that they were anxious to take a look at the inside of the safe and demanded him to open it for them. This demand, however, could not be complied with, as Mr. Becker knew no more about the combination than they did themselves. It was hard to convince the men of this fact, and they pressed the weapon close to his head and made bold threats to fill his carcass full of bullet holes if he did not forthwith comply with their demand.

Finally they told the operator to accompany them, and he was marched up the track for a distance of about three miles. Then they ransacked his pockets, removing therefrom a pocketbook containing about $4 and also a watch. They kept the money, but returned the watch and empty pocketbook to the owner.

Section Foreman William Brisey, who lives just opposite the depot, happened to be sitting on a tool chest near the house at the time the men entered the depot, but did not suspect anything wrong until he saw the men make their exit, accompanied by the operator, and start down the track. He quickly notified the officers, but before they arrived Mr. Becker had returned. Officers Fitzpatrick and Charles Hassen and J. L. Dunn started down the track in pursuit of the robbers, but they did not succeed in overtaking them.

Detective Delong of the Missouri Pacific came in from Omaha this morning, and is working on the case with a view of apprehending the criminals. Two theories are advanced—one to the effect that the men are headed west in the direction of South Bend and Louisville, and the other that they have gone to Omaha, but as yet nothing definite is known.

CEDAR CREEK HAPPENINGS.

Rain is badly needed.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morford, a boy.

I. Bredekamp spent the first part of the week with his family at Berlin, Neb.

Several of the members of the D. of H. attended lodge at Louisville Wednesday night.

There will be a free lecture on "The Philippine Islands," given at this place Tuesday, July 17.

John McNurlin unloaded several cars of lumber here this week for his new barn, which he will have built at once.

Ulrich Heider sold his property in Cedar Creek to George Horn. George is under the impression that he has paid rent long enough and could easily have paid for a home since he has been renting.

The Cedar Creek Gun club, which was organized at here recently, has been doing some very good work. It meets every two weeks and if the boys will get down to business we can look for some good shooting before long. The best done thus far was 72 out of 100.

M. P. Williams returned from Oklahoma Tuesday evening where he had been visiting with his son, Tom, for the last week. He says that crops are good there and that Tom is getting along nicely, which will be good news to the latter's many friends in Cass county.

Surprise Their Pastor.

From Thursday's Daily.

It was something of a surprise to Dr. Baird last evening to notice the unusually large attendance at the weekly prayer meeting, about 100 members of the church and congregation being present. This was not, however, due to any sudden accession of piety, but was owing to the fact that a number of parishioners remembered that this particular Wednesday evening rounded out the twenty-five years of Mr. Baird's ministerial work in this city, and resolved to make it something of a reception to their pastor and his family. At the close of the service an hour or two was spent in social chat and pleasant reminiscences, and a purse of silver was presented as a souvenir of this joyful occasion.

The relations between pastor and people have always been most pleasant, and last evening's reunion will tend to cement the bond more closely and give a fresh impetus to the work of the church.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. M. Roberts of Omaha was in town today on business.

Mrs. John A. Gutsche and son spent the day in Omaha.

Robert J. Vass made a trip to Omaha on the fast mail.

Sheriff Wheeler was a passenger on the early train for Omaha.

Captain George Sheldon of Nehawka was a county seat visitor today.

Asher Clark, the grocer, was a business visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Miss Capitola Black returned yesterday from her visit with friends at Tallmage.

Fred Carey, a mailing clerk in the postoffice at Nebraska City, was a Plattsmouth visitor today.

Judge W. H. Newell came in from a business trip to the stone quarries at Cedar Creek this morning.

Fred Powell of Glenwood, a member of the B. & M. band, came over last evening to take part in the concert on Main street.

Mrs. C. A. Marshall, who has been visiting relatives over at Burlington, Ia., for a week past, returned home last evening.

Wendell Hill of Cedar Creek was in town today on business. Mr. Hill is a member of the firm of Hill Brothers, the Cedar Creek stock feeders.

Judge A. W. Crites and wife of Chadron visited over night at the home of Judge B. S. Ramsey. They were on their way home from Lincoln, where Mr. Crites attended the democratic state convention.

One Minute Cough Cure is the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Try it. F. G. Fricke & Co.

It is reported that a brute who lives in the Second ward got angry at his wife this morning and threw a cup at her, striking her on the head. Some of the neighbors were in favor of having the man arrested for his brutal conduct, but the woman (doubtless remembering former scenes of this character) refrained from doing so, and concluded to let the matter drop. However, it is quite likely she will have her husband prosecuted in case he attempts a repetition of the demonstration he made this morning.

FUSION FORCES UNHAPPY.

Governor W. A. Poynter Renominated For Chief Executive.

Speaking of the fusion state convention held at Lincoln, the State Journal says: "The fusion state conventions which were held in this city yesterday and day before were unusual in the annals of fusion in this state in that every stage of the proceedings were marked by wrangling and general dissatisfaction. A ticket was nominated which creates absolutely no enthusiasm; the division of spoils was unsatisfactory all around and the feeling among the rank and file of the so-called reform parties at the final adjournment was that of general hopelessness. The old time fire and enthusiasm was entirely lacking.

"The delegates had spent one whole day and night in a discussion of the division of offices and in waiting for tardy conference committees to report and yesterday morning found them in no pleasant humor. The night of watching and waiting had worn out the 'common people' who were on the delegations, however, and it was evident early Wednesday forenoon that the officeholding element had complete control. This became so apparent before noon that a large number of the delegates made preparations to return to their homes. The nomination of Governor Poynter hastened the exodus, and the afternoon sessions of the convention were characterized by a general rush to get through in time to catch the evening trains. The question of the division of spoils having been settled very few worried about the character of the men who were to make up the ticket."

The complete ticket decided upon is as follows: Governor, W. A. Poynter, Boone; lieutenant governor, E. A. Gilbert, York; secretary of state, C. V. Svoboda, Howard; auditor, Theodore Griess, Clay; treasurer, S. B. Howard, Holt; attorney general, W. D. Oldham, Buffalo; commissioner, P. J. Carey, Saunders; superintendent, C. F. Beck, Burt; presidential electors, Frank Ransom, Omaha; J. H. Falber, Burlington; W. A. Garrett, Holdrege; W. G. Swan, Tecumseh; Peter Ebberson, St. Paul; Robert Oberfelder, Sidney; L. M. Wente, Lincoln; J. Hughes, Schuyler.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houton, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free at A. W. Atwood's.
