Big Circus at Omaha

Barnum & Bailey to Exhibit There on Tuesday July 13.

Never since the beginning of time has an amusement enterprise so tremendous in size been organized as this one. Its magnitude is almost beyond belief. All America, together with every foreign country, has been scoured from end to end by agents of this big show in search of novelties and the result is a performance brim full of sensational acts new to the circus world. In the big Barnum & Bailey show are nearly 400 arenic stars, most of whom are seen now for the first time. A new sensation will be seen at every performance in "JUPITER, the balloon horse." This remarkable animal with its fearless rider ascends to the dome of the circus tent in a balloon and descends to the ground in a shower of fireworks. Nearly 1,000 animal wonders are to be found in the big 108 cage menagerie. 8 herds of elephants, including one herd that actually plays upon musical instruments in time and tune. A group of giant giraffs, monster trained hippopotamus, only living bi-horned rhinoceros and hundreds of other strange beasts. Barnum & Bailey's big, new, free street parade is the most gorgeous processional display ever attempted in the history of circus business. Its tremendous size and wonderful length can only be believed in the actual seeing. It is natural to expect this big circus to lead all others in quality and quantity of its street spec-table as well as in other departments of the big show, yet never in its splendid history of nearly half a century has it displayed such extravagance as is shown this year.

Burkett is a Fighter.

A dispatch from Washington by the Associated Press speaks as follows of the attack made by Senator Burkett upon Senator Aldrich and the methods of the Finance Committee:

"Indulging in a vigorous denunciation of the committee on finance because of its change of front over night on the subject of tobacco importations from the Philippines, Senator Burkett standing face to face with Chairman Aldrich today declared that its action looked to him like a game of petty politics. He characterized this action as an effort to hang Senator LaFollette in the air, and finally declared that this event afforded senators a good opportunity to vote a lack of confidence in the committee."

Senator Burkett's remarks came during the discussion over admitting tobacco free from the Philippines. After refusing to adopt an amendment offered by Senator LaFollette the finance committee accepted an amendment made by Senator Bulkeley calling for a reduction more sweeping than the one asked for by Senator LaFollette. It was this action which aroused Senator Burkett's ire. The incident served to show even more plainly the bitter fight that men like Senator Burkett are making for true revision in opposition to the Aldrich followers.

Chas. Carlson and bride-nee Miss Nellie Whelan—returned to the city Saturday from their wedding trip.

Death of Mrs. Carroll

Old Pioneer, Resident of Nehawka, Goes to Her Reward.

Special Correspondence.

At 11:15 p. m. June eighteenth there passed out of this world another of the old settlers of Cass county, Mrs. Wm. Carroll. She was born in Kentucky, Feb. 1st, 1836, being at her death seventy-three years of age. She lived for a time in Missouri from whence she came to Nebraska. She was the mother of ten children, five sons and five daughters, and her husband also survives her. Mrs. Carroll was revered by all with whom she came in contact and, eulogy aside, was a good woman and true wife and mother, and one of her characteristic traits was her happy faculty of always seeing the brighter side of life in preference to the darker. The funeral was held Monday, the twenty-first.

The following have been elected teachers of Nehawka High School for the ensuing school term: Mr. E. E. Collins of Brownville, Principal; Miss Lois Willis of Parker, S. D., Assistant Principal; Miss Hazel Jameson of Weeping Water, Intermediate; Miss Evelyn Stout of Lincoln, Primary.

For the first time in several years Nehawka is without a candidate in the political arena; but she isn't dead—she's only resting from her long career in politics—and next year the fur will fly as thick as ever. Just watch us!

Upon receiving a telegram informing her of her mother's death, Mrs. H. F. Kropp, accompanied by Master Ernest, left for her old home at Portsmouth, Ohio, Monday at midnight.

On the afternoon of June eighteenth the home of the postmaster, J. M. Palmer, and wife was made glad by the arrival of a little daughter. "Rah for Teddy and the stork!"

Mrs. Merrill and Miss Wiltshire of Edgar, Neb., who have been visiting the former's son-in-law, Mrs. V. P. Sheldon, for the past week, returned home the nineteenth.

Ex-Governor Sheldon who is expected at any time from his home in Mississippi where he has been spending the winter, has as yet failed to appear on his native soil.

A number of Nehawkans were "among those present" at the graduation exercises of the Weeping Water Academy on Thursday, June seventeenth.

A number of the Carrolls were gathered here from different parts of the country to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Wm. Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Kropp visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kropp at Wyoming, Neb., Sunday the twentieth.

Mrs. J. A. Pollard of Salem, Neb., formerly of this place, is visiting friends in Nehawka.

The Entre Nous Club was entertained by Mrs. R. C. Pollard Friday, June eighteenth.

Mrs. Rufner of Plattsmouth has been visiting Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick. Miss Carrie Allison of Murray is visiting Mrs. D. C. West.

Mrs. Seiver Visits in City

Now Located at El Reno, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Hugh Seiver and two daughters, Florence and Beatrice, and little son Seward of El Reno, Oklahoma, departed for Louisville Tuesday evening after a week's visit in the city with the families of James Seiver and Joe Thompson.

Mrs. Seiver came out to Nebraska to see her father, Theodore Heim, who has been very ill at his home in Louisville, with heart trouble. Mr. Heim is much better, however, and his daughter and children will start on the homeward trip about Friday.

