HON. WILLIAM L. WILSON, ex-postmaster general, died at his home in Lexington, Va., yesterday. Mr. Wilson was author of the Wilson tariff bill, served in congress from 1883 to 1895 and at the time of his death was president of Washington and Lee university.

THE large registration of voters in New York, Chicago and Baltimore is taken by the republicans as a good omen of the campaign. In Baltimore, especially, the professional and business men are arranging themselves solidly for McKinley, and will be at the polls in force in November.

CAPTAIN BENNETT is putting in his time circulating among the voters of the First commissioner's district. He's going to do his best to overcome the fusion majority that is staring him in the face. The republicans have a good candidate in Mr. Bennett, and they can afford to give him their best efforts.

EXTENSIVE preparations are being made for the opening of the Parmele theatre. The management has secured one of the finest attractions possible, and every effort will be made to make the opening an event of special note. While but $3 is to be charged for the best seats, a goodly number will insist on paying $5 to show their appreciation of what has been done for the city.

"I come of a long line of democrats who have been conspicuous in the political history of the Gulf States. I cannot subscribe to the teachings of Mr. Bryan.
