GERING & CO.

Hidden Dangers. Will Have Big Wheat Crop

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Plattsmouth Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Plattsmouth proof:

John Mackey, farmer, Third Street, Cor. Dyke Street, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "Two and one-half years ago my back became very lame and I had frequent headaches. The kidney secretions contained a sediment and a frequent desire to void them caused me much annoyance. I had been unable to find a remedy that would bring me any permanent relief and I was at a loss to know what to do. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended in the local papers, I procured a box from Gering & Co.'s drug store. This remedy brought me immediate relief and at the present time, my back does not bother me in the least. I am very grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for what they have done for me."

In George Washington's Time

There was no talk of adulteration and grocery stores sold only staples—table delicacies were few and far between. Well, this store for one is old fashioned as to its ideas of purity, new style in that it has on hand the best of everything for the table brought from the marts of the world. We would like to name you among our patrons.

H. M. SOENNICHSEN.

Hattie Hoffman presided at the organ and Mrs. E. H. Wesscott and Miss Estelle Baird sang very sweetly Lohengrin's wedding march. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers. After a short reception in the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Carlson departed on the 9:30 Burlington train for a bridal trip to Denver. The bride has been a successful teacher in the city schools for a number of years and the groom has been employed in the Burlington shops, and both are very popular and have many friends.

Odd Fellows Memorial.

The Odd Fellows lodge members met at their lodge hall on lower Main street yesterday morning and forming in line with the band at their head marched to the cemetery for the purpose of decorating the graves of departed members as is the annual custom.

About fifty members turned out and as they marched along to the steps of funeral dirge with banner afloat, and arms filled with flowers, there were many comments expressed in regard to the beauty and impressiveness of the scene.

Nearly all of the fraternal orders in the country follow this custom and it is a fitting mark of respect to the memory of the departed brothers.

The Regular Thing.

Mr. and Mrs. Billington were going to the theater.

Mr. Billington was nervously waiting in the hall, taking a few last impatient puffs from his cigar, while Mrs. Billington was still upstairs trying to put her hat on her head in such a manner that she could take it off again at the theater without disarranging her hair.

"Aren't you ready yet?" called Billington.

"In a minute," replied Mrs. Billington, her mouth full of a hatpin.

"We'll be late!"

"Can't help it. Hurrying as fast as I can."

Dear reader, this is not a short story, or a news happening or a divorce incident. It is merely the faithful account of what goes on every evening from 7:45 to eight o'clock in about 100,000 homes in this broad land.

Why Foam Is White.

"How white the foam is," said the pretty girl, in a voice muffled by the sable stole drawn across her red mouth. "Yet the sea is green. Why, then, isn't the foam green?"

The young sophomore laughed in derision.

"Gee, you are ignorant!" he said.

"Beer is brown, but its foam is white, too. Shake up black ink and you get white foam. Shake up red ink and the result is the same. A body that reflects all the light it receives, without absorbing any, is always white. All bodies powdered into tiny diamond form, so that they throw back the light from many facets, absorb none of it and are white by consequence. Powdered black marble, for instance, is white. And foam is water powdered into these small diamonds, and hence its whiteness."

PERSIAN WOMEN SHOW BRAVERY

Give Up Their Lives on the Field in Cause of Liberty.

It is a remarkable sign of the times that even in eastern countries such as Turkey and Persia the women are in the van of the political movements of the day.

In Persia they take part in the struggle for a constitution, and that they are willing and ready to lay down their lives for the cause is shown by a report from the Teheran correspondent of the St. Petersburg Russ. According to which, after the latest fight that took place outside the city of Tebriz between the royalists and the constitutional forces, the casualties among the latter included 67 women distinguished as men who were found dead in the field.

The hero of the day was one Sata Khan, the military leader of the reform movement, who has been regarded for some time past by the people as the one and only possible deliverer of Persia. It appears that two days after the shah had annulled the constitution previously granted, Ahmed-Dowleh, the shah's commander, took the offensive, advanced on Tebriz and shelled the town, inflicting a loss of 100 killed and wounded on the revolutionaries. Then Sata Khan headed a sortie from the town.

His horsemen, covered by artillery, charged the shah's troops, including the Russian Gen. Laikoff's Cossacks, took them by surprise and routed them. The revolutionaries followed up their victory, pursuing Ahmed-Dowleh's troops for 13 miles and capturing 12 guns, besides provisions and ammunition. The casualties on both sides amount to about 2,000.

For the moment affairs have quieted down, but it can only be a lull before a greater storm. The news of the severe defeat of the shah's troops has spread rapidly throughout the country and has enormously strengthened the reformers.

Misfit Advice.

"Always climb up and never go down—that is the way to gain a crown, and make your life work greater. Something like this the moralist said; the youth replied, as he shook his head: "I run an elevator."—Walt Mason, in Emporia Gazette.

Unsympathetic.

Others may have said the same thing, but this rather unsympathetic comment is attributed to the late Judge Hoar: "Are you going to attend the funeral of Gen. Butler?" a friend asked him. "No," was the calm reply. "No, I am not going to attend—but I heartily approve of it."

Any Banditti in Our Town?

Whenever numerous troops of banditti, multiplied by success and impunity, publicly defy, instead of eluding, the justice of their country, we may safely infer that the excessive weakness of the government is felt and abated by the lowest ranks of the community.—Edward Gibbon.