Relatives here report that Hugh is doing well in his new location, having a lucrative position as foreman in charge of the commercial switching in the Rock Island Railroad yards at El Reno, the yardmaster having a force of six engines and switching crews. His family is much pleased with the country and intend to reside there permanently, having recently built a fine new "bungalow" as this style of residence is called. Their new house is at number 620 South Choctaw Street and Mrs. Seiver extends a cordial invitation for any of their Nebraska friends to pay them a visit whenever they happen to be in that part of Oklahoma. Mrs. Seiver states that Hugh takes great delight in fussing around and fixing up the yard, and while here she was fortunate in securing a fine crimson rambler rose bush from Mr. L. A. Moore which she thinks will especially please him.

The many Cass county friends of these excellent people will be pleased to learn of their success and The News-Herald joins in wishing them many years of enjoyment in their new home.

Sugar Men Caught Again

For the second time within two months the peculiar business methods of the sugar trust (The American Refining Company,) have cost it a pretty penny. In the first case the company had to pay to the government 2 1-3 million dollars because for ten years it had been engaged in swindling the government by the use of false scales. In the second case the company made an expensive compromise with a competitor who charged that it had succeeded by a trick in preventing him from opening a refinery. The story of this case, briefly stated, is as follows:

Mr. Adolph Segal in 1903 organized the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Co., for the purpose of competing with the sugar trust. The company built in Philadelphia one of the most complete and well equipped sugar refineries in the country. Before the refinery was opened Mr. Segal found himself financially involved, and borrowed 1 1-4 million dollars from Gustav E. Kissel. The security for the loan consisted chiefly of stock of the new refining company, and with it went the condition that during the term of the loan the holder of the collateral should name the directors of the company. Mr. Segal was of course entirely ignorant of the fact that the man who was doing him this favor was an agent of the sugar trust. Mr. Kissel and three clerks of the trust were at once elected directors, and voted that the new refinery should not be opened. For six years this magnificent plant has laid idle, and not a pound of sugar has gone through its machinery. As a result, Mr. Segal, this independent refiner who had been duped into falling under the control of the trust, was financially ruined. His downfall involved a real estate company in Philadelphia, whose president thereupon committed suicide. Suit was brought against the American Sugar Refining Company, and just as the case was going to the jury it was announced that a settlement had been reached between the trust and the Pennsylvania company.

The exact terms of the settlement have not yet been made public, but it is reported that the closing of that refinery will cost the trust between 2 and 3 million dollars. The evidence in the case is being investigated by the Attorney General, in order to ascertain if there is sufficient grounds for criminal prosecution under the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. So the sugar trust has twice in rapid succession been pilloried before the world—once in open court and once by its agreement to a settlement which is equivalent to a confession of guilt. The rascality in the first case was systematic and long continued, covering at least a decade, and probably a much longer space of time. But the second offense was more despicable, for it consisted in ruining a competitor under cover of an act of friendship and assistance—the loan of the money necessary for the carrying out of his business. It is this kind of conduct which causes and in part justifies the widespread popular feeling against monopolistic corporations, and in a lesser degree, against all corporations.

Church Doings In Mynard

The Methodist Church at Mynard has resumed regular services under the pastorate of Rev. W. B. Cornish, a young man from New Jersey.

On Friday evening of this week, the Ladies Aid Society of that church will hold a lawn social at the home of Will Richardson. A musical program is being arranged which will, no doubt, prove to be a great attraction. The choir of the Methodist Church in Plattsmouth will be present and assist. A hearty invitation is extended to all and those who come will be cordially welcomed.

Next Sunday morning at the regular service, the pastor will preach on the subject: "Consecration," and in the evening at Eight Mile Grove, on the subject: "A Mistake In Love."

Cass County Visitors.

Eddie Todd and wife and his brother-in-law August Hoffman and wife drove into the city Saturday to meet Mrs. G. C. Tabor of Omaha a sister of Mrs. Todd's who came down to spend some visiting with them at their fine farm home near Oreapolis. Mr. Kaufman and his bride formerly Miss Rose Kvech of Wilber, Neb. were just recently married and they are spending a part of their honeymoon visiting relatives in Cass County.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd and their relatives are excellent people and the News-Herald is glad to number them among its friends. We extend best wishes to the newly-married couple and hope their journey through life will be a pleasant and profitable one.

Conrad Schlatter is making preparations for an extended visit with friends in Omaha and Lincoln. Mr. Schlatter spends a few months each year at these places.

Geo. Wegener was a business visitor in Plattsmouth the first of the week.

Change in Ownership.

Louis Born, a wealthy young farmer who owns a fine farm near Cullom was in the city on business Saturday. While here he closed a deal with his brother George whereby he became the owner of the 40 acres which the latter bought the day before from ex-senator S. L. Thomas.

This land joins his brother Henry's on the east, and he in time will doubtless become owner of the same. The Born boys are all well-to-do and their own efforts have caused success, as each had but a team, wagon and harness from their parents for a starter. The young men have always had to pay as much rent as any stranger and their success is only the reward of honesty, industry and good management.

Henry Stull was in the city on business Monday. Henry has nearly recovered from his recent injuries received while scalding hogs.

Peter Keil and wife were visitors in the city Monday. Mrs. Keil brought in several boxes of chickens which she sold to our merchants.
