Must Take It In Time
 Just as Scores of Plattsmouth People Have.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back, Urinary troubles, diabetes surely follow.
 Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache, Cure every Kidney ill. Plattsmouth citizens endorse them.
 E. M. Buttery, corner Sixth and Walnut streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I did not require a long use to prove to me that Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy of merit. I often had pains in my hips, so severe that I could hardly work and there was also a lameness across my loins. I had reason to believe that these troubles were caused by disordered kidneys and hearing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of, I made up my mind to try them. I procured a box at Gering & Co's. drug store and they brought me prompt and effective relief."
 (Statement given June 19, 1906.)
 On December 29, 1908, Mr. Buttery said: "I still have a good word to say for Doan's Kidney Pills. I heartily confirm the statement I made over two years ago in their favor."

The Basket Willow Industry.
 The growing of willows for commercial purposes is fully described in an illustrated article in the May number of Popular Mechanics. Although the idea is common that willows grow only on swampy ground, it is said that it takes but little experience to explode this fallacy. Hence all serious attempts at willow culture are made on well-drained soil, even though it be of poor quality.
 The best willow raised in the United States, and that which commands the highest price, is grown on well-drained bottomland in Pennsylvania and Maryland. The average net profit per acre in Maryland is estimated is about $50 a year.

Navy Boys In New Role
 Roosevelt Commends Excellent Relief Work at Messina.

Just before leaving Rome on the evening of April 6, on the steamer Admiral for Mombasa, ex-President Roosevelt wrote the following message to the American people:
 Before leaving Messina I desire to say I am sure the American people do not realize the splendid work that is being done at Messina and Reggio with the lumber sent from the United States. I have visited the American camp and seen 250 houses already completed and arrangements have been perfected for the rapid construction of 1250 more.
 The whole work is under the general direction of Ambassador Griscom, has been organized and perfected by Lieut. Com. Belknap, with the assistance of Lieut. Buchanan, Ensigns Wilcox and Spofford, Dr. Donelson, Paymaster Rogers, forty enlisted men of our navy and a number of stalwart American carpenters. In addition, there is a fine group of Americans such as J. Elliott, Winthrop Chandler, J. Bush and R. Hale, who are giving their time and energies to help the philanthropic work.
 I wish to say I consider the American people are deeply indebted to each and every one of these men. I can not exaggerate the pleasure it gave me to see the officers and enlisted men of our navy adapting themselves to strange and unexpected circumstances and performing with ability and thorough good will this most difficult task. Our nation can well be proud of them.

LESSON BROUGHT HOME TO HIM.
A Wonderful Child Explains Other People's Viewpoint to Father.
 He was a doctor, and not such a young doctor either. That is to say, he had been practicing for nearly ten years. An interesting event happened in his family and he found himself the father of a very fine girl, his first born.
 A patient who happened in about three days after the event didn't have a great deal of chance to talk about his particular ailments because the father was very eager to tell all about the child.
 "I've helped to bring a lot of children into the world," said the doctor, "and I know a lot about them. But I want to tell you that this is about the finest I've ever seen. Now that may seem to you merely to be the enthusiasm of a father, but really I know it's so." And he went on for some time telling about the merits of his offspring, how she was a finely formed child and embraced all the perfections.
 He had turned over the duties of attending to his wife and child to another doctor, as the custom is more or less among physicians. This was the reason for one thing the doctor said.
 "One afternoon when the baby was only three days old she sneezed. Some way or another that made me nervous and so I decided to call up the doctor.
 "It happened he wasn't at home and nothing would do but I must tell his wife all about it over the telephone. She just laughed at me and that sobered my excitement.
 "Afterward I thought how angry I might have been had some one of my patients called me up on a foolish matter like that. It just goes to show that this sort of thing is done right along by folks who ought to know better."

Pranks of Politicians.
 Albany is infested with practical jokers who make the telephone the chief instrument of torture. At four o'clock one morning Assemblyman Colne, chairman of the assembly committee on canals, was called out of bed. The conversation was in this order:
 "This you, Colne? Were you asleep?"
 "No, no; I was playing bridge whilst out on the lawn tennis court."
 "Well, we dislike to disturb you, but we have an argument down town. One man says you are the best authority in these parts on canals. Is that right?"
 "Well, I consider myself pretty good in the daytime, but I don't care to be pulled out of bed and asked to discuss canals at four o'clock in the morning."
 "You're a little sensitive, is that it?"
 "Sensitive nothing; don't you think a man has a right to be a little sensitive over such a trick as this?"
 "But you're not angry?"
 "No, I'm delighted."
 "Well, what we wanted to know is this: Is there any statute prohibiting a member of the legislature from taking a bath in any portion of the Erie canal which is not used for drinking purposes?"
 What Mr. Colne said then will never be printed.—New York Herald.

Slaughter of Vermont Deer.
 While the open season for deer in Vermont, which closed recently, is only one week, it is estimated by correspondents of Boston papers that two thousand animals fell victims to hunters' guns. The average total of deer killed in past years, since the open week was established, is 700. Under the Vermont law hunters are allowed to shoot only one deer each.

Civic Pride and Politics
 Civic pride knows no politics. One who looks upon a great public improvement as nothing more than an opportunity for partisan advertising does not merit the title of the privileges of citizenship. He is an anarchist. He exalts partisanship above the welfare of his community and is willing to halt the progress in the interests of his party.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Wise Talks By the Office Boy

 I was reading in a comic Almanac how to make money. It said: "You had a dollar bill up in your hand then lay it out flat and you find it increases." If you want to make money fast you "take a $2.00 bill, fold it once and you double it; fold it again and you'll find it increases four fold; keep on folding it and you will find it increases eight fold and even more." Gee, isn't that fierce? Seems to me if a man wants to monkey with money that way he could do better by coming in here and buying a barrel of National Ginger Snaps. That's 3 lbs. for 25c. Then you buy a jar of Crosse-Blackwell's Black Currant Jam. That's 25c. Then you buy a box of Bent's Water crackers, the real scone from Redding, Mass., that's 20c. Then you buy a can of Burnham's Boston Clam Chowder. That's 25c. Then you can keep the change and can go home and open up your black currant jam and have your wife fix up a cup of Baker's cocoa or a cup of Ceylon tea and then you get up early the next morning and open up your clam chowder and your apple butter and, say, you are strictly in it.
