

BRYAN NOW IN CHICAGO

Puts in the Remainder of His Week Talking to the West-ern Metropolis People.

HIS BUSY RUN ACROSS INDIANA

Begins Work as Soon as He Reaches Chicago—Roosevelt Closing Up in New York.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Hon. W. J. Bryan, the Democratic presidential candidate, alighted from a monon train at the Dearborn station yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Leaves His Private Car for Good. The stopping points were Jamestown, Crawfordville, Darlington, Frankfort, Madison, Monon, Rensselaer, Lowell and Hammond.

Bryan's Campaign at Chicago. There was a brief stop at the town of Lowell, which was not originally on the program.

ONLY A DAY MORE FOR ROOSEVELT He Makes Fifteen Speeches to New York Republicans, to Large Audiences.

Can Use Voting Machines. Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2.—After giving the matter exhaustive consideration Attorney General Owen has decided that voting machines can be used in voting on the proposed constitutional amendment next Tuesday.

Conservative Win in Manitoba. Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 2.—In the local bye-election in Center Winnipeg yesterday F. Taylor (conservative) was elected by a majority of 164 over Robert Muir.

Death of H. H. Roudinot. Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 1.—H. H. Roudinot, for many years inspector of the local board of insurance agencies, died Tuesday morning, after a lingering illness. He was 55 years of age.

DEMURE BUT A SWINDLER.

Young Woman Gets a Gold Watch by a Trick That Is No Vain. Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—By impersonating Mrs. John R. Tanner over the telephone a demure-looking young woman worked a confidence game upon J. C. Klabolt, one of Springfield's leading jewelers.

SUSPECT MURDERER CAUGHT.

Supposed to Have Slain an Aged Couple Near Adams, Ill. Plattsville, Wis., Nov. 2.—A man suspected of being the murderer of the Robb family was captured by Deputy Sheriff Shellman Wednesday night and taken to Lancaster jail.

Crippled in Both Legs. Iron River, Wis., Nov. 2.—E. E. Clemmens, who has been working for Wilkinson & Co. on their switch engine met with an accident which will cripple him for life.

Two Were Burned in the Week. West Superior, Wis., Nov. 2.—Two men who were turned alive in the Eastern Minnesota wreck at the state line were George Butler and Herman Johnson.

Pushing the Work but Finding Nothing. New York, Nov. 2.—Work on the ruins of the Tarrant store and the adjacent property was pushed last night to the full limit of the contractors' powers.

Size of the National Debt. Washington, Nov. 2.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business Oct. 31, 1900, the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $1,104,402,320.

Story Is Officially Denied. Berlin, Nov. 2.—The Cologne Gazette, confirming the dispatch of the Associated Press of Oct. 29, authoritatively denies the stories of Germany's contemplated lease from Venezuela of a coalfield on the island of Man.

St. Paul, Nov. 2.—Continued improvement was the cheering intelligence given out last night at the residence of Senator Cushman K. Davis in answer to inquiry as to his condition.

Struck for Better Wages. Alexandria, Ind., Nov. 2.—Fifty union plumbers of this city have gone on strike. An increase of wages was demanded, which was refused them by their employers.

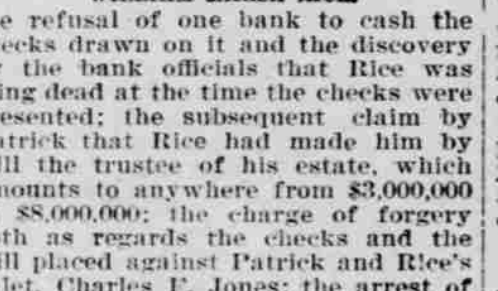

"TAKING-OFF" OF RICE

Crime That Has Been Entertaining Greater New York for Several Weeks.

DONE BY HIS LAWYER, IT SEEMS

His Valet So Confesses, and Declares That He Saw the Deed—Then He Tries Suicide.

New York, Nov. 2.—The death of the wealthy William Marsh Rice at his Madison avenue apartments on Sept. 23; the attempt of his New York attorney, Albert T. Patrick, to cash checks for large amounts which purported to be signed by the millionaire;

THEY STOLE A "SKULL CAP." Grewsome Thing for Medical Students Think a Fine Ornament. Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 2.—Three junior medical students are under suspension for the theft of the "skull cap" of a post-mortem subject.

THOSE EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS Turn Out to Have Been Only a Series of Heavy Blasts. Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 2.—What were generally accepted in Jacksonville Wednesday afternoon and night as earthquake shocks, and so widely officially to Washington by the local newspapers here, developed to have been heavy blasting in the St. John river near the city.

One Man Burned in the Week. Hinckley, Minn., Nov. 2.—Train No. 4, limited express, on the Northern Pacific, pulled out of here on time and then a fire broke out in the engine.

They May Be Happy, Perhaps. Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—With a long revolver in his hand, Tuesday compelled George Overaker to marry her. The young woman claims Overaker is the father of her infant child, and having no male relatives to assist her, took the matter in her own hands.

