has fully recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Florence Baird left Thursday for Cascade Springs, Colorado, to attend a meeting of the National W. C. T. U.

Miss Laura Chalfant of Edgar, Neb. who has been visiting in the city at the home of Frank Shopp, returned to her home Thursday.

Dawson Roberts of Mynard was in the city on business Friday. Mr. Roberts farms and works in the elevator for Wm. Gillispie.

Byron Reed was a visitor in the city Friday and while here took several more subscriptions for his son in the Shetland pony contest.

Fritz Ginder was a business visitor in the city Saturday. He was accompanied by George Volk, of Ashland, who visited over Sunday.

John A. Hennings, who is president of the Farmers Elevator Co., at Cedar Creek and Ferdinand Hennings and wife had business here Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Hennings and her mother Mrs. Nicholas Volk, who has been visiting with her in the country came in on the Schuyler Friday morning.

Matthew Gering returned from his outing and fishing trip out west Friday. He reports he had a fine time and feels much better than when he left home.

Wm. and Henry Volk were in the city Thursday. Wm. had his auto badly damaged recently by running into a washout, and it is laid up for repairs.

Mrs. Schumaker and daughter, Miss Minnie, who have been visiting in the city with the family of John Iverson, departed for their home at Fort Calhoun Friday.

Mrs. Peter Turn returned from Omaha Friday where she had gone to consult Dr. Gifford in regard to one of her eyes. An operation was performed and the eye is now causing her very little trouble.

John Iverson, the genial blacksmith, informs us that he is now "papa," as the stork called at his residence last Wednesday night, and left a pair of twin girls. Mrs. Iverson and the girls are getting along nicely.

Mrs. J. W. Gamble visited over Sunday with Mr. Gamble, who is teaching in the summer school at the Lincoln State University. Supt. Gamble is a deservedly popular instructor whose services are always in demand.

Wm. R. Ruffner, master mechanic of Wabash railway at St. Louis, Mo., arrived in the city last week for a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ruffner. He returned to his home at St. Louis Saturday.

Louis and Martin Frederick had business in the city Thursday. Louis has had a bad ankle for some time and he does not see the end of his trouble with it yet. However he can run the riding implements and do considerable work.

James Johnson, the Cedar Creek blacksmith, had business in the city Friday. Mr. Johnson is a number one smith and has the confidence of all the farmers in that vicinity, as he is always in the shop ready for work as it comes.

Rex Wilson, who looks after the business of his father, H. E. Wilson, since the latter's long illness, went over to Pacific Junction Friday to do some work on the school house for which his father had contracted. He is a dependable young man and his worth is well shown and certainly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Truesdale arrived in Plattsmouth from Chicago Friday for a few weeks visit with the Dovey families. Miss Alice Dovey accompanied them home for a summer outing. These young people had leading parts in the "Stubborn Cinderella" company which finished the season recently at Chicago.

Isadore Sitzman came in from Cedar Creek Saturday morning for a visit with relatives. His brother, August, was able to get down town on crutches for the first time since accidentally cutting his foot a few days ago. Isadore says the base ball game could not get over to play the river rats Sunday as the water was too high.

Eddie Todd and wife and their guests Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, of near Oreapolis were here Saturday. Eddie states that he delivered a load of new hay to the liveryman, Wm. Wehrlein at $8 per ton. In accounting for the low price he says this is an early cutting from his bottom meadow and the hay is not as perfect as the second crop will be.

Geo. Kaffenberger received a carload of feeding cattle from the S. Omaha stock yards Friday. George is one of Cass county's prosperous farmers and stockfeeders and his experience will aid in making a nice profit on this bunch of feeders. Good corn fed heaves are bringing 8 cents and better now and he thinks he can afford to fatten them even with 65 cent corn.

Mrs. Michael Horn of Plainview, Nebr., came Saturday to visit with her daughters, Mrs. Geo. Born, and Mrs. Bernard Wurl. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Mary Hoffart, and they will visit here sometime as they have many relatives and friends in this vicinity. Miss Dora Horn, a daughter, living in Omaha visited over Sunday with them.

Diamond Ring Free

During the next three months, in order to advertise our business in general, and our delicious "Fairy Ice Cream" in particular, we intend to hold a diamond ring contest. Each 5c purchase will count as one vote, 10c as two votes, etc. Contest will close September 30, 1909. To the lady receiving the largest number of votes, we will give a beautiful diamond ring, actual value $75, which is now on exhibition in Crabbill's window. To the lady receiving the second largest number of votes, we will give an elegant silver and gold tea set, actual value $25, which is now on exhibition in McElwain's window. In this contest there is absolutely no possibility of fraud, as the only way to get votes is to make a cash purchase. We shall announce standing of contestants each Thursday.
