

PROVES HIS INNOCENCE

Selsby Was Not Implicated in Greenwood Burglary.

Shows That He Was Not in Cass County at the Time It Is Alleged the Crime Was Committed and Justice Archer Releases Him—Tuttle's Hearing Continued Thirty Days.

Henry Selsby, who was charged with being implicated in the burglary which occurred at Greenwood a short time ago, had a preliminary hearing before Judge Archer today. He succeeded in proving his innocence and was released.

It developed that Selsby and a man named Dan Meacham were in Seward county buying up dead hogs at the time the harness and laprobe were found in his barn.

Tuttle, the other man who is being held for the burglary, admits that he put the articles where they were found in the barn, but claims that he traded for them with a stranger in Lincoln. The court has fixed January 26, 1911, as the date of his hearing, in order to enable the prisoner's friends to find the man who sold him the stolen harness and laprobe.

Chief of Police Haglund, C. M. Green and Elmer E. Sides of the Lincoln police force were in the city today as witnesses in the case. William D. Harvey, the Greenwood farmer of whom the property was stolen, and Dan Meacham were also here.

"Miss Hobbs" Coming
It is hardly probable that the present theatrical season will bring to this city another attraction so popular both in England and America as Jerome K. Jerome's latest comedy success, "Miss Hobbs," which will be seen at the Parkville next Tuesday, matinee and evening.

The plot of "Miss Hobbs" is very simple, and its theme is very like that of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew," but only in theme is there resemblance—treatment and development are along wholly original lines. Miss Hobbs is the latter day Katherine who finds her Petruchio in one Wolff Klugearl, who is tamed by up-to-date methods. She is a type of the modern girl, who accepts her notions from hearsay, and, with the boarding school knowledge of the world, proceeds to reorganize humanity. She is never very serious about it, however, and never, it might be added, quite sure of herself, so that when Petruchio comes along, in a yachting cap and duck trousers and the other cogent arguments of a twentieth century man who has knocked about the globe, she speedily discovers that her authority to men and to marriage isn't half so strong and durable as she had fancied it.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap.
A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Bosche's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommend many years by all druggists in the world. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

Couldn't Read the Letter.
Chief of Police Slater received a letter yesterday which, for bad grammar and penmanship, certainly takes the prize. From the postmark it is evident the letter was mailed at Greenwood, Ia. For two hours the officer studied in a vain effort to figure out the puzzle, but he finally concluded that it was beyond his power to do so. Judge Archer and several other citizens also tried to solve the problem, but they were no more successful than Mr. Slater. If the Iowa man wishes a reply to his letter he will have to make his wants known in a more legible manner.

A VERY DIFFICULT TASK.

Redistricting of State into Senatorial and Representative Districts.

A new plan has been proposed of making the very difficult job of redistricting the state of Nebraska into senatorial and representative districts, says the State Journal. There are many difficulties in the way of getting such a measure through. The principal one will come through the opposition of districts that are certain to lose representation. It may be set down as reasonably certain that the southeastern portion of the state and a portion of the central section will lose representation, whatever bill is proposed. It may be reasonably expected that the representatives from the counties that will lose will not be satisfied to the extent of giving cordial support to any bill introduced. How to overcome this difficulty is the problem.

The legislature, under the constitution, can only redistrict the state after the federal census, or, if a state census is taken, that may be made the basis, every five years. The present districting was made in 1885. The legislature of 1891 could not solve the problem of equal representation and passed no law. The legislature of 1895 made no appropriation for taking a state census, and the legislature of 1897 could do nothing. Two years ago bills were introduced by Senator Owens and Representative Wiley, but the unconstitutionality of a measure passed at that time caused the bills to be lost in committee.

The plan now is for the state central committee to take up the question. It is proposed that Chairman Lindsay shall call to his assistance men thoroughly competent and as nearly unbiased as possible, and that these men shall draft a bill that will later be submitted by Mr. Lindsay to the republican caucus. It is believed that if Mr. Lindsay will do so, detail what the committee has done and ask that any amendments be made there in caucus, that the matter can be settled without endangering reapportionment.

