Back From Texas.

Dr. Elster, Henry Schneider, Hans Kemp, J. McDaniel, Will Ramsey and John Tams have returned from their trip to Texas where they had gone in the interests of Plattsmouth people, interested in the Bermuda Colony land project at Gardendale, Texas.

The committee appointed, held a drawing to decide who were to be owners of the different tracts and the allotments have been made.

Members of the party state that market gardening will probably be the important industry as the climate is especially well suited for that business, and San Antonio is but 16 miles distant. However a considerable expense and a large amount of work will be necessary to prepare the land, as it is at present covered with mesquite and cactus, and will also require irrigating.

Ashley Ault of Cedar Creek, was an overnight visitor here Monday night. He was on his return from a business trip in the west.

New Residents.

W. A. Griffin recently moved his family from near Weeping Water to this city and now occupies the Peter Turn property near Chicago ave., on Rock street. Mr. Griffin has been employed as manager on Bill Dunn's stock farm near that place. He closed a deal Friday whereby he became owner of a good team, wagon, and harness and will work at teaming until spring when he hopes to rent and locate on some farm in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin are former residents of Plattsmouth and their many friends will be pleased to learn they have again taken up their home in the city.

Jos. Wiles was in the city Monday to attend to business matters. He states the Rev. McNulty of New York state, who preached at Liberty church last Sunday will be a guest at his home this week and will conduct his next revival service at Julian instead of Union as announced in our last issue.

HOT WEATHER COMFORT

When the thermometer climbs up to the vicinity of 100 in the shade there is no one item that will give more comfort to the busy housewife than a gasoline stove. Besides eliminating the heat and smoke problem, they are cheap to install and cheap to operate. We have them guaranteed in every respect, at from $2.50 to $24.00.

JOHN BAUER

Catholics Make War on Saloons.

Warfare, vigorous and unrelenting, has been declared by Roman Catholic temperance advocates against the liquor traffic. A call to every member of the Catholic church in Illinois to join in the fight for a "dry state," denunciation of Catholic societies which tolerate the sale of intoxicants at picnics and at Saturday night dances held by them, and an appeal for a rigid enforcement of the Sunday closing law—these were contained in resolutions adopted Sunday by the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of Illinois.

The resolutions, read by Rev. D. J. Crimmons, pastor of St. David's church were prepared by him and by Professor W. H. Cahill and Patriot B. Flanagan.

Text of resolutions. After calling upon members of the Catholic church to open the fight against the "vice of intemperance" the resolutions presented by Rev. Father Crimmons continue:

Be it resolved, That we again denounce with all the force and power at our command the shameful and degrading practices of those Catholic societies which permit under their auspices Saturday night dances and Sunday picnics at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and, as Catholics who have the honor of our holy church at heart, we call upon these societies, as well as upon our church authorities to prevent in future such disgraceful practices, so prolific of scandal and fraught with so much danger to the youth and manhood of our church and nation; and

Whereas, The church, through the last plenary council of Baltimore, held twenty-five years ago, decreed that the liquor traffic was a dangerous and unbecoming business and called upon those engaged in it to get out of it, and seek a more honorable means of livelihood; and

Whereas, The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that "there is no inherent right in a citizen to sell intoxicating liquors by retail; it is not

Things doing at Mynard

NEWS-HERALD Has a New Correspondent who is a Live One

Miss Edna Propst was shopping in Omaha Tuesday.

Gillispie and Snyder shipped a carload of hogs to South Omaha Monday. Frank Marier, our genial blacksmith, is kept busy now-a-days building hay-racks.

Mrs. A. Howard of Holdrege is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Wetenkamp.

Mrs. P. P. Meisinger has returned from the hospital at Omaha much improved in health.

Rev. Cornish will preach at Mynard Sunday, having for his text "Freedom". All are cordially invited.

The boys of the Sunday School, accompanied by the pastor, marched to the grove of Peter Perry Tuesday, for a picnic.

The farmers are wanting a few days of sunshine to enable them to plow their corn, as the weeds have been getting busy during these rainy days.

Robt. Propst, wife and daughter, Mayola, and Miss Carrie Newcomer were shopping at Omaha Tuesday, spending the evening at Ralston, where Mr. Thayer Propst is in the general mercantile business.

J. J. Lohnes is going to erect a large barn preparatory to feeding sheep. Mr. Lohnes has been feeding sheep now for two or three years as an experiment, and, having become satisfied that there is good money in it is preparing to get at it right.

The Ladies' Aid of the Mynard M. E. Church scored a victory both socially and financially with their ice cream and strawberry social. The Methodist choir of Plattsmouth added much to the entertainment. A very nice musical program had been arranged for the occasion.

R. A. Bates Married.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., June 28.—R. A. Bates, aged thirty-eight, and Martha H. Rupley, aged thirty-three, both of Plattsmouth, and T. B. Bates, aged forty-one, of Plattsmouth, and Kittie May Smith, aged twenty-seven, of Omaha, were married here today.—Lincoln Journal.

a privilege of a citizen of the state or of a citizen of the United States.

Therefore, as the saloon has no moral nor legal right to exist, we call upon all good Catholics to work and vote for its extinction wherever it is possible to do so, depending upon the fact that if the elimination of the saloon increased the consumption of intoxicating liquor the manufacturers of liquor would welcome its elimination; but the way brewers and distillers fight for the retention of the saloons indicates plainly that its presence means more business for them and consequently more drunkenness and evils that flow from drunkenness.

Resolved, That we condemn the saloon trade for its open and shameless violation of Sunday laws prohibiting the sale of liquor on the Lord's day. We regard the open Sunday, as now observed, as seriously manning the continuance of our free institutions. We further hold the open saloon on Sunday to be responsible for the weakening of the religious spirit among our citizens, which fact alone, if none other can be advanced against it, should be sufficient to condemn it.

Resolved, That in order to early instill into the minds of our children the benefits that accrue to those who voluntarily assume the pledge of total abstinence, we recommend to those in charge of our parochial schools that instruction of a practical character on the evils attendant upon the use of strong drink form part of their school curriculum.

We again, as last year, recommend the formation of Catholic total abstinence cadets in every parish.

Backed by Archbishop Quigley, the movement has enlisted the sympathy of many Catholic pastors, and plans are on foot to establish in each parish from Chicago to Cairo concrete organizations to battle against the liquor industry.

Preceding the big demonstration and by way of a "silent answer" to the declaration of Mayor Rose of Milwaukee, Catholics of Chicago will hold a monster parade through the downtown streets in which it is expected 10,000 total abstinence supporters will participate.

Officers elected, other than Rev. Father O'Callaghan, were P. B. Flanagan, vice president; Miss Anna Stapleton, secretary; Miss Mayme Durkin, financial secretary; Miss Francis Mortel, treasurer, and Rev. J. W. McNamie, spiritual adviser.

The story of a permanent cure. C. Tyler, Rock Street, Plattsmouth, Nebr., says:

"About two years ago when suffering from a lameness across my loins and acute pains through my back when I moved, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Gering & Co.'s drug store. They benefited me so greatly that I publicly recommended them and advised other persons afflicted in a similar way to give them a trial. I have been so free from kidney trouble since that I do not hesitate to renew my former testimonial."
