RUEF IS CONVICTED

Political Boss and Arch Criminal of San Francisco must Go to Prison.

After one of the most sensational trials lasting for weeks, the jury in the case of the state against Abe Ruef at San Francisco brought in a verdict Thursday of guilty. The jury was out twentyfour hours deliberating on evidence and arguments in the case, which had required 106 days to lay before them.

The scene in the room during the reading of the verdict was dramatic, although the court, allowed no demonstration. The state chief prosecutor, Francis J. Heney sat at the council table for the first time since being seriously wounded, by an insane man, during the early stages of the trial. The court set next Saturday as the day of pronouncing judgement. The maximum penalty for the offense is fourteen years in penitentiary. The court room was cleared of spectators immediately after the case was completed, none of the jury would discuss the verdict nor state how many ballots were taken to arrive at a decision.

IT IS A GOOD REASON

Plattsmouth People Can Give You Many Good Reasons Why it is So.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the cause of disease, and that is why the cures are always lasting. This remedy strengthens and tones up the kidneys, helping them to drive out of the body the liquid poisons that cause backache, headache and distressing kidney and urinary complaints. Plattsmouth people testify to permanent cures.

J. W. Hickson, employed with the Plattsmouth Water Co., and living on Oak Street, between Seventh and Eighth streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills warrants me in giving them my strongest recommendation. Off and on for twelve or fourteen years I was subject to attacks of pain in my back and other symptoms which gave evidence of a deranged condition of my kidneys. Procuring Doan's Kidney Pills at Gering & Co.'s drug store, I used them as directed and the benefit derived was so pronounced that I am able to attest to the remarkable value and merit of this remedy. Not only did Doan's Kidney Pills give me entire relief from the pain in my back but they toned up and invigorated my system generally.

THE RACE PROBLEM

Occasionally a bad negro robs his employer's fur closet, and the would-be wit to whom "all coons look alike," says "d—n the niggers", or a worse one perpetrates a horrible crime and we make it the signal for an indiscriminate slaughter of his race, the most lawless of us burning their bodies, while we, who think ourselves more respectable, content ourselves with blackening their reputations and wishing them "back in slavery." The criminal minority figures conspicuously in newspaper headlines, while the six or seven millions of patient, industrious and respectable toilers get scant justice and less courtesy.

An effort was made, immediately following emancipation, to elevate the race by statutory enactment and governmental paternalism. It failed, as it will always fail, because it overlooks the fact that emancipation simply made the negro a free man, and that men must, always and everywhere, work out their own destiny.

It is encouraging to note that in our own city the small colored contingent is acting on the advice of that honored negro who rose from the greatest obscurity to be a guest of the president of the United States. In this city, although few in number and none of them, as we are advised, in more than modern circumstances, the colored people are pursuing a course which commands respect. We hear no clamor for "social rights," see no seemingly efforts to push themselves uninvited, into association with those of another race. Instead they are manfully forming ties of their own, organizing their own social life on the sure foundation of mutual attraction and mutual enjoyment. They organized and are conducting successfully, a club numbering a membership of twenty-one, having for its objects social enjoyment and mutual improvement. It is conducted modestly, inoffensively and inexpensively, the meetings being held at the homes of the members.

A PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Fox and Mr. T. B. Salmon Married Thursday Afternoon At 2:30.

The First Presbyterian church was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday afternoon, when Miss Eva Knapp Fox and Mr. Thomas B. Salmon were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. J. H. Salsbury. The church, tastefully decorated for the occasion with potted plants and cut flowers, was crowded to its utmost capacity by relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

Promptly at two o'clock the familiar strains of the wedding march were sounded by Miss Verna Cole, who presided at the organ, to which the bridal party entered.

The bridesmaid was Miss Florence Dovey, cousin of the bride, in yellow and carrying yellow chrysanthemums, and the maid of honor, Miss Helen Chapman, in green and carrying yellow chrysanthemums. The ushers were W. C. Ramsey, Grover Dovey, cousin of the bride, and Henry Goos, Mr. Earl Lincoln of Aurora, Ill., supported the groom, the bride being given away by her father.

The bride appeared very charming in white silk and carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony the bridal party, relatives and many friends repaired to the home of Mrs. Jennie S. Schildeknecht where a marriage reception was held by Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Fox, parents of the bride, from three to five. The parlors, attractively decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns were thronged with many of the friends who had known Miss Fox from childhood and who offered their good wishes and hopes for a happy future.

Mesdames H. N. Dovey, Dr. E. D. Cummins, Wm. McCauley and Miss Scarle assisted throughout the parlors. In the dining room Mrs. C. E. Duke assisted by Misses Frances Weidman and Ruth Johnson served the guests delicious ice cream, cake, coffee and wafers.

The presents were numerous and beautiful, among them being a check for $100, from a relative in Illinois.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Fox, was born and grew to womanhood here and has hosts of friends whose best wishes will ever attend her. The groom holds a lucrative position at the Burlington storehouse and although having been a resident of this city for only a few years, has made many friends who will join the NEWS-HERALD in wishing him and his estimable wife happiness and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Salmon departed on No. 2 over the Burlington Thursday evening for Aurora, Ill., where they will visit the groom's parents and other relatives during the holidays. They will be at home to their many friends after

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

Josh Wise says, "Some men sneer at women's shopping but when women shop they don't have to eat cloves to disguise what they've been buying." Speaking of cloves I think we carry the smoothest line of spices that ever came over the seas. You know some spices are all drawn out of one barrel so as to speak, and doctored up with the essential oils to represent each particular spice, such as cinnamon, cloves, allspice, pepper and mustard. That saves a lot of trouble for the spice-mills, because they don't have to have a different hopper for grinding every kind of spice, but of course that is all done away with now. When you buy spices at our store you are not buying ground almond shells or some kind of hulls flavored with essences and oils but you are buying the real thing, perfectly pure, and not mixed with cracker crumbs or any other dope to make it go farther. We handle Dwinell-Wright Co's spices and flavoring extracts, cranberries, Sour Celery, Celery, Lettuce, Bananas, Nuts, Figs and Dates, Raisins and Currants, Candied Citron, Oranges and Lemons, Curtis Bros. Olives.
