

cratic candidates for the supreme court, but do they expect to vote for republicans for the same positions? Not as anybody ever heard tell of. A democrat is a democrat all the time. He is always loyal to his party when it comes to state and national issues, and there is no reciprocity on his part. The game is played "heads I win, tails you loose" to the end.

A Subscription Campaign.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the ad in another part of the paper in which we are making a special rate both for the campaign and for the balance of the year. This rate will just about pay for the paper it is printed on, but we propose to make a campaign for subscribers between now and the first of the year and make this rate so that all can give the paper a trial. At this rate you of our regular subscribers who wish to have your friends take a good paper can send it to them, making them a present for the balance of the year. All subscriptions will stop after the time subscribed for, or within a reasonable time after, unless a renewal is received at the regular rate. Therefore, no one need to refuse the paper on the grounds that the subscription will be allowed to accumulate against them. If you receive the paper you will know some friend is sending it to you as a present, and that you will not be required to pay for it up to the time it is paid for.

Finds His Horse.

George Shrader who reported the theft of a fine horse from his premises northeast of Murray, for the return of which together with the conviction of the thief rewards aggregating $100 were offered, reports the recovery of his steed and the withdrawal of the reward offers. It seems that he has an abandoned cave on his premises and in meandering around the yard after the evening meal her horseship wandered into in and was unable to find her way out again. Mr. Shrader is very glad to recover his property and the neighborhood has regained its normal temperature which was sent scurrying skyward by the report that horsethieves were abroad in the land.

Wescott's Green Dollars.

Henry Hesse was the lucky man in gathering in Wescott's three green dollars in yesterday's clock stopping event his ticket indicating the hour of 10:50:02 and the clock stopping at 10:45:29. Three dollars will be given away every Wednesday from now until the 15th of December, and all sale tickets are good for each week, but your tickets must be at the store each Wednesday at three o'clock sharp in order to be considered. If you cannot come yourself, send them with your neighbor.

Some Fine Potatoes.

The Weeping Water Republican reports that H. P. Christensen of that city harvested 1000 bushels of potatoes from five acres. Mr. Christensen states that the dry weather seemingly did not curtail his yield in the least. Comparing this yield with the present price of potatoes and the prices of the various grains and alfalfa it would seem that the Irish potato is well qualified to take care of itself. Stand up for Nebraska.

In Old Missouri.

John Richardson and wife returned yesterday from a visit of several days at Langdon, Mo. Mrs. Richardson went down about a week ago to be present at the birthday anniversary of her mother and Mr. Richardson went down later and accompanied her home. Mr. Richardson brought back with him a basket of pawpaws which he was allowing his friends to sample.

Will T. Adams is making arrangements to feed a few sheep on his farm south of the city this winter. He fed one car last winter, and the experiment proving profitable he will increase the number this season if he can succeed in buying right.

The attachment suits brought by Don C. Rhoden and Chas. L. Martin against A. A. Hatfield and Frank Purcell, instituted in the county court for the recovery of livery hire, have been dissolved, the difficulty being settled out of court.

Four hoboes were taken in Tuesday by Chief Amick and given a night's lodging at the expense of the city. Yesterday morning before Judge Archer they pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy and were given an hour in which to get out of the city.

Charles Guthman of this city and Louis Neitzel of Murdock are expected home today or tomorrow from a trip of several weeks spent on the Pacific coast, a visit to the Seattle fair being included in the itinerary.

P. A. Barrows, editor of the NEWS-HERALD, left last evening for a business trip to Lincoln. On his return he will stop over at Nehawka and take in the fair which will occur there tomorrow and Saturday.

Legal Notice.

State of Nebraska, } ss. In County Court
County of Cass, }
In the matter of the estate of Gustave Keune, deceased.
August 27th, 1909. Upon reading and filing the duly verified petition of Elizabeth Keune alleging among other things that Gustave Keune, an inhabitant of said county died, intestate, in said county on the 20th day of August, 1909, seized of personal and real property situated in said county, all of said real and personal property being exempt from levy and sale on attachment execution or other mesne process, and praying that general administration of said estate be dispensed with: It is therefore ordered that a hearing be had upon said petition at the county court room, in Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska on the 24th day of September, A. D. 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m. and that notices thereof be given by publication of this order for not less than three successive weeks prior to such hearing, in the NEWS-HERALD a semi-weekly newspaper published and circulated in said county, and due proof of publication be made and filed in this office.
By the Court, 29-6
ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.

THE MANY USES OF PAPER

In the home cannot be estimated. It can be used to beautify the otherwise ugly pantry shelves, to put under the carpets, in fact it can be used all over the house and is a cheap means of sanitation. We have a limited number of old papers which we will sell for 5c per bunch. THE NEWS-HERALD.

New Millinery
