Some How

Our trade like GOOD clothes and like to be sure of ALWAYS getting that kind. That's the reason our QUALITY CLOTHES have attained such a sale. Many people have learned the value of buying QUALITY CLOTHES and now insist upon that kind. The reason is they find our clothes fit just right when new and continue in shape and stylish looking to the very last. They outwear and outlast twice over the cheaper clothes. You'll enjoy looking at the many new Fall models in the latest fabrics—especially our exclusive patterns—no two alike. Prices are $20 to $35. Others not so good but as good as others show $5 to $18.

Another Boost For Plattsmouth

Our Rustling Red Men land the Grand Council for next Year.

Plattsmouth, Neb. Oct., 22, 1909.

To Editor of Daily News:

I beg leave through your paper to state that as a delegate to the Grand Council of the Improved Order of Redmen of the Reservation of Nebraska to state for the benefit of those who were not there that it was one of the greatest gatherings that I ever had the pleasure of attending. We have men of all callings from barbers to United States Senators, U. S. Marshalls, U. S. Judges, and Judges of the District Court of the State with lawyers galore. And I want to say that it was one of the most prominent bodies of men that I have ever had the pleasure of meeting with.

While at the Lyric Theatre where the degree was demonstrated, we were given the keys to the city of Omaha by Mayor Duhlman who told us to go where we pleased and what we pleased and if any one got in trouble to telephone him and he would rescue us from all danger. The initiation was just splendid given in a way that was most impressive on the minds of the many hundreds of Pale faces.

I want to say that the showing for old Plattsmouth was a great advertisement for our town, for they were throwing bouquets for Plattsmouth from the time we landed on the special the 19th and though the meeting of the Great Council on the 20th and even went so far as to say what ever Plattsmouth wanted in the way of honors they could have. And now Brother Redmen and the citizens of Plattsmouth we think that we have given our town the best advertising that it has had for many moons. We have also landed the next great council of the Improved Order of Redmen at Plattsmouth which will meet some time next October, so if you want to help us out get in on the ground floor take off your coat and help us boost our town.

Respectfully,
John C. York.

District Court.

In district court Thursday Judge H. D. Travis granted Mrs. Rose Norton the furniture and $20 per month alimony and the case was continued until next spring. Attorney W. A. Robertson appeared for the plaintiff and A. L. Sullivan for the defendant.

Surprise party.

Last Friday evening about fifty young people consisting of the Loyal Sons and Daughters of the Christian church congregated at Jesse Perry's barber shop chartered carry-alls and drove to the home of Thomas South, meeting others here, they followed their way to the home of Miss Eva Ward where the jolly crowd gave her a most delightful surprise.

The evening was spent in music, games and social conversations, after which a late supper was spread to which all did ample justice. At a late hour the party left for home feeling that it had been good for them to be there and wishing Miss Eva many more such occasions.

In short the Ward's proved beyond a doubt to be royal entertainers.

Bring the Girls Home.

The attention of the public is called to the fact that the establishment of a factory in this city by M. E. Smith & Co., of Omaha will furnish an opportunity to bring back to the city many girls and young women who in the search for employment have found it necessary to scatter to the four winds of heaven. Numerous families here have girls employed at various points throughout the state, many of whom would doubtless prefer being at home, opportunities for employment being equal, and these are urged to notify their absent ones of the change in conditions about to be inaugurated here, and assure them of the opportunity to secure steady, remunerative employment.

Grandpa Conrad Schlater.

Conrad Schlater visited friends in the Nebraska Masonic Home today and favored his old friends with some of music, both vocal and instrumental. Grandpa Schlater presided at the first organ during the services in the Methodist Episcopal church in this city and says he enjoyed the meetings very much, both the Sunday School and the divine services.

Last Sad Rights.

Dr. John J. Baird conducted the funeral services of H. K. Dunbar in the Hotel Riley this afternoon at 2 o'clock, after which time the body was then taken to Ashland for burial. The services were quite largely attended, many friends from Ashland and other towns being present. The relatives have the sympathy of the community in the loss of a kind and loving husband and father.

Miss Lucy Arnold visited friends in Omaha Monday.

He Shot His Friend

Chas. Steele of Avoca While Intoxicated Shoots His Friend Charles Martin.

