Work of Bees.

Three hundred billion bees made enough honey during last year to fill a train of cars long enough to reach from New York to Buffalo. At the low wholesale rate of ten cents a pound it was worth $25,000,000, and if the 700,000 bee-keepers of the country had worked as industriously and skillfully as did the bees, the weight of the output would have been three times as great and the value $75,000,000.

In one year the beehives sent to market a product worth nearly as much as the buckwheat crop, three times as much as the rye crop, and nearly $9,000,000 greater than the rice crop. All the rice and buckwheat grown on an aggregated area of 2,128 1-3 square miles did not reach to the value of the honey by $151,259.

To appreciate these results, one must necessarily strive also to appreciate the number of insects at work. That is rather difficult, for 300,000,000,000 stretches a long way beyond intelligent human comprehension. The human mind doesn't work well in anything mathematically greater than thousands.

Didn't Mean Anything.

"One can't help knowing," said a dandy, "when one is good looking. Why, I got off at a small station the other day in the country, and I must confess that I attracted a great deal of attention."

"It doesn't mean anything," said his friend. "Why, when I get out of the Grand Central station I meet a crowd of men who yell 'Hansom! Hansom!' at the top of their lungs."

Riches and Real Worth.

Riches are for the comfort of life, not life for the amassing of riches. I asked a wise man: "Who is the fortunate and who is the unfortunate man?" He replied: "He is the fortunate who sowed and reaped, and he the unfortunate who died and enjoyed rest. Offer no prayer in behalf of that worthless wretch who did nothing but spend his life in the accumulation of wealth which he used not."

Attractiveness.

A magnetic personality is often more powerful than ability, and is often, very often, placed in the balance against it. It is therefore advisable to exert oneself to the utmost to cultivate that wonderful charm to the highest degree, and she who has it not is not so much to be pitied as blamed, for it is, more or less, within the reach of all.—Woman's Life.

Girt In.

It is not to die, nor even to die of hunger, that makes a man wretched. Many men have died; all men must die. But it is to live miserable, we know not why; to work sore, and yet gain nothing; to be heart worn, weary, yet isolated, unrelated, girt in with a cold, universal laissez faire.—Thomas Carlyle.

What Gifts to Give.

The different wedding anniversaries and gifts appropriate are: First year, cotton; second, paper; third, leather; fifth, wooden; seventh, woolen; tenth, tin; twelfth, silk and fine linen; fifteenth, crystal; twentieth, china; twenty-fifth, silver; thirtieth, pearl; fortieth, ruby; fiftieth, golden; seventy-fifth, diamond; eighty-fifth, radium.

Truth Versus Fiction.

The mother-in-law is generally kind and indulgent; the landlady is more than solicitous about your welfare; the street-car conductor does not knock down fares; policemen do not go to sleep on their beats; there is no such thing as a gentleman burglar. Think it over.

His Suggestion.

Tommy was about to have a children's party. "Mother," he said thoughtfully, "it won't look well for me to be stuffing myself when those other kids are here. How will it be if I eat my share before they come?"—Harper's Bazar.

Result of Mince Pie Nightmare.

After eating three pieces of mince pie, Albert Allen of Chicago went to sleep, and dreaming that a man he was gambling with was cheating, he got his revolver, intending to shoot the rambler, but instead fired a bullet into his wife's head.

Cured to Stay Cured

How a Plattsmouth Citizen Found Complete Freedom From Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—From urinary disorders—From any disease of the kidneys, Be cured to stay cured. Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures. Plattsmouth people testify.

Here's one case of it: Herman Tiekotter, Cor. Ninth & Day streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I never used a medicine that brought as great benefit as Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys caused me much suffering and there was a dull, tired ache across the small of my back that distressed me a great deal. If I stooped, my back pained me severely and in the morning when I awoke, I felt as tired as when I went to bed. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly praised, I procured at Gering & Co's., drug store and it was not long before I was thoroughly relieved. (Statement given June 8, 1906.)

On December 29, 1908, Mr. Tiekotter, said: "I cheerfully confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no trouble from my kidneys since this remedy cured me." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 11-4

Cause of Baldness.

After considerable jocularity the pair turned to the penitently-pated stranger and one said: "My friend and I have been discussing the cause of baldness, but we can't seem to agree. Would you mind telling us what you regard as the real cause of baldness?" The stranger wheeled about, eyed his questioners fiercely and snorted: "Brains!"

Advice Worth Heeding.

Do not wait, but begin to-morrow morning to be reliable and keep at it until reliability becomes a part of you.—Booker T. Washington.

Where Nature Falls Short.

Whiskers may conceal a receding chin, but there is no help for a flattened brow.

And Equal Uselessness.

Were every pebble a ruby, the ruby and the pebble would be of equal value.