Child Born on a Street Car. Chicago, Nov. 2.—The birth of a child startled passengers of a north-bound Cottage Grove avenue car at Twenty-ninth street yesterday and caused the conductor to be telephoned for the wrecking wagon in his excitement.

Claims $25,000 from Uncle Sam. Detroit, Nov. 1.—Major Stone will go to Washington right after election to make proof of $25,000 more war claims of the state against the government.

FOURTEEN AND A WIFE

Although Both Small and Immature—Wants a Divorce Now. Vincennes, Ind., Nov. 2.—A child-wife, Etta Ray Hill, asks the circuit court to dissolve her marriage with Franklin Hill.

MISTAKE SOMEWHERE

Issue of Veracity Between Attorney General Griggs and Monnett, of Ohio.

BRYAN'S REPLY TO TWO QUESTIONS Roosevelt Given an Ovation at Buffalo—Bryan Talks Democratic Doctrine in Ohio.

Napoleon, O., Nov. 1.—The following letter to the chairman of the county Republican committee explains it. It is dated Washington, Oct. 25, 1900.

Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 23d inst., in which you state that ex-Attorney General Frank S. Monnett, of Ohio, in a Democratic speech at Napoleon on the 22d inst., stated that I, in a letter to him, and also in a personal interview with him, said that the reason why the trusts have not been prosecuted was that the president has been inactive and indifferent in the enforcement of the anti-trust laws.

First Is as to the "Coin" Obligations, Second as to North Carolina. Princeton, N. J., Nov. 1.—Francis J. Hall, president of the University Republican club, has received a letter from William J. Bryan, dated New York, Oct. 29, in which he replies to the two questions sent him by the Republican club when he addressed the students at Princeton Junction last Thursday.

Caught an Eagle Alive. Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 1.—John O'Brien, a member of the Winnebago county board of supervisors, captured a live eagle on his arm Saturday and brought it to Oshkosh. It measures 7 feet from tip to tip.

HARRY BURGESS A HERO. Inquest on the Attempt of Four "Italians" to Do a Hold-Up. Connelville, Pa., Nov. 1.—Atmaster Wm. L. Hosler, of the Southwest Connelville Coke company, and the two bandits who were killed in an attempted highway robbery near Alverton Tuesday evening, Harry W. Burgess, the colored man who accompanied Hosler, and who shot two of the bandits, killing one, was the principal hero of the episode.

Brazil, Ind., Nov. 1.—Early Monday morning a mob numbering 500 armed men congregated at the fall grounds and planned to raid the county jail and lynch Samuel Harmon, who killed young Charles Reynolds Sunday morning.

Steepchaseer Fatally Hurt. Baltimore, Nov. 1.—A. F. Watson, of Philadelphia, who was injured during a steepchase at Pimlico Tuesday afternoon, died yesterday at the University hospital after having received medical attention since his fall.

UNCLESAM'S OWN IDEA

That Which John Bull and Hans Sprung in Their Little Treaty of Alliance.

SECRETARY HAYS SENDS A REPLY

Agreeing to Principles Originated in Our State Department—Japan Has Also Agreed.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The state department yesterday made public the British-German agreement respecting the maintenance of the "open door" and territorial integrity of China, with the answer of the United States government, sent in duplicate to each of the principals to the agreement.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The prohibition special left Pittsburgh at 6:15 last evening and reached here at 8 for the night meeting. Several hundred people were present at the Washington Military band greeted the party. A street parade preceded the speaking.

Deliberately Murders Her Husband, Beginning While He Is Asleep. Geneseo, Ill., Nov. 1.—William Hilger, a young carpenter of Hoopville, near here, is dead of wounds inflicted upon him with a pistol by his wife. According to the story Hilger told before his death, fully confirmed by the wife's confession, she shot him first in the temple as he lay upon a sofa on Sunday evening. He stepped for her and she shot him once in the neck and twice in the abdomen before he wrested the weapon from her.

Florida Town Shows an Agle of an Octopus Seismic Shiver. Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 1.—Eight distinct earthquake shocks were felt in Jacksonville yesterday. The first shock was at 11:15 a. m. and shook some of the large buildings in the city.

STATUS OF THE MISSIONARIES. Official Statement That Is of Interest to Various Churches. New York, Nov. 1.—The Rev. Arthur J. Brown, one of the secretaries of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, yesterday received a letter from David J. Hill, assistant secretary of state, which covers various points connected with the present status of the missionaries in China.

Three Steamers Damaged. Duluth, Nov. 1.—The steamers Iron King, Genoa and Oakley were damaged to the extent of about $10,000 in a collision at the Missabe ore dock. The accident was due to a mistaken signal by the Iron King, which crashed into the stern of Genoa, showing her on the Oakley. The dock was considerably damaged also. No casualties.

Implemented Makers in Council. Milwaukee, Nov. 1.—The National Association of Agricultural Implement and Vehicle Manufacturers, one of the wealthiest associations in the country, convened in its seventh annual convention at the Plankinton House yesterday.

Lynchings Must Be Getting Stale. Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 1.—The negro reported as lynched near Anniston Monday night was not killed, but was given fifty lashes while tied in a sack.