Grand Millinery Opening

The Department Store Conducts Most Successful Event.

The millinery opening of M. Fanger at the department store the last three days of the week was most successful from every standpoint. The weather creared to such proportions that Mr. Fanger found it necessary to cease doing business, owing to the crush. Although only five years of age, this little girl handles the piano in a manner which would do credit to a student several years older.

Mr. Fanger took occasion also while his millinery opening was on to place on display his spring line of the celebrated Wooldtex garments. This line is said to be the finest of ready-made tailored suits for ladies in the country and Mr. Fanger has a complete line of samples. When it is known that the was favorable and many people availed themselves of the opportunity to come out and see the newest things in women's headwear.

What proved to be a big drawing card Saturday and nearly swamped Mr. Fanger, although he had an additional array of salespeople was the work on the piano by little Annette Leof, the child wonder of Omaha. Mr. Fanger had widely advertised this event for Saturday and all day long people thronged his store to see the little lady, and finally in the afternoon the crowd in-large retail store of Charles A. Stevens & Bros. of Chicago, Illinois—a store which stands high in the ranks with Marshal Field & Co. and like institutions takes a full page of the Chicago Tribune to advertise these goods, something can be guessed as to their value. If the goods are good enough for the patrons of Stevens & Co. they are enough for the best, for Stevens & Co. only sell that class of trade. Mr. Fanger's line is identical with the Stevens line and the prices and just the same or possibly a little lower.

Funeral of Mrs. Waterman

The funeral services of the late Mr. Margaret A. Waterman, wife of John Waterman, were held at the family residence in this city. Mrs. Waterman was beloved by all who knew her a large number of sorrowing friends assembled to pay their last sad tribute to her. The services were conducted by Dr. J. T. Baird and Rev. J. H. Salisbury. The funeral march was to Oak Hill cemetery, where she was laid to rest in the city of the dead.

The honorary pall bearers were the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of which organization deceased was president. The active pall bearers were Messrs. Judge J. W. Johnson, J. N. Wise, Byron Clark, W. J. White, W. H. Newell and F. G. Fricke, all of whom were old time friends and acquaintances of deceased.

This good woman was a loving wife, a tender mother, and a kind friend. Her bereaved loved ones have the sympathy of the entire community in this hour of sorrow.

Hon. F. E. White, grand secretary of the Masonic Order was in the city a few hours Tuesday.

Prof. W. C. Brooks, principal of the high school in this city during the last two years, has been elected as superintendent of the public schools of Fairmont, Neb. Our loss is Fairmont's gain. Prof. Brooks is a capable young educator and we shall expect to hear of his continued rise in the educational world. The NEWS-HERALD wishes him the best of success in his new field.

Long ago the Scotch learned this. The sturdy old Scotchman must be amused at the recent "discoveries" that oatmeal is the best food in the world.

Our scientific men have been making experiments which prove that Americans eat too much fat and grease and not enough cereals.

The Scotchmen say: "Look at our nation as proof. The sturdiest nation on earth." Still we have one good point to make. We make better oatmeal than the Scotch.

They buy Quaker Oats and consider it the leader of all oatmeals to be had anywhere. If you are convenient to the store you'll probably buy the regular size package. For those who live in the country the large size family package is more satisfactory. Follow the example of the Scotch; eat a Quaker Oats breakfast every day.

New Lands for Settlement

Flathead Indian Reservation in North Central Montana.

Flathead Indian reservation in North central Montana, comprising 1,425,000 acres, about 200 miles east of Spokane, will be thrown open to settlement some time in July. Private advices from Washington, D. C., are that President Taft will sign the proclamation early in April, 60 days after which the lands will be open to homesteaders. It is believed the lottery plan will be followed. Under this method 30 days' time is given to prospective settlers to register with the land department, which will be at Kalispell this year. The reserve contains within its boundaries the south half of the Flathead lake, the largest body of fresh water west of Lake Michigan. The elevation is 2,900 feet. The land, except 220,000 acres allotted to Indians, is in five classes and is appraised at from $1.25 to $5 an acre, while the actual value of a homestead of 160 acres is from $5,000 to $16,000, according to soil and location. The government has laid out seven townsites, where lots will be at auction for cash.

Dodging the Real Issue

The march of improvements in Plattsmouth city must continue. A democratic administration has been engaged for three years in remedying the defects of previous administrations and at the same time it has reduced taxes enormously. Mr. Taxpayer, kindly look up your tax receipts and find the rate you paid before the last democratic administration went into power and see what you are paying now under the democrats. You will find an enormous reduction in the rate and that is sufficient cause to justify you in voting for the democratic candidates.—Plattsmouth Journal.

The above editorial is intended to deceive the taxpayers of this city. It is intended to cover up the leakages in the city treasury. When this administration took charge of the city's affairs there was $16,000 in the city treasury, and the "Scavenger Suit" brought in about $28,000 of back taxes, making about $44,000 more cash furnished to this administration than prior administrations or will be to subsequent ones. The question is what has become of the $44,000. The treasury is overdrawn on the road fund $5100 today.
