ACTING MAYOR SATTLER let the chance of a lifetime go by to catch the church vote by failing to have the crossings cleaned last Sunday.

PRESIDENT-ELECT TAFT, in his quiet way, is beginning to line up the party workers preparatory to carrying out the pledges made the people. There are those who didn't believe he would carry out his program for reform but all doubt as to his sincerity is rapidly being dispelled.

Colonel Bates, of the Journal, confesses to having founded seventeen newspapers in Illinois and seven or eight in Missouri. While we do not wish to appear inquisitive, the question naturally obtrudes itself as to what he has done with all his money.—NEWS-HERALD.

To be candid about the matter, it did keep us busy to make both ends meet on some of the papers, but we never managed any of them so badly as to be compelled to take the benefit of the bankrupt law and settle with creditors at about ten cents on the dollar. Another thing, we were never compelled to give up a "lucrative law practice" to work as a local reporter for $12 per week and then not get the salary when it was due. Come again.—Journal.

It does not require a profound perception to recognize the fact that the "kunnel" is a Missourian all right. When it comes to "showing" people he is the "candy." But oh, what a disposition he exhibits! The poor man must have taken his patent medicine advertising out in trade, and then consumed the entire amount himself.

*Peanut candy.

MR. BRYAN'S political friends seem to think the temperance people ought to let the Nebraskan alone and not insist his showing his hand on the county option question. That you know, "wasn't in the platform" which, of course, should excuse one from having, or at least from expressing, an opinion thereon. Fortunately, the voters know enough about the temperance question to settle it without his assistance. They are not depending upon Mr. Bryan or any other statesman to solve this problem. Very naturally, he will avoid taking a stand on this particular question as long as he can avoid doing so. As a general proposition the liquor interests are lined up with the democratic hosts, hence democratic leaders are going to keep all vexing questions like county option as far away as possible. Both old parties are afraid of it, but the republican forces in Nebraska will eventually adopt the progressive temperance ideas and carry off the honors. It might have been done this year.

A VEXING QUESTION.

The temperance question promises to be a vexing one for the members of the legislature this winter. The selection of so many democrats to both houses was presumed to settle the matter of progressive temperance legislation for at least two years, but quite a sprinkling of these democratic members are pledged to county option and others won't want to vote against it. A large per cent of the republican minority will fight hard for a county option measure. It is hardly likely that it will be possible to pass a bill of this kind, and yet it will have so many staunch supporters that the opponents of temperance legislation will find the situation more or less embarrassing. So rapidly is the sentiment growing in favor of either prohibition or county option that very few of the members who see fit to oppose legislation of this kind this winter will be re-elected two years hence.

In Cass county the candidates who were most pronounced in favor of temperance reform fared the best at the polls. Had all of the republican candidates come out flat-footed for county option early in the campaign the party would have a solid delegation in Lincoln this winter. There are enough voters in favor of progressive temperance reform to elect men who will support their ideas. They are not all in one party but there are plenty in all the parties.

Thousands who would have voted for the saloons two or three years ago are talking and working against them today. As a business proposition the liquor traffic is looked upon as a failure. Cities and towns, large and small, are coming to realize that they are much better off without the saloons and their accompaniments. The towns that are dryest are destined to be the best from both a business and a moral standpoint. As a matter of self-preservation and local pride, therefore, the towns are going to insist upon going, and being kept, "dry." We may have to wait another two years in Nebraska, but by that time the voters will be in a proper frame of mind to adopt county option or something better.

to kill police who interfere with us," exclaimed one of the followers of "Adam God" after the late battle in Kansas City. Such a religion seems too obviously a cloak for law breaking to deserve a respect. Proof is seen that it is a very human institution in the pleas made. "We are a peace loving people, but if the police try to stop our religion teaches us to believe that they are wrong and should be killed," they say. Something like that has been heard from pious corporations in defense of bribery and political corruption.—State Journal.

POINTS TO CHINA'S WASTE.

