Governor Names Committee

Nebraska will Be Represented at Irrigation Congress.

SPokane, Wash., May 12.—Governor A. C. Shallenberger of Nebraska writes from Lincoln to R. Insinger, chairman of the board of control of the seventeenth National Irrigation Congress, that he has appointed a committee of five to confer with the local board as to the best means of making the congress in Spokane, August 9 to 14, of the greatest benefit to the state of Nebraska. The appointees are: E. C. Simmons, Lincoln; W. S. Morlan, McCook; G. L. Shumway, Scotts Bluff; A. M. Morrissey, Valentine, and C. Coffee, Chaddron.

W. J. Furse, private secretary to Governor Shallenberger, also writes that the governor will appoint 15 delegates to represent Nebraska at the congress.

"Governor Shallenberger will be with us at one or more days during the congress, and we hope to have him with us on Governors' day, August 13," said Mr. Insinger. "At this time we will also have as our guests representatives from practically every state and territory in the Union, and a number of Canadian provinces.

"I believe this congress will be of greater importance to the west than any other thing that has yet been attempted in this part of the country, and I know it will be of material benefit to the country on the whole. There is more interest than ever before in problems of irrigation, conservation of forest resources, deep waterways, reclamation of swamp and arid lands, goods roads and home-building, and the people of Nebraska are as deeply concerned in this as we are right here in the state of Washington.

"The members of this board believe that Nebraska and other states in the west can get a lot of benefit from this congress, and from what I know of them I do not hesitate to say that I believe that they will take advantage of this opportunity."

Indigestion Ends Soon

Misery From Your Disordered Stomach Goes in 5 Minutes.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will occasionally take a little Diapepsin after eating.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes Belching, Distress, a feeling of fullness after eating, Nausea, Indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), Bloating, Heartburn, Water brass, Pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms. Headaches from the stomach are abolished.

solately unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapepsin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. Each triangle will digest all the food you can eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist and start taking today and by tomorrow you will actually brag about your healthy, strong Stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and Gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

New System At Spokane

An Amended Charter Adopted Which Promises Better Methods.

SPokane, Wash., May 12.—When Nelson S. Pratt, mayor-elect of Spokane, is installed into office the evening of May 14, he and the city council will work under an amended charter, which provides that unsatisfactory city officials may be recalled on a petition of 25 per cent of the voters. The charter also provides for an initiative and referendum of a petition of 10 per cent of the voters casting ballots at the election of May 4. Mr. Pratt, democrat, was elected on a non-partisan platform to succeed Mayor C. Herbert Moore, chosen on a reform ticket in 1907, who declined re-nomination. His election is a signal victory, won against the liquor and brewery interest, public service corporations, a combination of city contractors and leaders of the democratic machine, who supported J. T. Orm. The election was won on sharply defined issues and an alignment that broke party ties. The Pratt support was almost entirely of individual character, of people who believe in law and order and have faith in the city and confidence in its future. Then too, was the fact that more than $5,000,000 will be expended by the new administration in improvement and betterment of the water, street and park systems.

Corn Crib Burns.

About 8 o'clock Monday morning the large corn crib of L. C. Todd near Nehawka was discovered on fire. The flames had such headway that it was impossible to stop it, and a total loss resulted. The crib and elevator were valued at several hundred dollars besides about 2500 bushels of corn were destroyed. There can be but little doubt that the fire was of incendiary origin.

Notice.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the M. E. Church Friday afternoon May 14th at two o'clock P. M. J. E. Vandevooze, Secretary.

V. V. Leonard left Tuesday for Lincoln, where he will spend a few days visiting his daughter and family.

New Firm At Avoca

Articles of incorporation have been filed with County Clerk Rosencrans for the Avoca Supply Company, a corporation formed at Avoca by Messrs. Peter Jergensen and W. H. Betts, two well known gentlemen of that city. The articles set out that the principal place of business will be at Avoca and the business to be engaged in will be the general merchandise business. The capital stock is to be $10,000 divided into 400 shares of $25 each.

German Lutheran Services

A class of ten, consisting of Lena Brunhoefer, Bertha Rienke, Dora Scheel, Clara Story, Emma Scheulke, Clara Weitzel, George Kupke, James Stubbard and Gust Weitzel, will be confirmed at the German Lutheran church two miles north of Murdock on Sunday, May 16, 1909.

Wanted:

One young man and one young woman. A movement is under way to organize a physical culture club in this city, to be conducted along clean-cut, high-class lines. It is especially designed for business men and professional people, whose duties prevent them from getting the necessary exercise to maintain and preserve their vitality at its best. The club will be open to all persons of good character who desire to improve their physical well-being.

To assist in the work of organization one young man and one young woman are needed (a married couple would do nicely). Those of excellent character who would like to assist in this important work, with full remuneration for their time, are requested to write us at once. Please give your age, occupation and references. All communications will be held confidential. Write us now, please, and address as follows: Lock Box 454, Omaha, Neb.

Will Receive Their Diplomas

Graduating Exercises of Pacific Junction's High School.

The NEWS-HERALD is in receipt of an invitation to the class day and graduating exercises of the Pacific Junction High school. The class consists of three young ladies and three young gentlemen: Alta J. and Geneva A. Regester and Louise A. Johnson, and Lee A. Sargent, David M. Boyle and John W. Delashmutt. The commencement program will be given in the Methodist church on Thursday evening, May 20th. It may be noted that several Plattsmouth people will take part in the exercises, notably the Aeolian quartet and Mr. C. D. White with the violin.