The idea is to have the republican caucus take the Lindsay draft as either a proper measure or the basis of one to be formulated by the caucus, the agreement being that whatever bill the caucus agrees upon shall be binding upon every member thereof and that they shall all vote against any amendment of the bill upon the floor of either house or senate.

In this way the republicans can carry through a bill that will be satisfactory to them. If it is not done, there exists the possibility of some shrewd fusionist getting up a bill that will attract enough republicans by reason of its treatment of their respective districts to secure its passage. It is not proposed to gerrymander the state in the interest of the republicans, but simply to do as the fusionists would do if they were in power, to resolve every doubt in favor of the republicans.

GLOBE SIGHTS.

When a woman's husband makes money she no longer employs a sewing woman, but calls the woman who does that work her "modiste."

The women make a great fuss if a man appears at dinner in his shirt sleeves. Are shirt sleeves at dinner any worse than hair in curl papers for breakfast?

If there were a law compelling a groom when he says, "With all my worldly goods I thee endow," to give an inventory showing just what he has, there would be fewer marriages that call for relief expeditions from the bride's parents.

A girl who is visiting in town has been invited out to two meals a day since she arrived a month ago. At every meal she was given a tomato covered with yellow stuff. She wants to know if this habit is universal in Kansas, or prevails only in Atchison. When it is generally said of a girl that she is boy crazy, and a loafer at home, her prospects in life are greatly injured. When it is generally said of a girl that she helps her mother, and is nice and modest, she cannot fail to be greatly benefited. Girls are held responsible for their actions the same as boys. It is not enough to say of a girl who hopes to make a success of life, that she is not immoral; she must be well-behaved, useful and sensible.—Atchison Globe.

FLOWERS AT PAN-AMERICAN.

Charming Landscape Effects and Beautiful Floral Exhibits.

The Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo next summer will possess unusual charm for lovers of flowers and of beautiful landscape effects. Perhaps in recognition of this the members of the Society of American Florists have decided to hold their annual convention in Buffalo in 1901. Chicago was anxious to win the convention, but in view of the special attractions for its members which the Pan-American Exposition will possess it was decided to meet next year in the Pan-American city. The gathering will bring to Buffalo about 1,000 delegates and their families from all parts of the United States. The floral features of the Pan-American Exposition and its landscape effects will surpass anything ever seen before by visitors to expositions held in the United States. The laying out of the grounds was done with the view of providing for such attractions, and ample space was left for courts and fountains, canals and lakes, which will be bordered with plants and flowers of all kinds and descriptions. While there will be charming scenery of this character in all portions of the grounds, an especial effort will be made to embellish the southern portion, adjoining Delaware park, at the entrance to that part of the grounds where the main Exposition buildings are situated. On both sides of the splendid Triumphal Bridge at this point will be two artificial pools called the Mirror Lakes, connecting with the Grand Canal, which encircles the grounds. The slopes of these lakes and the whole vicinity will be adorned with a magnificent outdoor exhibit of flowering plants set in such a way as most to enhance the beautiful effect. There will be a large display of rare water plants, including the Nymphaeas and the wonderful Victoria Regia, or Amazon Lily, and many Nymphaeas not before exhibited. Applications for space for exhibits on the grounds and in the special building to be devoted to horticulture are coming from florists all over the country, and the expressed desire of the cultivators of flowers and plants to be represented at the Pan-American insures an extensive exhibition of these beautiful products of nature.

Wearing Out the Brain.
A French scientist has determined that the military and naval professions most quickly wear out the brain. Out of 100,000 naval and military men, 199 are confirmed lunatics. Next come the liberal professions, artists heading the list, followed closely by lawyers, and more distantly by doctors, clergy, literary men, and civil servants. The number of those who go mad is 177 to each 100,000. Domestic servants and day laborers run the profession men very close, sending 155 out of each 100,000 to the asylum. These are followed at a long distance by mechanics, only sixty-six of whom go mad in each 100,000. And the group which is most favorable to sanity is, contrary to general belief, that of commercial men, which sends only forty-two out of 100,000 to the asylum.

