ALL the business world loves a hustler.

THE sowing of wild oats presages a bad autumn crop.

THE man who has the gift of brains never loses his presence of mind.

THOSE who live within their incomes are likely to live without worry.

PEOPLE who cannot stand up in the fight must not look to sit down in the feast.

AN UMBRELLA is a fair and foul weather friend, with many ups and downs.

THE pessimist stands beneath the tree of prosperity and grows when the fruit falls on his head.

MALICIOUS wit will fail of its intent, 'tis like an arrow, badly aimed and spent: Who'd seek with jest to make a bosom smart, holds hiding in his breast, a coward's heart.

ON BEING HAPPY.

Pleasures are more beneficial than duties because, like the quality of mercy they are not strained, and they are three blessed. There must always be two to a kiss, and there may be a score in a jest; but wherever is an element of sacrifice, the favor is conferred with pain and received with confusion. There is no duty we so much underrate as the duty of being happy. By being happy, we shower anonymous benefits upon the world. A happy man or a happy woman is a better thing to find than a five pound note. He or she is a radiating focus of good will; and their entrance into a room is as though another candle had been lighted.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

MR. WILLIAM J. BRYAN is already grooming himself for the nomination for the presidency in 1912. At the annual dinner of the Young Men's Democratic club of Kansas City, Missouri April 20th he spoke on the subject, "Democracy." He said:

"While I hope that my party will not find it necessary to call for me as a presidential candidate in the next campaign I make the emphatic statement that I have no intention of retiring from politics. I began to fight for democratic principles long before my party heard of me and as I live I shall continue it as long as I have strength."

Between the lines it is easy to see that he does not consider any other democrat fit for the nomination for the presidency. He is an expert in the use of expressions from which his followers cannot err in drawing the inference he desires to have them draw. This is a case in point.

IN MONDAY'S issue of the Journal the "Kunne" devoted a considerable space trying to square himself on the 8 o'clock closing bill. There was not another member of the legislature that frothed and fumed so much as did the "Kunne" at the time of the passage of this bill. Really he was a spectacle to behold. Those who were present to witness the scene would have declared that he was a brewer or a special representative of the brewers, had they not known as a matter of fact that he was too small potatoes to be either. Your star has set "Kunne" as a legislator. It is well remembered that you did not get the Journal's famous "gopher bill" passed, when the Journal was "real insistent." Then, too, you let the state printing inspector pie get away from you. A little too bunglesome "Kunne," a little too bunglesome.

THE Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, in New York has received direct advice telling of the death of Homer Baskerville in the Turkish riot in Persia. He was twenty-four years old. His parents reside at Rycalton, Minn. His father, the Rev. Henry C. Baskerville, is pastor of the Presbyterian church in that city. At Constantinople it is reported that no less than 5,000 persons lost their lives in the massacres that have been going on in the village of Adana during the past eight days as a result of the outbreak of Moslem fanaticism. Of this total 2,000 were killed in the city of Adana, more than 200 of the victims being Moslems. At a cabinet meeting Tuesday it was determined by the administration to send a cruiser at once to protect the Americans in that vicinity. The squadron will consist of the armored cruisers North Carolina and Montana, now at Guantanamo, Cuba, under command of Captains Marshall and Reynolds, respectively. Their immediate objective point will be Alexandria, on the Mediterranean coast of Turkey, which is in close proximity to Tarsus and Adana, where serious trouble has occurred. These uprisings in Turkey are becoming so frequent that they have become an international nuisance.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our thanks to our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy in our late bereavement in the death of our beloved son and brother.

Andrew Bloom Pleads Guilty

At the preliminary hearing yesterday morning Andrew Bloom, who was arrested for burglarizing Stone's store at Greenwood, and also of stealing about $2500 worth of linen from the Burlington depot at Greenwood, when the complaint was read to him entered a plea of guilty. His bond was fixed at $1000 by Judge M. Archer, and failing to give bail he was taken to the county jail. He says that he desires to have sentence pronounced against him as soon as it is possible to be done. Judge Travis was out of the city, and therefore, he could not be arraigned at this time in the district court, but as soon as Judge Travis returns the county attorney will ask that Bloom be arraigned.

PERSONAL.

Sheriff C. D. Quinton was looking after business in Lincoln Tuesday.

Mrs. Hans Seivers and daughter are visiting relatives and friends in Kansas.

G. W. Osborn has several building contracts at University Place, where he is now working.

Charles E. McEntee left Tuesday for St. Joseph and Kansas City to look after business matters.

