MOB LAW IS AT AN END

Negro Murderer Is Hustled Away and Everything Quiet.

TROOPS IN CHARGE OF THE TOWN

Several Companies of State Militia Have the Desired Effect.

CAIRO, Ills., Nov. 13.—Alexander, who was reported to have been implicated in the murder of Moss Pelley, was sent north last night secretly to some point unknown by a special train on the Illinois Central railroad, and in company with two companies of the state militia was safely taken away.

With Alexander out of the way the town is quieting down somewhat and it is believed that there will be no further serious outbreaks. When Alexander was taken away a small crowd gathered and jeered him on the way, but no serious effort was made to secure him, as the presence of seven companies of the guard had the effect of keeping them back.

Two sets of furs were in advance of the prisoner, who was handcuffed and flanked by deputy sheriffs, and two sets of furs followed. As the Vandalia men swung north toward the railroad along Twentieth street, three companies cleared the street in advance of the escort and a like number followed in the rear, keeping back the crowds that were augmented at every street crossing of the half mile arch to the train.

GOVERNOR SHALLENBERGER WANTS NEW CAPITOL

Thinks State Legislature Should Make Appropriation.

LINCOLN, Nov. 11.—Gov. Shallenberger is seriously considering the matter of asking the next session of the legislature to appropriate $200,000 for a new state capitol building.

The governor with most all who are acquainted with the condition of the present building and the crowded offices feel that something should be done and very soon.

The east wing has been gradually sinking on the south side and it is but a question of time when those who have offices in that wing will have to move out.

Laid to Rest.

The funeral of James W. McDaniels was held yesterday at the Christian church in this city. Rev. Moore conducting the services, and the burial at Oak Hill cemetery.

Relatives present from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carrigan and son of Havelock, an aunt, Mrs. Daffenbaugh of Lincoln and an uncle, M. S. Currey of Valyrang, this state.

James W. McDaniels died in Lincoln at the St. Elizabeth hospital on November 9, 1909. He formerly lived in this city with his grandmother, Mrs. S. E. Carrigan, who had cared for him since he was three months old. For the past two years he had been with an uncle at Valyrang, McPherson county, this state. He was taken ill on November 1st and advised by physicians to go to a hospital which was done, where death came to his relief as stated above. He was born August 22, 1893, making him 16 years, 2 months and 17 days old at the time of his death.

Injured at Shops.

While working the round table at the Burlington shops last evening John Brady had two ear doors blown on him. Besides being badly bruised Mr. Brady had the little finger of his right hand so badly crushed that Dr. Livingston found it necessary to amputate the member between the first and second joints.

Robert A. Bates returned home from Kansas City Friday and reports that his wife is improving quite rapidly, but will not be able to come home for several weeks.

SENATOR WILLIAM R. PATRICK SCORES MAYOR JAMES DAHLMAN

"Never Misses an Opportunity to Slap Decency in the Face" so Says the Senator.

PATRICK AND THOMAS SEE THE GOVERNOR

Urged to Take Action to Fire the Mayor Out of Office For Failing to do His Duty.

LINCOLN, Nov. 13.—Elmer E. Thomas, ex-Senator W. R. Patrick and Judge Holmes, representing an anti-saloon league, called at noon on Governor Shallenberger and presented to him a petition asking him to direct the attorney general to begin quo warranto proceedings under the Sackett law to oust Mayor Jim Dahلمان and the members of the Omaha fire and police commission and Chief of Police John J. Donahue.

The complainants appear to be armed with testimony. At any rate they make a multiplicity of charges against various persons for violations of the law. It is charged that the daylight saloon law and the Gibson law relating to the sale of liquors at retail by brewers have been violated with impunity, that gambling is allowed and that 300 joints are in operation where bootlegging is conducted.

The complaint charges that T. J. O'Brien, licensee at the Henshaw, violated the daylight saloon law by selling beer in teacups at 9:20 p. m. It is charged that Rome Miller repeatedly violated the same law by selling liquors after hours in the Rome vineyard. The dates of alleged sales are given.

It is alleged that Lentz & Williams, T. J. Foley, J. J. Sullivan, W. E. Nestlehouse and Henry Sherman also violated the daylight saloon law. On October 9 it is charged that gambling was carried on at 1409 Douglas street.

Richard Berlin is charged with operating a faro game in the Windsor hotel.

Frank Sampson is said to have conducted a gambling room in the Murray hotel September 15. Rome Miller and O'Brien are charged with having sold liquors on election day, November 2.

The complaint sets forth that liquors are sold by women who operate dives. One of these houses is said to exist at Fourteenth and Jackson. Jeanette Williams, 613 South Fourteenth street, is named as another violator of the daylight saloon law. Liquors are alleged to have been sold illegally at 3113 South Eleventh, on Douglas street near Ninth, at the northeast corner of Eleventh and Douglas and 300 joints known as bootlegging places are in operation.

Morris Milder, alleged by the complaint to be a young politician, is charged with selling liquors illegally in the Kennard building, Fourteenth and Douglas, and that Milder is the newly elected assessor, and that he is a friend of Tom Dennison, whom the complainants say is a gambler and a politician.

Two clubs are listed. One is the Owl club, open only for "Owls" and the other is the young men's social club.