LIFE SAVING STATION.

One Is Being Erected by United States Government.

Work was recently begun on the United States life saving station upon the grounds of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, N. Y. The site of the station is on the north side of the lake in Delaware park, in one of the most beautiful portions of the Exposition grounds.

The life saving station will be fully equipped with apparatus and machinery and will be a most attractive as well as novel exhibit. Life saving exhibitions will be given every day during the progress of the Exposition. The apparatus in use by the government for this purpose will be shown and a crew of ten picked men will be employed in giving the exhibitions. The station is to be modeled after one of the regular stations along the coast of the United States.

Hoping to Make Their Fortunes.

The thousands of people who visit the grounds where the buildings of the Pan-American Exposition are rising like a city created by magic see many things which indicate that the value of the vacant lots surrounding the Exposition grounds for money making purposes next summer is duly appreciated. For instance, one real estate dealer advertises like this: "Can you run a boarding house? Can you run a lunch counter? If so, here is your chance to make the most money." Another advertises, "Choice lots for hotels, boarding houses, saloons, summer gardens, restaurants, souvenir booths and other things by which you can make your fortune at the Pan-American Exposition." All the vacant property in the vicinity of the Exposition grounds is staked off and placarded by signs indicating its value for purposes in connection with the big Exposition to be held in Buffalo next summer, and many buildings are already going up which will be used for accommodations for Exposition visitors and all sorts of purposes connected with their entertainment.

Broad Scope of the Exposition.

Nearly all of the nations of Central and South America have already sent formal acceptances to the invitation to participate in the Pan-American Exposition. Exhibits showing the resources of all the principal countries of Central and South America are now in course of preparation. Government officials are preparing exhibits from the Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, Cuba and the Hawaiian group. About 15 acres have been set apart for the court of the state and foreign buildings on the eastern side of the grounds and a little south of the main group.

WAIT ON CHINA NOW BEGINS

China Has the Note and Powers Rest Until Authoritative Reply is Received.

Washington, Dec. 27.—A cablegram received at the state department from United States Minister Conger, dated at Peking on the 24th inst., states that the first formal meeting between the diplomatic representatives and Prince Ching took place on the 24th. Ching presented the credentials of himself and Li Hung Chang, who was unable to attend owing to illness, to the diplomatic representatives, who handed to him the official note. The officials of the state department are unwilling to venture a guess as to the length of time that will be consumed by the Chinese government in consideration of the note. The last article notified the Chinese government that the occupation of Chi Li and Peking may continue until the Chinese government has complied with the terms of the note. It may be stated, however, that the United States is not bound or affected by this condition. Our occupancy from a military point of view has terminated and there is no disposition to renew it.

As for the other powers, it is expected that the main obstacle they will encounter in withdrawing under this condition will be found in the difficulty in obtaining satisfactory guaranties upon the Chinese promise to pay indemnities.

London, Dec. 27.—"Mr. Conger takes a hopeful view of the situation," says the Peking correspondent of the Morning Post, writing Monday, "and thinks that a settlement will be effected, but he declares that no one of the envoys will recognize the empress dowager officially, although all are aware that she has long exercised the supreme power. LUCKY PUPILS.

No "Partial Payments" in Philadelphia's Public Schools.

The school children of today have a great many advantages over those of a few years ago, but there's no one chronicled that has brought as much regret to former pupils as a change recently introduced into the public schools of Philadelphia. By its problems in compound interest, customs and partial payments are abolished.

The head of the school system in the Quaker City is very sensible of the opinion that not one child in a thousand ever has occasion in later life to use the specified problems, and so these lucky youngsters escape them altogether, says the Baltimore News.

Anyone who has toiled over a partial-payment example; who has filled both sides of a slate with it; who has sighed over it, and worked over it, and wept over it, and has finally gotten an answer that differed from that in the book—sometimes by a mere bagatelle of $200 or $300—can appreciate the good fortune of the scholars. They also appreciate the fact that in certain cases their own struggles with figures that wouldn't multiply at all might have been spared them to the improvement of their tempers and their nerves and without injury to their intelligence.