D. L. Amick of Murray, who was taken to the hospital about ten days ago, is now able to be on the street again.

Mrs. J. W. Dutton and children, after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. S. E. McElwain, returned Monday to her home in Lincoln.

C. H. Jackson left yesterday morning for Broken Bow, Neb., near which place he has some land interests, which he has gone to look after.

The Redmen are making great preparations for their grand ball at Coates' hall tomorrow night. These having the matter in charge report an exceptionally large advance sale of tickets.

George B. Lehnhoff of Omaha was visiting with his mother and sister over Sunday. He was formerly proprietor of one of the book stores in this city, but is now conducting a typewriter exchange in the metropolis.

TOO AFFECTIONATE FOR MAYOR.

Dignified Official Dislikes Being Hugged in the Dark by Bruin.

When closing time came in the city hall the other afternoon Mayor Charles H. French coughed impressively, indicating a proper degree of satisfaction with the dignified progress of his administration, closed his roll-top desk with a bang, permitted the messenger to adjust his overcoat and present his hat, and then trod forth to meet his fellow townsmen, says a Concord (N. J.) dispatch to the New York Herald. Instead of going out the front door of the city hall, however, Mayor French took a short cut that led through a dark hallway past the back entrance of a theater.

While the mayor in the city hall was throwing off the shackles of official care a wrestling bear in the theater was busy throwing off the shackles of a more material nature, and as the mayor put on his overcoat the bear shed its leather collar. So it came about that as the mayor entered the dark hallway at one end, the bear entered it at another. The mayor has a great respect for bears, but this bear had no respect at all for mayors.

In the darkness the mayor felt a powerful detaining force laid upon his arm.

"Sir," he said, in chilly tones, "if you have business with me, you may call at my office in the morning."

"U-g-r-r," was the unpleasantly harsh response.

"My man—" began the mayor, but he stopped right there, for a furry arm was thrown about his neck, and a rough tongue made a demonstration, which, if it was intended for a kindly salure, failed utterly of its purpose with the mayor.

"Let go!" commanded the mayor, but his companion showed no disposition to yield to harsh commands. The mayor had other resources. He struck out so savagely with his free hand, and with such painful precision, that the bear, smitten on the nose, loosed its hold and fell back a step.

Content with this temporary victory, the mayor sped agilely back over the route he had just traversed, shouting: "Bear! Bear!" at every jump. In corroboration of his alarm, the bear galloped along behind, bound not to be deserted by his new friend. The mayor was the first to reach an open door, through which he sped just in time to be able to close it in the face of his pursuer.

The bear was led back into captivity by the theater employees.

The Phonograph in China.

American phonograph companies do a big business in China. The most famous Chinese bands and palace singers are engaged to make records. They are brought from all parts of the empire to the three record-making centers—Peking, Shanghai and Hongkong. Here the apparatus for making the master records is set up and the recording done under the direction of an expert. A record popular in the north of China seldom is popular in the south.

Will Fight Extradition

Young Seydlitz Objects to Returning to Colorado to Stand Trial.

Several day ago Chief of Police Rainey on a telegraphic notice from Canon City, Colo., arrested Otto Seydlitz. The notice did not state for what the young man was wanted, nor would he discuss the situation, but Sheriff Esser of Fremont county came in last evening with requisition papers intending to take the prisoner back with him. But the young man's mother, through her attorney, Judge A. N. Sullivan, secured a writ of habeas corpus, and a hearing will be had on same tomorrow morning before County Judge Beeson.

Honors for Miss Falter.

Miss Emma Falter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Falter of this city, has passed her final examinations for graduation from Potter College, at Bowling Green, Kentucky, receiving the average of 96.78 per cent in all her studies, and wins the highest honors of the entire class. This an honor of which her many friends in this city feel proud. Miss Falter is a very bright and capable young lady, and we predict for her a brilliant future. Her parents as well as the young lady are to be congratulated on her success.

Second Church of Christ, Scientist.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Divine service at 11 a. m. Subject "Probation After Death."

Mid-week meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Church is located on Sixth street, two blocks south of Main street. The public is cordially invited to all services. The reading room in the Coates block is open ever Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Interesting Talk.

Senator W. B. Banning gave an interesting talk at the Presbyterian church before the Men's Brotherhood Tuesday night on "Laws Passed by the Legislature." Those who heard his address seemed to be well pleased with it. It is now thought that the senator will take up the Chautauqua lecture work, for it is said he talked for an hour and forty minutes and not one snored.
