Sunday School Convention.

The local contingent of the committees having in charge the county convention of the Cass county Sunday School association which will be held in Elmwood on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 26 and 27, report excellent progress and state that the prospects now indicate that the coming convention will be one of the most interesting in the history of the organization.

The association is undenominational and interdenominational and is representative of all Sunday schools in the county. The annual conventions are given character by the participation in them of the best talent in the county. They have come to be the chief inspirational convales of the Sunday school workers of the county, and the coming meeting is being looked forward to with great interest.

The people of Elmwood will this year furnish free entertainment to all delegates, and that they may know at the earliest possible moment the number to prepare for it is requested that the various organizations select their delegates as soon as possible.

Meets With Accident.

Miss Mildred Rogers, the young daughter of Mrs. J. W. Larkin, met with an accident Tuesday which while not at all serious was very painful and will result in the young lady taking a vacation for a few days. While swinging from the limb of a tree at the residence of J. M. Roberts on West Main street, she felt that it was about to break and loosed her hold. The distance to the ground was short but from the nature of the injury her physician thinks that perhaps the knee cap was dislocated. While the ligaments are still very sore, the inflammation is rapidly subsiding and the little lady will doubtless soon be her usual self.

Music and Elocution.

Prof. H. S. Austin has resigned his position with Dovey & Son, and on the 18th inst. with his wife will open in the Gund building, at the corner of Fourth and Main streets, a studio for instruction in music and elocution. Prof. Austin's reputation as a teacher of music is too well known in this city and vicinity that we need dwell upon it at this time. Suffice it to say that the increasing demands upon his time makes this move necessary, and assisted by his wife who is one of the best elocutionists in this section of the country, the new venture will doubtless fill a long felt need. In addition to vocal work Prof. Austin will also open classes in harmony and composition.

Mrs. Curtis Moore, who have been quite sick, is reported to be improving now, but slowly.

Their 50th Anniversary.

Another Couple Pass the Half-Century Wedding Milestone.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Wendell celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in their beautiful home on Gospel hill in this city Tuesday. About two hundred invitations were issued for the reception from 2 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The day was an ideal one, warm and sunny, quite reflecting the happy vein which reigned within the home of the happy couple.

"How does this weather compare with fifty years ago?" was asked Mrs. Wendell.

She smiled and said: "Well today is exactly like fifty years ago and I feel just as young and happy as I did that day."

Refreshments were served on the beautiful lawn by Mrs. W. L. Pickett, and the Misses Lena Fricke, Hallie Parmele, Helen Clark, Mary Donnelly, Lucile and Helen Gass.

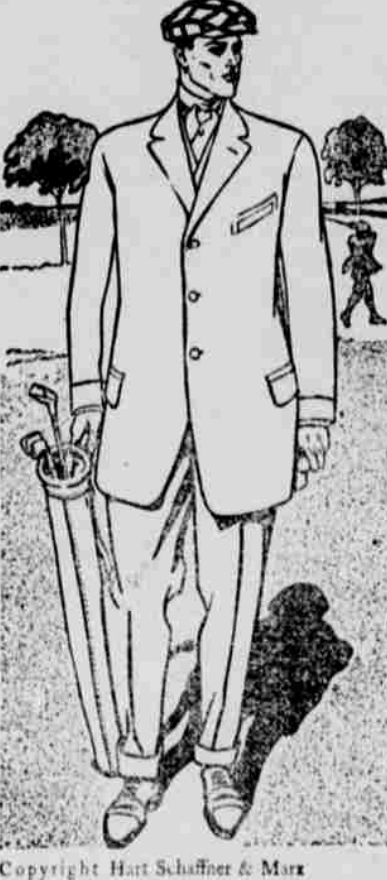

Jacob S. Wendell was born in Saratoga county, N. Y., on January 27, 1830 and is a carpenter by trade, and was employed in the local Burlington shops for 25 years. Miss Harriette A. Sherman was born Pittstown, N. Y., on October 2, 1835, and graduated from a college in Fort Edward, N. Y. and was very successful in teaching school for a number of years. They were married in Pittstown, N. Y., on October 5, 1859 and came to Nebraska in 1883, where they have since resided. They have two children, Mrs. Eliza M. Forbes and Mrs. Arabella A. Gass, who were present and assisted in receiving. They also have eight grand children, who were also present.

Among the old settlers present were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White, who came to Plattsmouth in 1857; Mrs. R. R. Livingston, who came in 1858; Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Baird came here on September 11, 1864; Mrs. Amelia Swift, who came in 1868; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pollock and Mr. and Mrs. Washington Smith, who came in 1870; Mrs. Jennie Schildknecht, who came November 17, 1870; Cannon and Mrs. H. B. Burgess, who came 1874; Mr. and Mrs. Dan who came in 1876; Mrs. H. D. Travis, who came in 1881; and Mrs. Allen Beeson, who came in 1879.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents, one coming from British Columbia and one from Kansas City. Their children and grand children gave them a gold headed cane and a gold headed silk parasol. Their friends presented them with a purse containing $75 in gold to remind them of their golden wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell are enjoying the best of health and their many friends hope they may live to celebrate many more as happy birth day anniversaries.

Republicans or democrats, it makes no difference, come here to buy their clothes. Not because they like our politics any better than others but because they appreciate our "value giving" policy, our up-to-date store methods and our large assortment of good clothes. You can't buy better clothes than we'll sell you, and it's a "cinch" you can't buy them cheaper. If you can, remember we'll pay for the suit no matter where you buy it. Look here before you buy, if we haven't what you want, we don't want to sell you.