Chas. Steele is in jail and Chas. Martin, his friend, is in the hospital at Omaha with a bullet in his hip, all the result of too much booze. The men had gone to Jens Rasmussen's place, a mile and a half west of Avoca, Sunday afternoon, where they proceeded to fill up and as a result became quarrelsome. About six o'clock as Steele was standing inside of the building Martin is said to have thrown rocks at him and refused to desist when told to do so. Steele, it is alleged, thereupon seized a rifle and fired upon Martin, the bullet entering his hip and lodging. Steele immediately went to Avoca and surrendered to Constable Bogard who in turn notified Sheriff Quinton and the latter left at once for Avoca and returned with his prisoner who is now in jail. The rifle used in the shooting was a 22, the property of Rasmussen.

Dr. Brendel, who was summoned to Martin's aid was unable to find the bullet and had the wounded man taken to a hospital at Omaha Monday morning. It is said that Steele and Martin were old time friends, coming to Nebraska from North Carolina five years ago and so far as could be learned no former trouble existed between the men. "Martin will not prosecute me," said Steele, when talking about his rash act with the sheriff. Whether or not Martin will feel like forgiving the man who shot him remains to be seen. In the meantime Steele will remain a guest of the county for some time.

To the Public.

I wish to thank the public for the liberal patronage, which greeted the opening night of the Majestic theatre, under my management. My desire is to make the Majestic a home theatre, and the money paid out for its maintenance will remain right here in Plattsmouth with the exception of that portion paid for film rental, the motion pictures will be of the very best possible to secure. My pianist and violinist are Plattsmouth girls (the Misses Mildred and Amy Cook,) and render music well worth hearing.

The stage is being enlarged sufficiently to admit of properly putting on song productions, sketches, etc., and these will be produced with home talent as far as possible.

Prof. Austin.

For Sale.

I have a first class 80 of Cass county land for sale at $100 per acre, for cash or half cash and balance to suit. 60 acres under cultivation; 20 acres pasture with some natural timber, and good spring. Good house and large barn and other buildings, well and cistern, 8 miles from Plattsmouth and 1-2 miles from Murray. The way land is advancing this 80 will be worth $110 before spring. John M. Leyda, 6t D & SW. Plattsmouth, Neb.

Public Reception.

There will be a public reception given to Rev. W. L. Austin, the new pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, and his family in Coates' hall next Friday afternoon, October 29, from 6 to 10 o'clock to which the public is cordially invited.

Hearing in County Court.

In county court a final hearing was had in the estate of August Stohlman. County Judge Beeson appointed Hiram F. Kunz administrator of the estate of Louis Gustin, Monday.

Mrs. R. E. Sheehan and son, Master Chester, who have been visiting with the former's parents, Postmaster and Mrs. C. H. Smith, departed Thursday for their home in Galesburg, Ill.

The Good Work Has Begun

Work on Street Lighting System is Being Pushed as Vigorously as Possible.

Work began on the street lighting system this morning and in all probably in ten days some of the lights will be in operation.

Main street and the boulevard will be lighted with 45 candle power gas lamps, while the residence portion will receive the benefit of sixty Tungston electric lights of 40 candle power each.

Efforts will be made on the part of the company to have the system completed and all lights in service by Christmas.

It seems that things have lived up around these diggings and at the rate Plattsmouth has been moving the past two weeks it will be a question of but a short time when there will be something doing in this berg all the time.

Laid to Rest

Mrs. Alexander Hunter, who accidentally shot herself with a rifle Wednesday night, passed away Sunday morning in Clarkson Memorial hospital in Omaha. The body was brought to this city Sunday evening and taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hiner on Day street, between 8th and 9th., where the funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon by Cannon H. B. Burgess. The pall bearers were her four brothers, William, Bert, Henry, Frank and her brothers-in-law, Claus Boetel and Harry Shipley of South Omaha. The deceased is survived by her husband and three children, Hazel, aged 5 years; Mary 3 years, and John, 3 months old. Interment was in Oak Hill cemetery beside one son.

Birthday Party.

Yesterday being Mrs. Menervia Johnson's 71st birthday anniversary quite a number of her friends called to help her celebrate the occasion. They laughed and talked about olden times and afterwards returned to the dining room where a table was laden with as many good things as the heart could wish, and they did ample justice, and at a late hour they returned home wishing Mrs. Johnson many more happy birthday anniversaries, and leaving her many nice presents. Those who attended were: Mrs. Michael Hild, Mrs. John Busche, Mrs. J. M. Young, Mrs. H. Steinhauer, Miss Sophia Hild, Miss Gladys Steinhauer and Mrs. Johnson.

