Still Coming.

P. E. Jennings and family have arrived in this city to reside from Boone county, this state, and he has accepted a position in the local Burlington shops.

Granted a Divorce.

Lulu M. Leek was yesterday granted a divorce from Charles E. Binkley by District Judge Cornish. They were married at Plattsmouth in August 1908, and she informed the court that he had been guilty of cruelty and non-support. According to her testimony he refused to work and support her, though able physically to do. She also asserted that he had cursed and otherwise abused her. Her maiden name, Leek, was restored to her.—State Journal.

Didn't Know Her Name.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Ed Huffman, aged 20, and Lizzie Kline, aged 25, both of Plattsmouth, the consent of Mr. Huffman's father having been secured. When asked for the lady's name the blushing would-be head of a family acknowledged that he could not just remember what it was and he appealed to his father. Between the two after going over a number of names they finally located what they believed to be the right one. They were married this afternoon by Judge Archer.

Aged Lady Dies.

Mrs. H. B. Green, mother of Mrs. B. G. Hyde, died of asthma at the home of her son at Sydney, Ia. No arrangements have been made as yet for the funeral, but the body will probably receive interment at Sydney. Deceased came to Plattsmouth a few months ago. She was a member of the Presbyterian church at her former home and was a consistent christian throughout her life. She had suffered for a long period of time with the disease which finally caused her death.

Ladies Attention!

The ladies of Plattsmouth and vicinity will take notice that the millinery season is rapidly drawing to a close and our trimmer will not remain with us much longer; hence it will beto your advantage to get in for your needs in this line at the earliest possible moment in order that we may give you our best attention. We find ourselves heavily over stocked on swell trimmed hats and propose to cut prices to clean up before Thanksgiving. Of course our trimmer will remain with us as long as the necessity requires, and the matter is now wholly in your hands. Get in your order now and you will get the benefit of the services of our expert trimmer who is direct from the eastern markets. The Department Store, 21-2t M. Fanger, Prop.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson of Omaha spent last night in this city in an endeavor to secure a lecture for Walter Howe, the English lecturer and actor. She had previously secured a date in Lincoln and Omaha at $100 per lecture. The Shakespearean club here thought that was a little too expensive for a Plattsmouth audience, especially after adding $25 for the Parmele opera house.

TO introduce fine materials, clean methods, scientific equipment into the making of soda crackers was one triumph—

To actually bake into them a subtle goodness, a real individuality, never before known, was another triumph—

But to effectually protect them so that the fullest benefit of these fine materials, this careful, cleanly baking, this unique goodness comes to you unaltered, was the crowning triumph that gave the world
