Alter a Prize.

Byron Reed was in the city for a short time Saturday buying flour and other necessities from the local merchants.

Byron had the misfortune to lose a horse some time ago the animal being killed by lightning. This has caused him some delay in his farm work, but he hopes to secure another horse soon. He was looking out for the interests of his 11-year-old son who is working in a contest for a fine white shetland pony, harness and buggy, and added several new subscribers to his list while in town. The plucky little fellow was at work on a riding cultivator Saturday so his papa could work for him. The prize is worth going after and we hope the little man will win out.

New Home Nearly Completed

Coon H. Vallery who was unfortunate in the loss of his house by fire some time ago was in the city on business Thursday. Coon says the carpenters finished work for the first time that day on his new house and the building was ready for the plasterers.

The house will contain eight large and comfortable rooms and is plainly constructed as Coon says he successfully resisted all efforts of the contractors to induce him to add any frills or fancy trimmings. He displays good judgment in this and we admire him for it.

Wan's to be a Missionary.

R. W. Larson arrived in the city Friday from Lincoln where he made a business trip. Mr. Larson stayed over night and visited with the family of his brother-in-law, C. A. Johnson and family, leaving the next morning for Tabor Ia., where he is taking a course in the mission school of the Holiness church. It is his ambition to become a missionary to the country of China, which he thinks is a splendid field for that work. He has but few relatives in this country, his parents residing in Sweden.

works. The night watchman retired at midnight and no trace of the thief has yet been found.

M. L. Williams opened a commission office over Fraters Drug Store, Monday morning. A. H. Ellis of Des Moines, Ia., is employed as telegraph operator. The office is a branch of the Updike Grain Company and will be operated with a direct wire from Chicago.

Farewell Party.

A farewell party was given at the home of Mrs. Short from 3 to 6 Friday afternoon, to Miss Mary Filbin who has been living with her aunt in this city and attending school for the past year.

The little guests were invited to say good-bye to Mary who left for her home at Hartwell, Neb., Sunday morning. The little folks indulged in many games with much enthusiasm, the same being at high flood later when refreshments were announced in the dining room. Miss Mary was the recipient of a great many pretty gifts, which will often assist her in recalling this or that little playmate.

The party was all over at 6 o'clock and the merry visitors departed for their homes, having had a fine time. Those present were: Albia and Rosa Jirousek, Sophia and Josie Ulrich, Caroline Schuldic, Mary Skoumal, Lilian Hartwick, and Helen and Agnes Ptak.

It is estimated that a week or ten days will be required to clean up these cases.
A House Warning.
There was a pleasant company at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Albert on Pearl street last Sunday. Mr. Albert just recently moved with his family to the city making the latest addition to the large list of prominent retired farmers already in the city.

The event last Sunday was in the nature of a house warning and those present to enjoy the occasion were John Albert, Jr., and family, Philip Albert and wife and Aug. J. Engelke and family. Mr. Engelke is a son-in-law of Mr. Albert, having married his daughter Elizabeth.

The visitors had a good time, becoming acquainted with the premises and feasting on the good things prepared by Mrs. Albert and her daughters, and no doubt will often come in to spend Sunday with the old folks.
The NEWS-HERALD joins with the many friends of this estimable family in extending a welcome to the city.

Crops in Good Conditions.

D. H. Mills, an early settler who has lived in Nebraska for 41 years was a visitor in the county seat Friday. Mr. Mills lives near Weeping Water and had formerly lived in Saunders county. He had but recently returned from Wahoo, where he had been on a visit to relatives.

He stated crops in that vicinity were in good condition, though they had been but lately been in need of rain. He returned to his home Friday evening.

Big Temperance Convention.

A united call has been made by the Nebraska Temperance Union, the Anti-Saloon league and other temperance organizations of the state for a state convention to be held at York on July 8. All churches, leagues, temperance societies and brotherhoods are invited to send representatives. It is proposed to make this meeting the opening gun for the organization of the state for county option. The people of York are preparing to entertain 1,500 people.

Home From Hospital.

P. P. Meisinger was in the city Thursday and boarded the morning train for Omaha. He returned on No. 2 in the evening accompanied by his wife who is rapidly recovering from an operation had recently at an Omaha hospital.

Mrs. Meisinger was not strong enough to take the ride home and will rest at the home of her brother-in-law, M. Hild, in this city for a few days before returning to her home.

Makes Regular Visit.

Frank Ingram, a thrifty farmer from the vicinity of Louisville came in on the morning train Friday on business at the County Court house. Frank says he does not often get to Plattsmouth, and this was one of his regular trips for the purpose of paying his taxes. He is a good citizen and we would be glad to see him oftener.

John F. Wehrbein of near Cullom was in Plattsmouth Saturday and while here had a settlement with the Duff Grain Company for about 2100 bushels of corn, which he recently delivered at Cullom at 67 1-2 cents per bushel.

The NEWS-HERALD is in a position to use a couple of good solicitors either all or part of the time. We have a good proposition—one you can make some money with. Please write immediately, or call at the office.

Vails Please the Grocer.

"These vails the women folks are wearing, all nailed down tight under their chins, are a great boon for us all right, all right," said an East End grocer. "Women, you know, are the greatest people on earth to come in and sample things. They'll take a taste of this and a taste of that while you're wrapping up something for 'em, and the first thing you know they've eaten up about a nickel's worth of stuff."

"We can't say anything to a woman, particularly those that are good customers. Now we don't have to. I haven't seen a woman taste anything in the store for a month or so. Those vails are put on so tight that the only way they can sample anything would be to take it through a straw."—Cleveland Plain Dealer