The Only Alternative.

Mother to her daughter.—What is your father making such a row about in the other room? Either the doctor has forbidden him to smoke or he is now asking him for your hand.—Flegende Blaetter.

A Consistent Deceiver.

"What are you going to do with all that counterfeit money?" asked Sapphira. "My dear," answered Ananias, "I am going to pay my dues in the distinguished club that bears my name."

Proper Proportions.

"How much fuel do you compute we shall need on our motor trip?" "Well, suppose we say two gallons of gasoline and three gallons of Scotch."—Outing.

"Salvation Nell"

Burwood Theatre in Omaha Books a Strong Number.

The sale of seats for the engagement of Mrs. Fiske and her famous Manhattan Company, May 17, 18 and 19 in "Salvation Nell" at the Burwood theatre, Omaha, will begin Thursday, May 13 at 10 a. m. Already the advance bookings by mail have been unusually heavy, breaking the records of the theatre for the season, and the box-office staff are anticipating the busiest day in months tomorrow. "Salvation Nell" is a play of wide appeal, and tells one of the most absorbing love stories set forth on the stage in many years. Although it deals with the humble and often ignorant people of the crowded centres in New York, it is a story that goes straight to the heart, and grips the attention of the spectator from start to finish. Nell Sanders, the part played by Mrs. Fiske, is a lovely scrub-girl in a saloon. Into her life comes the power of a tremendous and redeeming love, her better nature is awakened, and in the progress of the drama she rises from the depths of degradation to the heights of spiritual achievement. As the development of the story commences immediately after the rise of the curtain, those who arrive late should not expect to be seated till the end of the act. There will be a matinee Wednesday, May 19.

Cynical.

"Bliggins must be very much in love with his wife to buy her so much jewelry." "Perhaps," answered Miss Cayenne, "although it is sometimes difficult to determine whether expensive gifts are inspired by affection or a bad conscience."

Husbands Take Second Place Now.

Mortality.

Dreams, dreams, only dreams—
Nothing on earth is what it seems.
Griefs of today may be joys of tomorrow—
Joys of today may bring forth sorrow.
So drifteth away the sad and the gay;
Some in the sunlight, some in the gray—
Some stepping heavenward, some gone astray
To waken at last to know that the past is a dream,
And only The Christ brings the day.

"The Blue Mouse."

Three Night Engagement at the Burwood in Omaha.

Next Thursday evening at the Burwood Theatre, Omaha; "The Blue Mouse" the much-talked-of farce comedy will be present with a cast said to be the largest ever used in a comedy of this kind, composed of the cleverest people in the profession, and a production reported to be the most elaborate the Messrs. Schubert have ever sent to our stage. Everything used on the stage is carried by the company, even the furniture, carpets, rugs, paintings, bric-a-brac etc., making it an exact reproduction of the one now at the Lyric theatre, New York, where the piece is now enjoying its seventh month of phenomenal success.

"The Blue Mouse," has proven the greatest theatrical sensation of the season. From all accounts, it has become a perfect craze, not only in New York, but throughout the South where the company which is to appear here has been touring.

It is claimed by the Messrs. Schubert representative, that the action of the Mayor of Richmond, (Va.) was entirely uncalled for, and had the Mayor witnessed a performance himself and not been misled by a few fanatics "The Blue Mouse" would not have been played so prominently in the lime-light of public criticism. This however, seems not to have been in any way detrimental to the piece, but on the contrary it has been the result of advertising Mr. Fitch's comedy more thoroughly and more prominently than could have been accomplished by any other method.

"The Blue Mouse" has no moral to tell but aims to amuse and it is that Mr. Fitch has crowded as much fun into three acts as could be done. As usual he has conceived not only original and unique types, but novel scenes. The leading character, is a creation distinct and lasting. She is neither good or bad. Ashton, Stevens, in New York Evening Journal, calls her "benignly tough." As played by Miss Millicent Evans, one of the most winsome and gracious actresses of the present age. "The Blue Mouse" becomes a sort of glorified devil. Another odd type is that of the old German woman whom the "Mouse," for $25 per employs as her mother. Then, too, the president of the railroad, who likes every pretty face, is another hewn-from-the-rock type. This propensity gives rise to most of the complications. Rollette, his secretary wants to be made division superintendent, and he pays "The Blue Mouse" to impersonate his own wife and flirt with the old president in order to weddle the promotion from him. The trick is turned and the mix-ups that follow are to many to describe.

The engagement is there for three nights starting May 20, and matinee Saturday.

H. C. McMaken is attending the state encampment of the G. A. R. at York this week.

John Kahler of Omaha had heard of the "wide open policy" of the present city administration in this city. So the said John came down to participate in the "wide open policy" on Sunday, and on Sunday he obtained "booze" from some Sunday "booze joint," and became highly intoxicated. John believed the "wide open policy" that dispensed "booze on Sunday" would warrant further Sunday sport so he proceeded to destroy a screen door and use profane and obscene language. Chief of Police Rainey, who does not in all things harmonize with the "wide open policy" of the city administration took the unfortunate devil into custody and placed him in the county jail, where the "Sunday booze" and "wide open policy" kept up its work and he destroyed considerable of the county property by breaking up a desk kept in the outer part of the jail and breaking the windows in all destroyed some $15 or $20 worth of property, which the taxpayers of the county must pay to help maintain this sort of "wide open policy" and "Sunday booze" in the city administration.
