What would you take?

Suppose you were required to live for a certain length of time on only one article of food. Which would you choose?

There is one food that stands without a rival for such a test. Quaker Oats is that one. It furnishes more strength with least wear and tear on the digestive organs than any other food. You'll feel well and strong at the end of the time. Try it. Don't stop eating other things, but eat more Quaker Oats and you'll notice the gain in strength.

You'll find Quaker Oats put up in two size packages, the regular size and the large, family size for those who are not convenient to the store.

All grocers sell these.

Eat Quaker Oats daily for breakfast, it strengthens you for the day's work.

Raises Check.

Albert Schwartz, a young boy fourteen years of age who has been working for Luke Wiles on his farm near Plattsmouth, was arrested on the serious charge of raising the amount written on a check with which Mr. Wiles had paid him. The boy had committed two offenses it seems. The first was in raising a check from $2.50 to $12.50 by writing in the words and placing a figure one before the two.

This was about May 22 and he received the money on this check at Aug. Bach & Co.'s store. The check came back to Mr. Wiles through the usual channels, but in the meantime the boy had received another check amounting to $2.10, which he also proceeded to raise to $12.50. He erased the pencil marks on this one and filled it in with ink, later trying to get it cashed at the store of Zuckweiler & Lutz. Mr. Lutz did not like the looks of the check and would not cash it, so the young fellow took it to the Cass County Bank. Mr. Patterson thought it looked awkward and after questioning him, phoned Mr. Wiles, who took the matter up and had young Schwartz arrested Wednesday morning.

The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schwartz and they keenly feel the trouble into which their son has fallen. There seems to be no reason for his action and Mr. Wiles expressed deep sympathy for the boy's parents, and stated that he did not like to cause them grief by a prosecution. He thinks the lesson has made enough impression on the boy so that he might be let off with a severe scare and warning.

The law would send the boy to the reform school, but the matter is still open, as he was paroled in the custody of his parents pending the return of County Attorney Ramsey from Texas.

New Automobiles.

Chas. Warner and Chas. Troop have each purchased a fine new automobile from the firm of Parmel & Barker in this city. Mr. Warner will own an Overland and Mr. Troop a Velie.

They are both good cars and these gentlemen will no doubt realize from future experience that it pays to buy machines of standard make.

A Good Business Deal.

P. H. Tritsch and wife of Cullom were in the city Saturday. Mr. Tritsch bought 490 acres of fine Custer County land some time ago, and it is rumored he could sell the same at a profit of $25 an acre now.

This was a good investment, as his return would be about $12,000 in little more than a year.

Diamond Ring Contest.

In the diamond ring contest which is being conducted by Nemetz & Co. eleven young ladies are entered as contestants, Miss Laura Tower leading with 133 votes. Glenn F. Scott, James B. Rishel and A. Nesladek have been named as a committee to count the votes weekly and announce the result.

Miss Dolly Ruby left for her home near Union last Tuesday morning after a few days' visit in Plattsmouth with the family of Charles E. Martin.

Capt. H. E. Palmer of Omaha is a business visitor in the city today.

Bulls Without Horns.

In his "Irish Life and Character" Michael Macdonagh has a choice collection of bulls. He called on a hat-dresser in Kingstown. As he was leaving the man tried to induce him to buy a bottle of hair wash. "What sort of stuff is it?" he asked. "Oh, it's grand stuff," the man replied. "It's a sort of miltum in parvo—the less you take of it the better."

A few days later the writer was walking with a friend over the Wicklow mountains, where they met a "character."

"Well, Mick," said my friend. "I've heard some queer stories about your doings lately." "Och, don't believe them, surr," replied Mick. "Sure, half the lies told about me by the neighbors isn't true."

The following notice Mr. Macdonagh saw posted in a pleasure boat on the Suir:

"The chairs in the cabinet are for ladies. Gentlemen are requested not to make use of them till the ladies are seated."

And this he clipped from a Kingstown newspaper:

"James O'Mahony, wine and spirit merchant, Kingstown, has still on his hands a small quantity of the whisky which was drunk by the duke of York while in Dublin."

A Woman's Bargain.

An Oil City man who was detained at the house for a part of the day, handed his wife, who was going down town, a quarter of a dollar and requested her to get him three cigars for it.

When she returned she handed him the package, remarking exultantly:

"That shows that women can beat men all hollow when it comes to making purchases. I found a place where I could get eight for a quarter instead of three. Isn't that going some?"

And the poor man, as he took his medicine, merely remarked:

"It certainly is, dear."—Oil City Herald.
