Old Papers For Sale at This Office

AS TO RING RULE

We regret to see the course the Louisville Courier is taking concerning the efforts of the Republican County Committee to induce good, strong men to file as candidates for the various county offices. The Courier has even seen fit to copy an article from a democratic paper outside of Cass county that is seeking to discredit the worthy interest the Republican Committee of this county has taken in getting good men to run for office. So far as the NEWS-HERALD is concerned we wish to state that no personal choice among the men that are aspiring for the different County offices will be shown. We are free to state, however, that we have no sympathy with those who are endeavoring to throw cold water upon the laudable course of the Republican Committee. So far as we know there has been no attempt at rule or dictation even in the slightest degree. The Republican Committee of this county duly selected according to law, and the accredited representatives of the Republican party, has held three or four meetings for the sole purpose of prevailing upon good, clean strong men to become candidates for the different offices of the county. If such meetings for such a worthy object can be characterized as ring rule then we are frank to state that we are for that kind of ring rule. Cass county has a normal Republican majority of from three to four hundred. With this majority to our credit we are entitled to the election of every man on the Republican ticket, providing of course good men are nominated. The Republican Committee in its action is representing the best interest of every Republican as well as every citizen of Cass county. They have simply and solely made an effort to draft good strong men to run for office, so that no republican can find even the semblance of an excuse to vote against any man on his ticket. The County Committee has been working in the interest of good government which in our opinion means Republicanism. Every citizen of Cass county whether he be Republican, Democrat, Populist, Prohibitionist, or Socialist is surely in favor of having honest, efficient men represent them in office. You cannot elect good men to office under our form of government unless they are first nominated by some party. So far as the Republican party is concerned, its Committee has had the courage and the patriotism to assist in the nomination of a strong ticket. Instead of censuring the Committee we are of the opinion that every Republican in the county owes them a vote of thanks for their worthy action in this matter. The democratic committees in both Douglas and Lancaster counties have adopted the same course in getting candidates to file before the primary.

SOMETHING FOR THE "KUNNEL"

The Plattsmouth Journal is howling about the high price of flour. Will the Journal be honest and fair with the farmers of Cass county? If so, will it answer these questions?

1. Are you in favor of putting wheat and flour on the free list?
 2. Are you in favor of putting oats and barley on the free list?
 3. Are you in favor of putting cattle on the free list?
 4. Are you in favor of reducing the market price of farm products?
- Be fair and honest with the farmers, "Kunnel" don't try to dodge the issue. The Dingley Tariff on wheat is 25 cents per bushel, on wheat flour is 25 per cent, on oats is 15 cents per bushel and on cattle value over $14 per head is 27 1-2 per cent. Speak out "Kunnel" answer the above questions by yes or no.

The editor of the NEWS-HERALD is a personal friend of W. W. Windham, who was endorsed by the republican committee for county clerk. We would have been glad to have given the young man our heartiest support had he filed for the place. He has a future before him. We have never had any dealings with George Lushinsky, who is the republican candidate for this office. But, we now learn from his coworkers who are best acquainted with him that a better man for the position could not have been found. We, therefore, congratulate Mr. Lushinsky's fellow workers, both democrats and republicans, who were instrumental in presenting so good and capable a man as a candidate, and we predict a sweeping victory for him.

WHAT is a Democrat? Who can answer?

This is more of a conundrum now than ever since the tariff bill has been before Congress. Every democratic platform for the past half century has contained a plank committing the party to the removal of all duties from raw materials, in particular, and for a tariff for revenue only as a general proposition. The Democrats in Congress have repudiated every tariff principle for which the party has stood in the past. A majority of the democrats in both houses, if the press dispatches are to be relied upon, have voted for a high protective tariff upon lumber, hides, iron ore and most all other raw materials. Nearly all the increases made in the Senate that have been so objectionable to the west received the votes of a majority of Democratic Senators. The democratic party can no longer claim to be a low tariff party. Their record on the tariff bill now pending in Congress is proof that when it comes to voting they are a high tariff party no matter what they may insert in their platform. The Democrats cannot escape their share of the responsibility for the many increases that were made to the tariff bill in Congress.

WE would advise the Plattsmouth Journal to keep its mouth shut about T. Jefferson O'Day and his business arrangements. His politics can be made a subject of discussion when he enters the political arena—and when that time comes will match our political consistency with that of the writer of many news articles that have been given him in that sheet. Our record is open for comparison with that of the editor of the Journal and with one or three Democratic patriots (?) in Plattsmouth, and placed in parallel column will make good reading for Democrats in the west end of the county. Editorial decency would never have permitted the mean, slanderous attacks that have been made under the cover of "news items" in the Journal on the editor of the Register who has treated it with the consideration due from one REAL newspaper man to another. If the Plattsmouth Journal had any desire to print facts, the editor of the Register has at all times been accessible and would have gladly given them one article that was not furnished by Rumor, whose long suit generally borders on slander.—Nehawka Register.

Good Crops Assured.

Mrs. Wm. Hunter and her father, John Buck made a trip of inspection to their farm near Pacific Junction Saturday. Crops in that vicinity are reported as having prospects for a heavy yield though threatened somewhat by the high waters of the Missouri river a short time ago. Several farmers along the Missouri bottoms had some fields of grain damaged but the losses were light as compared with those of previous years.

Kunsmann & Range received a large shipment of dressed beef Saturday from South Omaha. There were 22 quarters in the lot and is one of the largest shipments received in the city for some time.

This firm usually kills its own bees but on account of the torrid weather and scarcity of suitable animals it was necessary to fill out the stock with purchases from the packing house.

The upper front of the remodeled Falter & Thierolf building is being treated to a new coat of paint, which makes a decided improvement and adds much to the handsome appearance of the north side of Main street in that block. M. M. Beal is doing the work and when finished he states the front will be colored a light cream to correspond with the other fronts adjacent.

By This Sign Ye Shall Know Them

All progressive threshermen know what this sign stands for. It stands for the best there is in threshing machinery. CASE threshing machinery has stood the test of years, it is the result of the best scientific skill obtainable. No improvement is added to a CASE machine but what has been thoroughly tried at the factory. We do not experiment at the expense of our customers, hence the testing at the factory. The CASE steel separators are weather-proof, water-proof, fire-proof. They are money makers. A 54-inch Steel Separator and 15 h. p. engine would cost about $2,000. See me about catalogues.
