

TRUTHFUL ADVERTISING THE BASIS OF SUCCESS.

since the Ingredients Entering Peruna Are Known, Its Power as a Catarrh Remedy and Tonic is Understood.

COLUMBUS, OHIO.—The active ingredients entering the most popular household remedy in the world have been made known to the public. This means a new era in the advertising of popular family medicines—Peruna leads.

Peruna contains among other things, golden seal, powerful in its effect upon the mucous membranes. Cedar seed, a rare medicine and unsurpassed tonic. Cubes, valuable in nasal catarrh and affections of the kidneys and bladder. Stone root, valuable for the nerves, mucous membranes as well as in dropsy and indigestion.

JUST SO.

"Your majesty, there's a creditor without."

"Let him go without."

Looking Brighter.

"Things are looking brighter now," says a Billville citizen. "The sheriff is now my brother-in-law, and he won't levy on my crop; the town doctor boards with me, and doesn't charge a cent for tellin' me that if I don't quit eatin' six meals a day I'll not live to be a hundred, and last of all, the head undertaker is my best friend, and has promised to fix me finally."

"I feel that I don't half deserve so many blessings, but I've got 'em and I'm going to hold on to them—" Atlanta Constitution.

She Could Not.

"With one wave of my wand," says the fairy, "I can make you grow young again."

"Excuse me," replied the woman, "if I decline your kind offer. If you can bring youth to me at my present age, all right; but I positively refuse to travel back through pyrography, the first stages of bridge, the habit back, the straight front, balloon sleeves, and all the rest of the fads I can remember."

A Motor Hint.

Miss Lillian Russell, who looks younger than her daughter, was talking about age at a dinner in New York. Miss Russell, who is always witty, ended with this mot:

"It is a sure sign of age in a woman when she begins to get out of her motor car backwards."

A Name That Names.

"Why does Penryn call his coming novel 'A Scrap Book'?"

"Because it is a story of a married life."

JOHN GETS BACK.

She stood there and glared at him. "And you mean to stand there and ask me to press your trousers?" she demanded with all the sternness she could muster.

"Why, certainly, my dear," responded Mr. Stubb, affably; "is that asking too much?"

"Well, I should say it is, John Henry Stubb. I'd have you know that when you married me you did not marry a sadiron."

That evening his turn came.

"John, dear," chirped Mrs. Stubb just after supper. "I wish you would do me a favor before you go. Button my waist up in the back, that's a good man."

But Mr. Stubb merely puffed his cigar and chuckled softly.

"How! Nay! Maria, I would have you know when you accepted me you did not say 'Yes' to a buttonhook."

And picking up his cane, he strode out.

Newspaper Enterprise.

"How did the Morning Bluster manage to get a picture of Dr. Cook in the act of planting the United States flag at the north pole?" asked a curious subscriber.

"How!" exclaimed the managing editor, vexed at the stupidity of such a question. "One of the two Examiners with Dr. Cook was a Bluster reporter in disguise. He took a snapshot."

No Proof.

"Excuse me, sir," said the art museum attendant, "but no dogs are admitted here."

"Well, I haven't had dog," rejoined the man who had just entered.

"But this dog followed you in," protested the attendant.

"So did you," rejoined the other, "but that is no proof of ownership."

CUPID'S GREEN-GOODS GAME.

DID YOU EVER NOTICE?

Did you ever notice the trouble she has? Of course you have, and so have I. In the crowded car where space is shy The trouble she has, ahem! ahem!

The trouble she has in crossing them? Did you ever notice the trouble she has? Of course you have, so have we all.

In the theater, where the aisles are small, The trouble she has, ahem! ahem!

The trouble she has in crossing them?

Did you ever notice the trouble she has? Of course I have, and so have you.

On Sunday in the plush-lined pew, The trouble she has, ahem! ahem!

The trouble she has in crossing them? —Puck.

THEY REALLY ARE.

"Do you believe women are really better than men?" she asked.

"I haven't any doubt of it. Where is there a man who would be willing to come in here and do my typewriting for $10 a week and at the same time take pains to make me forget that there is any such thing as trouble in the world?"

"Well, I haven't had dog," rejoined the man who had just entered.

"But this dog followed you in," protested the attendant.