A special dispatch under date of December 8 to Globe Democrat from its Washington correspondent touching the President's message says:

"In the book in which the president's message of today is printed for general circulation that portion of his message which refers to the necessity of forest reservation is illustrated by photographic views of denuded sections of China. Ten examples of waste of natural resources are set forth. One view represented a section of 200 square miles of barren mountain tops which the underline says paid a rich revenue a century ago."

THE STATE OF LINCOLN.

The proposal of Mr. Albert E. Pillsbury of Boston that, upon New Mexico's admission into the Union the name of the state be changed to "Lincoln" is meeting with considerable approval throughout the country. It is generally admitted that "New Mexico" is a rather meaningless designation for a state and the need of a new cognomen is manifest. Names like New York, New Hampshire and New Jersey are fitted only for colonies. The opportunity to honor the name of Lincoln by naming a state after him will pass with the admission into the union of Arizona and New Mexico. When Colorado became a state it was proposed to name the new commonwealth Lincoln, but congress did not look with favor upon the proposal.—Washington Post.

A South Carolina paper says the defeat of Parker shows that the Democratic party cannot succeed on a conservative footing, while Bryan's reverses prove that the party is a failure in radicalism. While the South Carolinians are struggling with this dilemma the Republicans will take excellent care of the country.—Globe Democrat.

Religious liberty is at stake in Kansas City, and the torch will probably have to be used. The Holy Rollers have religious scruples bidding them preach on the street and take up collections early and often during the proceeding. If anybody interferes it is their religious duty to check his impious opposition. "Our faith, you know, teaches us that we have a right

IT IS A GOOD REASON

Plattsmouth People Can Give You Many Good Reasons Why it is So.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the cause of disease, and that is why the cures are always lasting. This remedy strengthens and tones up the kidneys, helping them to drive out of the body the liquid poisons that cause backache, headache and distressing kidney and urinary complaints. Plattsmouth people testify to permanent cures.

J. W. Hickson, employed with the Plattsmouth Water Co., and living on Oak Street, between Seventh and Eighth streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says "My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills warrants me in giving them my strongest recommendation. Off and on for twelve or fourteen years I was subject to attacks of pain in my back and other symptoms which gave evidence of a deranged condition of my kidneys. Procuring Doan's Kidney Pills at Gering & Co.'s drug store, I used them as directed and the benefit derived was so pronounced that I am able to attest to the remarkable value and merit of this remedy. Not only did Doan's Kidney Pills give me entire relief from the pain in my back but they toned up and invigorated my system generally.

Brought Here For Interment.

Dr. Clutter, the dentist who was found in an Omaha hotel dead, with the gas turned on, was a former Plattsmouth resident. His remains were brought here Monday morning for interment, in their family lot in Oak Hill cemetery by the side of his child. Dr. Clutter was well known here eighteen years ago, and had a nice family. The causes of his untimely taking off are not known. The case looked like one of suicide, though it may have been an accident.

Mr. Crowder Improving.

Conductor Joe Crowder is improving so much that the physicians have consented that he may go to his home at Creton Tuesday.

Mr. Crowder has had a hard fight for his life, but his indomitable courage has won and he will no doubt survive.

There is quite a long time to elapse before he will be well, but unless unforeseen difficulties arise Mr. Crowder will recover his usual health.

Xmas at Dovey's Store.

W. C. Ahlstrand, one of the obliging clerks at Dovey's store has arranged a mail box for the youngsters of the city to mail their wants to Santa. The communication must be in writing and signed by the child, and it is guaranteed to reach the hands of good "St. Nick" before he starts on his rounds this season. The scheme is new and no doubt the box will receive plenty of suggestions to Santa.

Rural Carriers Examined.

William Nix, a rural mail carrier has handed in his resignation to Uncle Sam, and will quit the route very soon. Examinations were held in this city Saturday to fill the vacancy. Those taking the examination were: Ray Chrisswisser, Rex Young, Jeff Brendel and Henry Sauer. The route is out of Murray and any one of the applicants can handle the business nicely.
