

Be Not Ashamed.

Observe the opportunity, and beware of evil; and be not ashamed concerning thy soul. For there is a shame that bringeth sin; and there is a shame that is glory and grace. Accept not the person of any against thy soul; and reverence no man unto thy falling. Refrain not speech when it tendeth to safety, and hide not thy wisdom for the sake of fair-seeming; for by speech wisdom shall be known, and instruction by the word of the tongue. Speak not against the truth; and be abashed for thine ignorance. Be not ashamed to make confession of thy sins; and force not the current of the river. Lay not thyself down for a fool to tread upon; and accept not the person of one that is mighty. Strive for the truth unto death, and the Lord God shall fight for thee.

on the board of railroad commissioners the power to fix passenger rates; the bill separating the brewery from the saloon; the bill providing for district local option in cities over 25,000 inhabitants; a county unit bill; the bill increasing the dram-shop license; the corporation franchise tax bill; the bill providing for a revision of the banking laws of the state; a bill providing for a board of control for the eleemosynary and penal institutions of the state; the election bill for Kansas City and St. Louis making changes in the election laws and providing for the appointment of a bipartisan election board; the bill providing that cases on appeal should not be reversed on account of the technicalities not affecting the merits of the litigation, and the bill providing for home rule for the large cities of the state. Only one of these bills, the home rule bill, was political in its character.

"A bill prohibiting railroad companies from granting passes to persons other than employees and those engaged in works of religion and charity, has been passed by Congress and most of the states. Yet, by the action of the Senate, this bill was defeated.

"The action of the Senate in defeating laws for the regulation of the liquor traffic indicated that it was equally as friendly to the breweries as it was to the railroads. The brewery owned saloon has long been recognized by everybody familiar with the facts as one of the pronounced evils of the liquor traffic. It recommended the law enforcing their separation, as I also recommend the law conferring upon residence districts in the large cities the right to exclude the saloon therefrom. And I also, as a matter of regulation and of revenue, asked the legislature to increase dram-shop licenses. All of these bills, along with a county unit bill, were passed by the house and defeated in the senate. This much should, however, be said in favor of the Democratic members of the senate—that they, at least, showed their appreciation of the action of the twenty out of twenty-two breweries in St. Louis which in the last campaign opposed me and supported the Democratic candidate for governor."

A Peculiar Wish.

Young Chap—Blame the luck! My future father-in-law has been indicted for forging a check for 10,000 marks. If he is found guilty, then I cannot marry his daughter; and if he is innocent, then I get nothing by way of a dowry. My only hope is that he will be set free—and also that he is not innocent.—Fliegende Blätter.

Hadley Raps Democrats

ed to $20,000,000, in 1870 to $33,000,000, in 1890 to $102,000,000, and in 1908 to $181,500,000. The figures show that in 1907 the number of letters and post cards sent through the postal system of the United States was 6,465,000,000, as against 3,263,000,000 in the German Empire, 3,359,000,000 in the United Kingdom, 1,119,000,000 in France, and 1,067,000,000 in Austria-Hungary. The telegraph messages sent to the United States in 1907 reached the enormous number of 98,000,000,000. In this connection it must be remembered that the telephone is a large competitor of the telegraph, especially for long commercial messages, and it is growing in favor each year. In nearly every step of the world's progress during the last hundred years the United States has been the pioneer.—Washington Post.

Governor Hadley of Missouri the other day gave out a stinging statement, which is in the nature of a review of the work and omissions of the legislature. He handles the Democratic senate without gloves for defeating all measures seeking to regulate the liquor traffic and public service corporations. Here are some excerpts from his statement:

"This legislature furnishes the most striking contrast of good and bad work that is to be found in the history of this state. By reason of the action of the senate, the list of good measures that were killed far exceeds the list of good measures passed. The senate was, of course, absolutely dominated by the Democratic members and although a majority of the Democratic members seemed disposed to be fair, they weakly permitted themselves to be dominated by a few radical partisans whose intimate relations with the lobbyists of public service corporations was a subject of general comment. The record of the senate can best be understood by comparing it with the record of the house.

"The house passed and the senate killed the public service commission bill; the anti-pass bill; the anti-discrimination bill; the bill conferring up-

Didn't Mean Anything. "One can't help knowing," said a dandy, "when one is good looking. Why, I got off at a small station the other day in the country, and I must confess that I attracted a great deal of attention."

"It doesn't mean anything," said his friend. "Why, when I got out of the Grand Central station I meet a crowd of men who yell 'Hansom! Hansom!' at the top of their lungs."

Nerve.
He was only a tramp, but he was there with the nerve. Entering the fashionable lunch parlor he pompously seated himself at a table, devoured a pickle and dropped seven lumps of sugar and two biscuits into his coat pocket. Then he sampled the horse radish, drank a glass of water and glanced at the menu.

"Well?" snapped the tall waiter in the lowest waistcoat.

"Well, how'dy, pal!" called the stranger affably. "What you got to eat?"

"Everything," responded the waiter in icy tones.

"On my word! Got any welsh rabbit?"

"Yes."

"How do you serve it?"

"Any way you want!"

The tramp moved his chair out a few inches.

"Well, give me the left hind foot old sport. I want it for luck."

And helping himself to another biscuit the tramp dodged a saucer and vanished into the night.

Property and Proprietors.
The rights of property have been so much extended that the rights of the community have almost altogether disappeared and it is hardly too much to say that the prosperity and the comfort and the liberties of a great proportion of the population have been laid at the feet of a small number of proprietors, who neither toll nor spin.—Joseph Chamberlain.

Lightning Flashes.
Accumulating evidence shows that lightning flashes may have a much more varied structure than was formerly supposed. Photographs by A. Larsen, a Danish photographer, indicate that flashes may be made up of small electric discharges, or rushes, of which 40 may follow along nearly the same path in half a minute.

Just What She Wanted.
Mrs. Nurich was in the jewelry store. "Here are some new souvenir spoons we have just got in," said the clerk, placing a tray for her inspection. "Oh, ain't those lovely!" she exclaimed. "I must have some of those! Our cook makes such lovely souvenirs!"

Cult of the Garden.
There never was a time when the interest in gardening was so keen as it is now. Gardening has become the hobby of the wealthy and well-to-do classes, who not only enjoy plants and flowers when they are grown, but take an active part in the culture of their favorites.—Estate Magazine.

Cured to Stay Cured

How a Plattsmouth Citizen Found Complete Freedom From Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—From urinary disorders—From any disease of the kidneys, Be cured to stay cured, Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures.

Plattsmouth people testify. Here's one case of it: Herman Tiekotter, Cor. Ninth & Day streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I never used a medicine that brought as great benefit as Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys caused me much suffering and there was a dull, tired ache across the small of my back that distressed me a great deal. If I stooped, my back pained me severely and in the morning when I arose, I felt as tired as when I went to bed. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly praised, I procured at Gering & Co's, drug store and it was not long before I was thoroughly relieved. (Statement given June 8, 1906.)"

On December 29, 1908, Mr. Tiekotter, said: "I cheerfully confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no trouble from my kidneys since this remedy cured me."