"So did you," rejoined the other, "but that is no proof of ownership."

The World Moves.

Two aeronauts went speeding by With one another yelling;

But they were "glummed" by aero cops And fined for reckless flying.

Preposterous.

"I see that most of the human hair used in this country for rats and puffs comes from China."

"Where in the world do they get it in China?"

"Off the heads of the Chinese, of course."

"Human hair off the heads of Chinamen? You make me laugh!"

A Failure.

"There isn't enough analogy in the English language," proclaimed the bright young student. "If we say 'male and female' to distinguish sex, why not say 'lion and felion, too'?"

"Wouldn't distinguish," replied the practical professor, "considering both are felines."

A Strong Attachment.

Jinks—I called on your friend, Miss Sweetlips, last night, and could hardly tear myself away.

Miss Charming—Was she so delightful as that?

Jinks—Oh, it wasn't she I had to tear myself away from; it was the big dog.

A New Danger.

"I was fined a hundred dollars and costs this morning," said the owner of the aeroplane, sadly.

"What for?" queried his friend.

"My chauffeur lost control of the machine and it bumped into and smashed some fellow's air castle," answered the high flyer.

ON STANLEY, ON.

New Arrival—But why is the phonograph in the dining room playing that selection called "The Grand Charge?"

Landlord—Sh! The guests are coming in to dinner.

Hardly Cordial.

"To-morrow never comes, they say," sentimentally said Vose.

"Then dine with me to-morrow, pray," came quick from Mr. Close.

Made His Reputation.

Harker—That fellow Bilkins is an enthusiast, isn't he?

Parker—That's what! You know he likes to speak of himself as a sportsman?

Harker—Yes.

Parker—Well, the only thing he ever did in that line was to go on a wild goose chase three years ago.

In the Right Spot.

"That poor young man told a very affecting story of his misfortunes Didn't he touch you?"

"Yes, madam, he did. For $10."

A Black Record.

"There goes a man of low life and dark deeds."

"Mercy on us! What does he do?"

"Cleans cellars and shovels in coal."

Not Then.

"A man always gets mad when he finds the line busy."

"Not when he's fishing."

Strabismus.

"Father, is the goddess of reform star-eyed?"

"No, my son. She's cross-eyed."

A LITTLE COLD.

He caught a little cold—

That was all.

So the neighbors sadly said,

As they gathered round his bed,

When they heard that he was dead.

He caught a little cold—

That was all. (Puck.)

Neglect of a cough or cold often leads to serious trouble. To break up a cold in twenty-four hours and cure any cough that is curable mix two ounces of Glycerine, a half-ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure and eight ounces of pure Whisky. Take a teaspoonful every four hours. You can buy these at any good drug store and easily mix them in a large bottle.

Make Sure Pair Was There.

A through train stopped a few moments at a small station the other day. A passenger got off to walk around a little. As the train began to move again the passenger jumped aboard, but just then he discovered that he had but one overshoe.

Thinking that he dropped the other somewhere on the platform, and as the train was going too fast for him to jump off and recover it, he pulled off the remaining shoe and threw it on the platform, exclaiming: "There, that makes a good pair of overshoes for somebody."

Entering the car, he proceeded to his seat. There, to his great astonishment, was his overshoe.

A look of intense disgust came over his face, but he did not hesitate.

Quickly picking up the lone arctic, he hurried to the platform, threw the shoe as far as he could back toward the other one, and shouted: "By Jimmyni, there is a pair of overshoes for somebody!"

As to the Hessian Fly.

The Hessian fly is a German product which was conceived in iniquity and born in sauerkraut. It is a long, rangy fly with a bite like a steel trap, and it lays a pale blue, oblong egg at the rate of 30,000 an hour. The Hessian fly will eat anything from decayed custard pie to a glass inkwell, but its favorite dish is the double neck of a fat gent. This bird can perform a two-step on sticky fly paper without crooking its toes, and is proof against rough on rats, the daisy fly killer, and a strichnine hypodermic. No Hessian fly was ever known to die of anything but old age, which accounts for the color of its whiskers. If it ever fastens upon your jowl, it will stay until removed by the undertaker.—Manchester (Ja.) Press.

Sing Sing to Be Removed.