Injured in Runaway.

Word was received in this Sunday that H. W. Lloyd, a prosperous farmer residing southwest of Union, was severely injured in a runaway Saturday evening. In company with Maplon Applegate he was driving a team, which became frightened at an auto. The team ran for some distance and in turning a corner the wagon was upset, throwing both out. Mr. Applegate, who is well known in this city, received a broken hip and was badly bruised and Mr. Lloyd received a painful injury in his arm.

First Organ in Cass County.

E. H. Wescott and George Hall carried the first organ that came to Plattsmouth more than fifty years ago to the Young Men's Bible class room in the basement of the First Methodist Episcopal church Saturday afternoon. The organ was presided over for several years by Conrad Schlater, both at the Sunday school and divine services. J. C. Coleman, who owned it for many years, gave it to the young men, just before his departure for his future home in Kansas City.

Voluntarily Increase Wages.

Brief mention was made in the Daily News, exclusively, last Saturday of an increase in wages from employees of the Burlington shops. The increase was one cent per hour, and dates back, as mentioned in the former item, to September 1st. In round figures the men receive in the aggregate about $40 per day increase. The advance was not demanded by the men, but was made voluntarily by the company and was in the nature of a welcome surprise to the beneficiaries.

Mrs. J. H. Teegarden, who has been visiting her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. C. H. Smith, departed today for her home in Brock, Neb., where her husband is station agent for the Burlington.

National W. C. T. U.

The National Women's Christian Temperance Union convention is in full blast in Omaha. Among those from here who attended and heard Mrs. Mary Harris Armour of Eastman, Ga., preach the annual convention sermon in the auditorium Sunday afternoon were, Mesdames B. C. Kerr, L. A. Moore and Lura Meredith.

Mrs. Armour has the reputation of speaking "like a house agre." Her style is that of the exhorter and her speed that of the lightning express. She spoke in this city about one year ago. Several times she swept her audience into applause at some telling shot against the liquor traffic, or elicited occasional laughter by a unique illustration or curious characterization.

Mrs. Armour styled the picture she drew of states falling one after another before the ribbon a vision given her by God, not a dream. She saw the first beginning in Nebraska, going from here to Missouri, then to New York and so on, one by one to the various states, finally ending in Washington with action by congress.

New Insurance Company.

A well attended meeting was held in the real estate office of J. E. Barwick Friday night. The object of the meeting was to interest Plattsmouth people in the organization of the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company of Nebraska. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Arthur Vernon, of Omaha, who talked insurance intelligently for an hour or more, creating a good impression in the minds of those present. The Commonwealth Insurance Company was chartered August 23, 1900, and the par value of the stock is placed at $20 per share. Mr. Vernon, assisted by Mr. Barwick, is meeting with good success, having placed a number of shares here.

A Social Event.

A pleasant social event occurred in the home of Mrs. J. W. Peters, occasion being in honor of her birthday anniversary. The time was most delightfully spent in music, games and social conversation. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Peter's hospitality were the Mesdames Charles Bell, Ward Clark, Mathew Joy, Solomon Adamson, George Born, B. G. Wurl, J. W. Bookmeyer, John Busche.

There was a moving picture show at the hall Saturday night, they carried their own electric plant with them and had a wagon fitted up supposed to cost 15 hundred dollars.

Shirley Barrett and Gordon formerly of this vicinity, but now of Kansas just returned from Alberta, Canada all bought land and will move up there in the spring. Mr. Gordon stopped off at Wabash for a few hours to visit with relatives.

Exit Drinking Cups.

One of the new things which may be seen in all the public school buildings in South Omaha is an automatic drinking fountain for the use of students. The fountain is so arranged that it will be impossible for one child to pass contagion from lip to lip as in the case of the old drinking cup. The cups carried in the children's desks are quite as apt to become unsanitary as the drinking cup used by all. The authorities are more than usually vigilant owing to the prevalence of diphtheria and the dangers of anterior poliomyelitis.

We are delighted to say that the automatic drinking fountains have been placed in the Plattsmouth public school buildings.
