M. FANGER,

The Department Store Man.

body and marched to the home of Mrs. C. F. Chandler on Tuesday evening for a surprise farewell party before her departure to Central City, their future home. A delightful time was enjoyed by all present and it was quite late when the goodbyes were said.

Must Take It In Time

Just as Scores of Plattsmouth People Have.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back. Urinary troubles, diabetes surely follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache. Cure every kidney ill.

Plattsmouth citizens endorse them. E. M. Buttery, corner Sixth and Walnut streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says:

"I did not require a long time to prove to me that Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy of merit. I often had pains in my hips, so severe that I could hardly work and there was also a lameness across my loins. I had reason to believe that these troubles were caused by disordered kidneys and hearing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of, I made up my mind to try them. I procured a box at Gering & Co's. drug store and they brought me prompt and effective relief."

(Statement given June 19, 1906.)

On December 29, 1905, Mr. Buttery said: "I still have a good word to say for Doan's Kidney Pills. I heartily confirm the statement I made over two years ago in their favor."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 92-5

William Crookery, who formerly resided in this city was killed in an encounter with the foreman of a bridge crew at Quincy, Ill. He became engaged in a quarrel with John Edgar Hendrick who struck him with a sledge hammer, which proved to be a fatal blow.

The Quincy Journal says: Crookery was well known among the bridge workers in this city, having resided here for the past ten years. He was the son of Mrs. Mary Crookery, of 515 North Fifth street, and lived there with his mother, brother and sisters. He was born in Hunnewell, Mo., April 23rd, 1880, and was 29 years and two months of age. He came here from that place ten years ago and has resided in this city almost the entire time, occasionally leaving the city with a bridge crew. He returned to this city from Des Moines, Ia., where he had been working with a bridge gang. The Crookery family formerly lived in West Quincy. The dead man is survived by his mother, six sisters and one brother. The sisters are Mamie, Alice, Nellie, Cassie, Frankie and Susie Crookery, all of this city, and the brother Thomas Crookery, also of Quincy.

ANY LADY—Can easily make from $18.00 to $25 per week working for me quietly in her own home locality. Write me at once for particulars. Address Harriet M. Richards, Box 39, Woman's Building, Joliet, Illinois. 95-2 Clean Playing Cards. Spirits of camphor is a good thing to use in keeping packs of cards in spotless condition. If the cards are not too badly soiled, rub them with a sponge dipped in the camphor, and the former fresh appearance of the pasteboard will be restored.

Lawsuit Over a Hen. A lawsuit about the ownership of a hen has just been brought to a close at Hamburg, after a whole year, by the unexpected death of the bird. The value of the hen was only 75 cents, but the law costs have amounted to a large sum.

Truth and Error. "Friction brightens silver and gold. Truth is the world's gold and the opposition it meets is the friction that makes it more lustrous. Truth would never have been appreciated had it not been for its dual—error."

Making an Orator. Join a debating society and practice on the negative side for ten years; then take the affirmative. There's a liberal education for you, my boy. But never forget this: Love, knavery and necessity can make any man a good orator.

Said Uncle Silas. When a woman goes downtown shopping she may not buy a blessed thing, but she'll allus come home with a fresh lot o' gossip to entertain the other wimmen of the neighborhood.—Los Angeles Express.

Housecleaning

Doesn't that suggest something you will need in hardware? No? Well, let us suggest that when you are cleaning the kitchen, to move the coal or wood stove out and get a gasoline stove. The kitchen stays cool when you use a gasoline stove. There is no waste heat, no wood, coal or ashes to handle, and expense is less than when burning coal. Our stoves have perfectly fitted parts, are strongly made, have modern appliances, and are safe and easy to operate.
