Man Charged With Crime of Bastardy Escapes.

He Had a Preliminary Examination at Weeping Water Yesterday and Bound Over to the District Court—Ardell's Case Continued—Two Bad Wrecks on the Burlington.

From Monday's daily.

John Walker was given a preliminary examination before Justice Peck at Weeping Water yesterday on a charge of bastardy preferred against him by Miss Lillie Parker, and was bound over to the district court in the sum of $500. C. S. Polk of this city represented the complainant. Both parties to the action reside at Avoca. Constable C. D. Quinton took the defendant to Avoca this morning, where he was to furnish a bond for the required amount. It appears that the constable went into a barber shop to get shaved, leaving his prisoner standing outside. When Quinton reappeared his man was gone, and he at once realized what a serious mistake he had made. Although the officer and several Avoca citizens are making a thorough search of the neighborhood for miles around, at least accounts no trace of Walker has been found.

Wrecks on the Burlington.

The early morning north bound train on the Burlington, which connects with No. 5 at Pacific Junction, was delayed nearly four hours today on account of two wrecks which occurred on the C. B. & Q. last night. They were freight trains and one of the wrecks occurred near Afton and the other near Nodaway, Ia. Very few particulars in regard to the accidents could be learned today, but it is reported that one was a head end and the other a rear end collision and that three men were killed and several injured.

Retires from Newspaper Business.

Coroner Gass informs THE NEWS that, after hearing of the diabolical, dastardly and heathenish conduct of some of the ruffians in the great state of Colorado, when they deliberately and with malice aforethought did mob, bruise, maltreat and insult Governor Roosevelt—next vice president of the United States—he has therefore disposed of all his right, title and interest in the Plattsmouth Journal and has turned the same over to H. B. Groves to "have and to hold," (if he can) and that P. P. Gass aforesaid denounces all allegiance to the pop or democratic political papers, and will vote the straight McKinley-Roosevelt ticket.

Ardell Case Continued.

Sheriff Wheeler received a letter from Deputy Sheriff J. J. White of Fresno, Cal., this morning, informing him that Charles Ardell, the man arrested here last month and who is wanted at Fresno on the charge of murder, was not tried at the last term of district court—his case having been put over until the next term. Mr. White also says that he became aware of a plot formulated by friends of Ardell to dispose of the state's main witness in the case, and he is holding the witness in jail pending the trial, which will probably be held next month.

An Engine Wrecked.

Tuesday was an unlucky day for Jim Beckner. While he was moving his threshing outfit from one place to another he struck some soft ground near a bridge. His engine refused to run it across, and Jim put his team in front and asked H. J. Stoll to act as engineer. Henry complied, and as he turned on the steam forgot to turn the steering apparatus, and in a short time it ran off the side of the bridge and fell in the gutter five feet below. No one was hurt and no serious damage done to the engine. They soon pulled it out and had it running again.—Nehawka Register.

Death of Abel Crabtree.

Abel Crabtree of Murray, one of the oldest settlers of Cass county, died Saturday evening, as a result of a general breaking down of the system, due to old age. Deceased came to this county in the early '50's, and leaves seven children to mourn his demise.

The funeral was held this afternoon,

interment being made in Young's cemetery, near Murray.

Was Locked In a Saloon.

Policeman Fitzpatrick was called to John Mumm's saloon about 2 o'clock this morning to assist John Boetel in getting out of the place. Boetel, it appears, went to sleep in the rear of the saloon early in the evening, and when the proprietor closed the place for the night he did not notice the young man's presence. He awoke shortly after midnight and succeeded in attracting attention from the outside by rapping on the window.

TRAGEDY AT BEATRICE.

The usual Sabbath quiet of Beatrice was violently disturbed at noon yesterday by a shooting affray, with Dr. W. F. Lee and Will Hurn, a haeckdröw, as principals,—the latter being shot through the left lung by Lee.—The doctor claims that he presented Hurn a bill for services, and was told that Sunday was not a proper time to collect bills. The result was a quarrel, during which Hurn assaulted and choked the doctor, and the latter fired two shots at his assailant.

At last accounts the attending physicians reported Hurn in a sinking condition, and, although Lee had furnished a bond in the sum of $1,000, he was re-arrested last evening. Dr. Lee is one of the best known physicians in Beatrice.

COL. CODY MAKES A SPEECH

Tells Kansas People That Roosevelt Is the American Cyclone.

Governor Roosevelt, who is at present making a tour of Kansas, is being warmly welcomed at every point where he stops. A dispatch from Junction City, Kan., to the State Journal gives the following account of the reception given him at that place by Buffalo Bill's soldiers and Indians: "When the train arrived at Junction City a great surprise awaited the governor. Drawn up in line on their horses were 'Buffalo Bill's' soldiers and Indians in costume and a large crowd of people. A dozen or more of the soldiers were found to have been members of the governor's own regiment who were with him in Cuba. When the train stopped Colonel Cody, in the picturesque dress of a pioneer frontiersman, appeared at the rear of the coach and was warmly greeted by the governor. After Governor Roosevelt had concluded his remarks of a few minutes' duration, he introduced Colonel Cody to the crowd. Colonel Cody said: "Ladies and Gentlemen: Governor Roosevelt is the American cyclone, and I don't wonder that some have taken to their cellars. The 'Wild West' is here not to make political speeches. The ticket Governor Roosevelt represents is already elected, and all they have got to do is to show down and take the pot. Every mile of Kansas has been covered and won with blood. We had to expand. Kansas is still expanding. The state was then known as 'Bleeding Kansas.' It is no longer 'Bleeding Kansas.' It is one of the great states of the union."

