Their will be at a special meeting Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Oct. 17, 1903, at Coates' hall for the benefit of those palefaces that have not been obligated yet.

Any person desiring to join the class that is going to Omaha Oct. 19, 1903, can see any of the following representatives, John Corry, J. C. York, Thomas Walling, Fred Egenberger, Anton H. Koubek, John Nemetz, Harry Kuhney, Claus Speck, or any other member before Sunday, and they will explain to you the special rates that the Red Men are offering.

A special train will take them up to Omaha Oct. 19, at 7 o'clock in the evening.

So Mr. Paleface this is your last chance to be one of the 1,000 class, so make up your mind before Sunday, Oct. 17, and enter their wigwam.

Crazy Drunk.

While No. 2 was at the depot Saturday evening E. S. Lucas stepped from the train. Chief of Police D. L. Amick saw him staggering and fearing he would step between the cars and go under the train took hold of his arm to prevent such an accident. Lucas said: "Don't get gay I can whip you," and caught Amick by the neck. Pete Lindsay came to the assistance of Amick and the large and powerful man was placed in the county jail. Mr. Lucas sobered up and appeared before Judge Archer this morning paid his fine of $10 and costs and apologized to the court and to the chief of police for his actions while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Lucas resides south of Malvern, Ia.

If there is anything that makes a fellow nervous it is to have a dog go after him with shining teeth. There is a certain dog in town which persists in the idea that he loves calves, and ours seem to be his particular kind. If some night that dog comes home carrying four broken legs, a toothless jaw, both ears chewed off, its eyes gorged out, a broken tail and a long mournful howl, the owner will know that the editor's dog has been protecting her master and taken hand in the controversy.

Parmele in Auto Race.

Pollock Parmele in his Overland auto, accompanied by his father, Charles C. Parmele, entered the contest with eighteen other machines to try to win the two fine silver cups. Pollock made the trip to Falls City and return in six hours, a distance of 112 miles.

Miss Dora Glenn was a passenger to Omaha Tuesday morning.

Winter Weather.

The first snow of the season visited this city and vicinity Monday. Tuesday morning mercury registered 22 degrees above zero, regular winter weather. The citizens were unprepared for the sudden change and the stove dealers are very busy today putting up heating stoves. Ice formed on water exposed to the elements to more than one-half an inch in thickness.

Farewell Reception.

The members of the order of Knights and Ladies of Security tendered a reception to Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Waybright, who are to depart for their home in Los Angeles, Cal., Thursday, in the home of County Judge Beeson Saturday evening. Refreshment were served and a delightful and social evening enjoyed.

The editor of this paper has taken rooms at the residence of Mr. Wise in the north west part of the city. We don't know the street nor the number, but we notice it is a nice looking part of town, and if the people up there will leave their coal boxes unlocked, their chicken houses open and will tie up the dog on dark nights, we are quite sure that we will be able to get along nicely.

J. W. Larkin was in Omaha Tuesday purchasing new goods for his store.

More Election Officers.

J. M. Robertson, clerk of the district court, has appointed the following named persons to fill vacancies as judges and clerks of election. Arthur L. Anderson, Plattsmouth, Fourth ward; W. P. Hutcheson, Rock Bluff, Second district; Peter Anderson, Mt. Pleasant precinct; Walter Norval, Weeping Water precinct.

Mrs. Peter Carlson was a passenger to Havelock Tuesday to visit a son.

Social Event.

Mrs. H. N. Dovey very pleasantly entertained a number of friends to one o'clock dinner Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. A. Rawls, who is soon to depart from this city. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Dovey's hospitality were the Meslames C. E. and E. H. Westcott, T. H. Pollock, D. C. Morgan, Campoll and C. A. Rawls.

Paul Morgan spent the day in Omaha Tuesday.

Coal Lasts 40 Hours Longer

When fire is burning at a cherry red heat it means economy of fuel. For coal then lasts 48 hours. When your fire is kept at a white hot combustion as it is in a base burner, there is a big waste, for coal lasts only six to eight hours at the outside.

But in Cole's Radiant Hard Coal Stove you can keep your fire at an economizing, slow, cherry red heat, yet get as much heat as you can from fire at a white hot combustion, as is necessary in a fuel-wasting base burner.

This is due to the tight construction, giving perfect control over the fire, and to the large sheet metal radiating surface, which is more sensitive to heat than cast iron in a base burner. You can always maintain a slow fire day and night. Figure the saving in one winter. It would pay you to throw out the heavy, clumsy fuel-wasting base burner and set up in its stead the amazing, fuel-saving Cole's Radiant Hard Coal Stove. And you can burn crushed coke, too, at $4 to $5 a ton. Then before the cold weather sets in and for spring heat the magazine can be easily removed and you have a front door feed for wood, cots and other light fuel. No base burner at twice the cost will permit that.

Two new appliances are a part of this wonderful stove without extra cost. The gas burning device utilizes the waste gases. The anti-puffing draft prevents the escape of these gases into the room. Make it a special point to see and examine this remarkable hard coal stove. It will solve your stove problems for all time.
