Strange as it may seem, with so much live stock being shipped to South Omaha from this vicinity, Henry Westlake our local butcher found it to his advantage to go to South Omaha and there buy a car-load of cattle to supply his demand for beef steak. They will be cared for on the Fred. Weaver place until they are to be cut up for the trade.

We understand that a good sized audience witnessed the play by local talent of Murray in the little sketch entitled "Valley Farm" on the boards of Murdock Opera House last Saturday evening. The weather was very inclement which worked against a large turnout. The play was well rendered and the crowd went home pleased with the entertainment.

FRED VOGTMAN DIES

Remains Brought From Kansas City Tuesday and Interred Yesterday.

Fred Vogtman, formerly a resident of this city died at the home of his son at 1036 Shawnee street, Kansas City last Saturday night of quick consumption. His remains were brought to Plattsmouth Tuesday morning and taken to the Hill undertaking establishment from which the funeral was held Wednesday morning, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. lodge of which deceased was a member.

The deceased was 63 years of age, but as he lay in the burial casket he did not look a day over forty. His two sons, Adolph and Albert accompanied their father's remains to Plattsmouth, also Albert's wife and children. The deceased was buried by the side of his wife who preceded him to the great beyond several years ago. Mr. Vogtman was born in Germany and married there, himself and wife coming to Plattsmouth about twenty years ago. Three sons were born to them, two of whom survive their parents, both residing in Kansas City.

Operated On At Omaha.

Mrs. John Nemetz was taken to Omaha Monday by her husband, where she suffered an operation yesterday noon. Mrs. Nemetz stood the ordeal well for one weakened by sickness. Mr. Nemetz and wife have the sympathy of this community, having suffered much sorrow of late. It is to be hoped that the lady will speedily recover permanent health.

Wedding Reception.

Monday afternoon John Tupou and Miss Mary Svehla were married by Judge Beeson at the private office of the Judge. The groom was attended by Ed. Kalesek of this city and the bride by Miss Josephine Buranek. After the ceremony the party repaired to the bride's home on west Pearl street, where a reception was held by the bride's parents in honor of the marriage. Many guests were present and a sumptuous dinner was served near the hour of six o'clock. After dinner the young members of the company and they were all young, tripped the light fantastic for a few hours.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy

You can take my word for it - whatever a fellow hopes to be, he will be, unless he gets on the wrong car. Whenever I hear one of those worldly wise chaps using that expression, "Where do I get off?" I always feel like edging up and saying, "Put him off at Plattsmouth because he will then know just where he is going to get off and we will all know where he is getting off. We know that he will get off better than he expected for the simple reason that we are primed to the muzzle with new goods and we don't care how soon the people know it. Times are improving, business is improving, people are improving, everything is improving except the weather and you can't improve that because it isn't made to be bossed. Have you tried our Plattsmouth brand of M & J coffee? Then you can't go wrong on.
