

Smile Worth While

"Tis easy enough to be pleasant,
When life flows along like a song;
But the man worth while, is the one who will smile
When everything goes dead wrong.
For the test of the heart is trouble,
And it always comes with the years.
And a smile that is worth the praise of the earth,
Is the smile that comes through tears."

Wise Talks By the Office Boy

I was reading in a comic almanac how to make money. It said: "You had a dollar bill up in your hand then lay it out flat and you find it increases." If you want to make money fast you "take a $2.00 bill, fold it once and you double it; fold it again and you'll find it increases four fold; keep on folding it and you will find it increases eight fold and even more." Gee, isn't that fierce? Seems to me if a man wants to monkey with money that way he could do better by coming in here and buying a barrel of National Ginger Snaps. That's 3 lbs. for 25c. Then you buy a jar of Crosse-Blackwell's Black Currant Jam. That's 25c. Then you buy a box of Bent's Water crackers, the real skee from Redding, Mass., that's 30c. Then you buy a can of Burnham's Boston Clam Chowder. That's 25c. Then you can keep the change and go home and open up your black currant jam and have your wife fix up a cup of Baker's cocoa or a cup of Ceylon tea and then you get up early the next morning and open up your clam chowder and your apple butter and, say, you are strictly in it.

E. M. Butterly, corner Sixth and Walnut streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says:

"I did not require a long use to prove to me that Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy of merit. I often had pains in my hips, so severe that I could hardly work and there was also a lameness across my loins. I had reason to believe that these troubles were caused by disordered kidneys and hearing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of, I made up my mind to try them. I procured a box at Gering & Co's, drug store and they brought me prompt and effective relief."

(Statement given June 19, 1908.)

On December 29, 1908, Mr. Butterly said: "I still have a good word to say for Doan's Kidney Pills. I heartily confirm the statement I made over two years ago in their favor."