It is also alleged that the brewers violate the Gibson act and that notice of all these violations have been formally filed with the fire and police commission and that body has allowed the violations to continue. The governor is asked to direct the attorney general to begin quo warranto proceedings against the defendants.

"By his actions everywhere Mayor Dahلمان has never missed an opportunity to slap decency in the face," said Senator Patrick.—State Journal.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM UNDER DISCUSSION

The State Platform for 910 Discussed Very Fully.

LINCOLN, Nov. 11.—Mayor Jim Dahلمان came down from Omaha yesterday and in a joint convention consisting of himself, W. J. Bryan and Edgar Howard of the Columbus Telegram, discussed the platform for next year and other things of importance.

The conference was called by Mr. Bryan, but why Governor Shallenberger was not invited was not made public, though possibly that may not be necessary.

It is said that Mr. Bryan insisted that the democrats should put county option in their platform, but Dahلمان and Howard just as strongly insisted that it should be kept out.

Governor Shallenberger will insist upon standing upon his eight o'clock closing record, and does not care whether county option is in the platform or not.

Mr. Bryan announced after the conference that he would not be a candidate for the United States senate, unless conditions demand it. He said:

"I appreciate the compliments that have been paid me by the democrats tonight, but republicans in the legislature paid me a compliment even more flattering. They opposed the adoption of the Oregon plan on the ground that it was intended to elect me to the senate. By making the objection they virtually declared that I could be elected if the voice of the people would be made effective. I thank them for this certificate of my popularity but I need not tell my friends that I was actuated by higher motives than personal ambition in urging the passage of the measure.

"The principle is right and I am in favor of it, no matter what party or what person may get the benefit of it. If you will pardon the reference to my own plans I will tell you that I do not desire to occupy a seat in the senate. There are a number of men at this quiet board and others in the state who I would rather see elected than to be elected myself. I am in a position where I can go anywhere and find an audience. My election to the senate would not add to the number of democrats in public life. The election of some other democrat from Nebraska would add one more."

Since then utterances of friends of Governor Shallenberger indicate that he desires to make the race again for governor, mainly that he may secure a vindication of his policy in signing the daylight saloon bill. The common statement is that sentiment within the party will force him into this race rather than the senatorial one.

The scheme proposed is that the democrats espouse county option so as to have that plank as well as the republicans. This would eliminate that factor from the election and allow the democrats to center on national issues. It is fondly hoped, and believed, by many democrats that if Bryan and Shallenberger could head the ticket and the issue be made a national one the entire state, legislative and congressional tickets could be carried by them.

Handed a Bunch.

County Attorney Ramsey was handed a bunch yesterday in Judge Travis's court which he was not looking for. It was in the matter of Baylor vs. Butler. The case was called for hearing on motion to quash bill of exceptions. The court had previously issued a mandamus compelling Justice Patterson to settle bill of exceptions according to law. Under advice of County Attorney Ramsey he failed to obey orders of the court, hence the package which was handed to the c. a. The court informed Ramsey that all orders of the court must be obeyed. Without such obedience there would be no law or order and anarchy would be the result. He was given to understand that the court orders must be obeyed implicitly.

Chicken Pie Supper.

The annual chicken pie supper given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church Thursday evening in the basement of the church was the "best ever" in every way. Those in charge of the tables vied with each other to make their table the most beautiful. All were loud in praise of the coffee. At one time all of the tables were filled and the room was full of people patiently waiting to be served. Everybody had a good time and enjoyed a most excellent supper.

MOB RULE AT CARIO

Eleven Companies of State Troops Sent By Governor.

CAIRO, Ills., Nov. 12.—Froggy Williams after confessing the murder of Miss Annie Pelley, was taken from the jail last night and shot. He was riddled with bullets and then burned. Over one thousand men participated in the killing.

Henry Salzner, a white man who was also in the jail was also lynched.

Another colored man who was implicated in the confession of Williams, named William Alexander, escaped from the mob and was captured by the chief of police and spirited away before the mob could get hold of him.

An appeal was made to Gov. Dineen for assistance and eleven companies of the state troops were ordered at once to the scene. It is hoped that the sheriff will be able to hold the mob in check till the arrival of the troops which were expected to get here about 3:30 this morning.

The Loyal Sons.

At the home of Rev. Luther Moore Thursday evening the Loyal Sons, a class for the study of the Bible, held a meeting and besides transacting the regular routine business, elected the following named officers for the ensuing year: President, Richard Osborn; vice president, Ratio Taylor; secretary Oscar Wilson; treasurer, Jesse Perry; instructor, Rev. Luther Moore. A number of committees were appointed and it was decided to purchase new white suits trimmed in blue, to be worn by the members in serving meals and in playing base ball next summer.

Plead Guilty.

Vern Smith and Ainslee Wilson pleaded guilty to the charge of breaking into a Missouri Pacific bunk car and stealing. Judge Travis deferred passing sentence. The boys are not twenty years of age, and have been tramping the country for some time.

District Court.

The divorce case of Rayles against Rayles occupied the attention of Judge H. D. Travis in district court Friday and probably will tomorrow. The forenoon was spent in passing on motions and the first witness was not called until afternoon.