"At this point the train moved off and Colonel Cody's oration was cut short. When he arrived at Huthison the governor was much worn by his labors of the day and after a reception and a brief address, retired to rest."

An Important Question.

The question sometimes arises whether a man is entitled to vote at an election held on the day preceding the twenty-first anniversary of his birth. Blackstone, in his Commentaries, book 1, page 463, says: "Full age in male or female is twenty-one years, which age is completed on the day preceding the anniversary of a person's birth, who, till that time, is an infant, and so styled in law." The late Chief Justice Sharwood, in his edition of Blackstone's Commentaries, quotes Christian's note on the above as follows: "If he is born on the 16th of February, 1828, he is of age to do any legal act on the morning of the 15th of February, 1829, though he may not have lived twenty-one years by nearly forty-eight hours. The reason assigned is that in law there is no fraction of a day; and if the birth were on the last second of one day and the act on the first second of the preceding day twenty-one years would be complete; and in the law it is the same whether a thing is done upon one moment of the day or another." The same high authority (Sharwood) adds in a note of his own: "A person is of full age the day before the twenty-first anniversary of his birthday."

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be as confidently given to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by all druggists.

Finish the Foundation.

The brick work on the foundation of the new Methodist church is now complete. Rev. Asa Sleeth, C. E. Westcott and G. M. Spurlock, the building committee, have selected John Robinson, superintendent of the wood work. A carload of lumber is on the ground, and a gang of men are pushing the work as fast as the weather will permit.

Fail to Capture Walker.

John Walker, the man who got away from Constable Quinton at Avoca Saturday, is still at large. A couple of bloodhounds were put to work on the case Saturday evening and yesterday morning, but were unable to take the trail of the escaped prisoner. By this time he is probably far away from the scene of his crime.

Editor's Awful Flight.

F. M. Higgins, Editor Seneca (Ill.), News, was afflicted for years with Piles that no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world. He writes, two boxes wholly cured him. Infallible for Piles, Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggist.

As usually treated a sprain will dis-

able the injured person for three or four weeks, but if Chamberlain's Pain Balm is freely applied a complete cure may be effected in a very few days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism, cuts, bruises and burns. For sale by all druggists.

BIG CITY'S SURROUNDINGS

A writer in yesterday's Omaha News gives an interesting account of the beautiful surroundings which can be seen from the top of the New York Life building at that place. As it is interesting reading to people of eastern Nebraska generally, THE NEWS reprints a portion of the article as follows: "None but those who have entered the elevator of the New York Life building, been whirled upward to the tenth story, and then clambered into the observation tower, can appreciate the delightful scene that surrounds Omaha. "Strange as it may seem, but a very small proportion of the people of this city have availed themselves of this rare treat, yet hundreds from all over the country, who have visited Omaha, are familiar with Omaha's surroundings. This fact recalls what Mr. Lintinger once said: That the people of Omaha knew too little about Omaha, and too much about some other place. "There are few prettier pictures than that which greets the eye of the observer on this lofty pinnacle. Looking off to the east the first thing to attract attention are the murky waters of the Missouri, as it winds its way through a country fertile to the very banks. Spanning its bosom are seen three great steel and wood structures, the Douglas Union Pacific bridge, and the Terminal bridge. All of these cause-ways are alive with activity. There are steam cars and pulling engines, street cars, wagons, carriages and pedestrians, all apparently in a hurry to reach the opposite side from the starting place. "Just over this bluff range, and a little to the east where Oreadpolis once stood, can be seen the blue smoke as it rises from the old river tower of Plattsmouth. Here, too, can be seen the dim outline of the Platte river, as it takes its course from the far west to mingle with the waters of the Missouri, near Oreadpolis. "As one scans the view in this direction, watches the sun glistening on the waters of the river, and sees trains of cars as they make their way up along the bank, it is hard to realize the wonderful changes that have taken place there in the last quarter of a century. In those days the old time side-wheeler provided the means of transportation, and the river was seldom free from some of the craft. "To the north a field-garden is spread out, so enchantingly beautiful that the eyes could fast thereon for hours without becoming weary. Well laid out farms, orchards laden with ripening fruit, pastures in which feed sleek cattle and blooded horses, all built and neatly painted houses, all set down there as if by the hand of a magician, yet in truth the fruits of energetic men and women—Nebraska's kings and queens."

The Heaviness of Women.

Was grandly shown by Mrs. John Dewing of Buller, Pa., in a three years' struggle with a malignant stomach trouble that caused distressing attacks of nausea and indigestion. All remedies failed to relieve her until she tried Electric Bitters. After taking it two months, she wrote: "I am now wholly cured and can eat anything. It is truly a grand tonic for the whole system as I gained in weight and feel much stronger since using it. It aids digestion, cures dyspepsia, improves appetite, gives new life. Only 50c. Guaranteed, at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s Drug Store.

Endured Death's Agonies.

Only a roaring fire enabled J. M. Garretson, of San Antonio, Tex., to lie down when attacked by Asthma, from which he suffered for years. He writes his misery was often so great that it seemed he endured the agonies of death; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption wholly cured him. This marvelous medicine is the only known cure for Asthma as well as Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottle free at F.
