The Nehawka Social Fair

made by a woman over 80 years old, Grandma Gibbinson of Weeping Water. The very looks of the butter display was feast for an epicure. It is now recognized that Nebraska butter is the best in the United States; and here were samples of the best made in Nebraska. The cows drank of the purest of water; grazed in blue grass, clover, timothy and alfalfa pastures, and when they laid down under an oak tree and half closed their eyes, and chewed the cud of contentment and alfalfa, they were preparing in body and mind for the making of these golden rolls. The result was not disappointing; for the essences of grass, water and contentment were made manifest before us, and we common mortals could "taste and see."

And right against the butter was a glass case filled with bread made by Nehawka's fair daughters "from Nehawka made flour." Mrs. Charles Bates was the proud winner of the blue ribbon, and Mrs. Bert Tucker of the red.

But oh the cakes, the cakes! It made the old fellows fairly sick to see all those many kinds of cakes, and know that if they indulged they would have the stomach ache. But indigestion always come with age, I would hate to be a judge of cakes when there are so many lovely creations to judge, would not you? I would rather be president of a railroad at a salary of $50,000 per year.

The display of canned goods was very creditable, and included peaches, pears, plums, cherries, grapes, cucumbers, beans and corn.

The school exhibit was from Nehawka, Avoca and district No. 4, with a few from Weeping Water. The maps, the raised maps and the free hand drawing could scarcely be excelled. This exhibit shows there is a great deal of latent talent in art in the country which ought to be developed.

There was only a fair display of horses. There were several driving teams that were well matched, and show promise of responding to proper training.

Isaac Pollard had a fine display of things he gathered up on a trip to Arizona last winter. There were quite a number of pieces of fossilized wood, and several varieties of cactus. One of the cactuses was a hornless kind, and a curiosity. Mr. Pollard claims that nature beat Luther Burbank in producing a thornless cactus, and points to his own in proof of it.

Each evening of the fair was enlivened by a band concert, followed by speaking. Friday evening Judge Fawcett of Omaha spoke on, "the past, present and future of our nation." The judge is an optimist of the advanced class, and his address was full of a splendid optimism based on faith in God, and faith in the good common sense of the American people. Hon. E. M. Pollard followed in a non-partisan political speech in which he showed why we of the west could not get free lumber. The rest of his speech was a plea for a tariff commission. It was a logical talk and created a good impression.

Saturday evening Judge Dean of the supreme court told of the method of procedure and argument before the supreme court; and the method by which decisions were arrived at. The people were greatly interested in this insight of the workings of the supreme court.

Ex-Governor Sheldon attempted to follow Judge Dean, but a tempest of wind and rain came up and he was obliged to desist.

The Nehawka fair is purely a local affair, received no county aid. The expenses are borne by voluntary subscriptions from the citizens, and the awards are paid as soon as made by the treasurer, who is on the ground with a bag full of silver. No admission fee is charged, and all entries are free, and open to the world. A few dollars are received from concessions.

The ball game on Saturday afternoon between Weeping Water and Nehawka was won by the former by a score of 9 to 5.

Randall Not Returned.

The many friends in this city of Rev. A. A. Randall, D. D., will be pained to learn that the conference which has just closed its annual session at Lincoln has not seen fit to return him to this charge another year. Rev. W. L. Austin being the man chosen while Rev. Randall will go to Osceola.

While Mr. Randall has been here only two years he and his estimable family have so endeared themselves to the community that this news will come as a distinct shock. However, all will unite in wishing them the choicest blessings in their new home.

$1.50. 25 Cents. 10 Cents.

For the purpose of increasing the circulation of the NEWS-HERALD and also of reaching every home in Cass county, preparatory to making a better paper, we make the following offer to new subscribers.

The NEWS-HERALD from now till after Election ..... 10c

—OR—

The NEWS-HERALD from now till January 1, 1910 ..... 25c

—OR—

Any New Subscriber paying for one year in advance at the regular subscription price of $1.50 can have the NEWS-HERALD sent free till January, 1910.

This barely pays for the paper it is printed on and no republican in Cass county can afford to be without his party paper at this price. In fact a democrat will gain a whole lot of useful knowledge he would not otherwise obtain by taking advantage of this offer.

We have a few of those nice Clocks left which we will give to any new subscriber who pays one year's subscription in advance and 50 cents extra, as long as they last.

In addition to every year's subscription in advance we will give one of those "Don't Break Your Back" Dust Pans, a few of which we have left.

Then we have a lot of Silver Spoons which are warranted to be just as good as silver anyway, and will give half a dozen of these as long as they last to any subscriber who pays a year in advance with 15 cents extra.

Then there are a few dozen scissors left which we want to get out of the way and will give a pair of these to any subscriber who pays one year in advance and 10 cents extra.

This offer does not any where near cover the cost of this stuff at the wholesale price, but they are here in the office and we want to get them out of the way, and we propose to give new subscribers the benefit.
