Plattsmouth No. 85 Nebraska No. 85

JULY 15, 1909.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the republican nomination for Register of Deeds of Cass county, subject to the pleasure of the voters at the coming primaries. In asking for this nomination I desire to call attention to the fact that my services in the office of county surveyor, while being largely of a "thank you" nature, the remuneration being insufficient for the support of a family, have eminently fitted me for the duties of the office to which I aspire, and in case I should receive the nomination I shall use my best endeavors to be elected, and will give to the office my best attention.

E. E. HILTON.

CALL FOR CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Cass county are hereby called to meet in convention at Weeping Water, Neb., on Saturday July 24, 1909 at 1 p. m. for the purpose of selecting delegates to State convention, also selecting a county committee.

The primaries to select delegates to county convention will be held at the usual place of holding primaries in each ward and precinct on Thursday, July 22, 1909 at 8 p. m.

The basis of representation shall be one delegate for each 12 votes or major fraction thereof for cast for the Hon. W. H. Taft for President in 1908.

H. A. SCHNEIDER, A. F. STURM,
Secretary. Chairman.

SAME AFTER SEVENTEEN YEARS.

The person who reads a democratic paper today on the tariff question cannot help looking at the date of the paper to see whether it was published in 1892 or in 1909. They read so much alike. In 1892, it will be remembered that the McKinley Tariff Law was in force. Prices were high, factories busy workingmen employed at good wages, the farmers flourishing, and prosperity everywhere in the cities, towns and on the farms. A great cry went up from the democratic press about high prices and the robber tariff, and millionaire manufacturers. The same democratic press today are filling their columns with the same story they then told of the "poor consumer" and the robber tariff. A democratic president and a democratic congress were elected and a special session of congress was called to revise the tariff. Months were spent in tariff debate. Prof. Wilson was the head of the House committee and Senator Gorman was the leader of the Senate committee. The Hon. W. J. Bryan was there with his free trade notions. The fruits of this democratic congress under the Wilson-Gorman Democratic Tariff Law spread over the country from east to west, from north to south from 1893 to 1897. The fruits of a Democratic Tariff will be remembered for the suffering it produced. Thousands of flourishing manufacture's were driven into bankruptcy, millions of honest and industrious workingmen were sent forth beggars and paupers leaving their good wives and helpless children starving at home—all for the writing of a Democratic Tariff Law on the Federal statutes in behalf of the "poor consumer." Beggars because of the enactment of a democratic tariff for the "poor consumer;" bankruptcy because of the enactment of a democratic tariff for the "poor consumer;" Coxey's army (and Plattsmouth people will remember Coxey's army for they were here) because of the enactment of a democratic tariff for the "poor consumer;" starving women and children because of the enactment of a democratic tariff for the "poor consumer;" farmers in despair with no markets for his grain because of the enactment of a democratic tariff law for the "poor consumer;" distress, despair, starvation, idle mills and idle men, suicide and crime because of the democratic tariff for the "poor consumer;" from 1893 to 1897, was the condition then and the reason for that condition under the Wilson-Gorman-Bryan-Bates Tariff law for the "poor consumer." The Plattsmouth Journal and the democratic press are today in effect reproducing the same cry against high prices that they made in 1892. Do you want the fruits of a democratic tariff for low prices to be reproduced as in 1893-4-5-6-7? Do you want it Mr. Farmer? Do you want it Mr. Merchant? Do you want it Mr. Workingman? Do you want it good wives? God knows the poor and helpless children don't want it. Pay no heed to the cry in behalf of the "poor consumer," it is copied, it is reproduced, it is reprinted from the democratic press of 1892. A republican congress and a republican president, are a safe guarantee for a practical and business tariff law in the interest of the whole people. It is safe to say that a just and equitable tariff law will be enacted, but no matter what it is the democrats will shout robber tariff. It is chronic with them.

A CAREFUL reading of the debate in the House of Representatives on sending the tariff bill to conference will convince any impartial reader that the republican membership of that body will not accept the conference report unless it is an honest fulfillment of pre-election promises. The mere fact that republicans voted to send the bill to conference does not signify that they will vote to concur in the report. The NEWS-HERALD has unlimited faith in the honesty of the republicans of the House and that they will refuse to vote for a conference report that does not embody a bill that is in harmony with the republican platform and with Pres. Taft's pre-election promises.

WASHINGTON dispatches state that Pres. Taft is in close touch with the conference committee on the tariff bill. The President's sterling honesty and his loyalty to principle has been tested to often in his public career for us to entertain for a moment the suggestion that he will desert the people at this time. Beyond peradventure the people are assured that he will not attach his signature to a tariff bill that is not a redemption of the platform promises. Mr. Taft has expressed himself too often both before and since election for us to fear lest he will make his position perfectly plain to the conferees. If a bill should be sent to him that does not, in his judgment square with his promises he will veto it.

IT WILL be remembered that last winter there was an assemblage of confessed ignorance and incompetency at Lincoln called a legislature. The actual expenses of this assemblage of confessed incompetency cannot yet be estimated. With a democratic partisan "non-partisan" judiciary law held unconstitutional, and a conglomerate so called "bank guaranty" law which is in process of eradication in the federal court, so that there seems to be but little left to show for the work of this aggregation of self-confessed incompetency except the excessive appropriation and wasting of the peoples money, and the "nine-foot" bed-sheet law. Doubtless the "Kunnel" is proud of his nine-foot sheet record, and the state printer's job he didn't get. A great record indeed.

Mr. N. H. Darton, United States Geologist was in the city this morning looking up the cost of material for the new post office building here. This is done so that the government architect can prepare his plans and specifications within the appropriation secured by Congressman Pollard. In the near future Plattsmouth will have the new Federal Building secured for this city by Mr. Pollard in spite of the bitter fight the Journal has made on him. We have contended that the Journal is a hindrance to the city's progress, and this is noted as one illustration, we could name scores of others. When will the business men wake up and realize what are real hindrances to the progress and development of the city.

THE little editorial in the last issue of the NEWS-HERALD pointing out the Bates - Grimes - Ruffner - Fox - Ramsey democratic ring and the acting of "Boss Bates" evidently touched a tender spot for last evenings daily Journal contained a double column "squeak" from "Boss Bates." It was the truth in our editorial that hurt. The Bates-Grimes-Ruffner-Fox-Ramsey ring have slated W. E. Rosencrans for sheriff, but the friends of Ed. S. Tutt are not likely to allow this ring to shut him out. The Journal practically admits the existence of the Bates - Grimes - Ruffner - Fox-Ramsey ring, but insists that we are mistaken as to one name in this ring. It does not even deny that the "Kunnel" is the democratic "Boss."

Mrs. Geo. Sayles and daughters, Blanche and Adelia were passengers this morning for Cullom where they go to enjoy a few days outing at the home of Mrs. W. H. Seybert. They went today to be present at the entertainment given by Mrs. Seybert for the ladies of the D. of H.
