

We certainly feel proud of the appearance of the Plattsmouth Daily News since they have installed their new type machine. Not only that but it is a mighty well edited paper and Editor Barrows is apparently getting the support in a measure that he deserves. The republican party needed a good newspaper in Plattsmouth and there is one there now who can tell the truth and still be an influential factor in the community.—Weeping Water Republican.

He Has the Time Now.

Clerk of the District Court Robertson is a happy man today, in fact he has been happy since last night. For some time past Mr. Robertson has been annoyed because he was unable to give the time of day to callers at his office and he has frequently been put to the trouble of going to some other office to get the time. Taking advantage of a meeting of the board of county commissioners he went before that body with a request that a time piece of some kind be provided at the clerk's office. The county board expressed great sympathy for the genial clerk and really felt that he was suffering for a lack of time. So great was their sympathy that they went at once into executive session and the result of their deliberations was a subscription paper which was generally signed by the members and other officials and a time piece was purchased. Immediately after the district court had adjourned a body of men consisting of the commissioners and the other contributors to the time fund, headed by Judge Pemberton, filed into the clerk's office and informed Mr. Robertson that it had come to their knowledge that his office was not working "on time" and knowing that he was so particular in that respect they had decided to purchase for his use a time piece which it was hoped would be to him a remembrance that he was not forgotten by his other official friends who desired that his every want should be promptly provided for. It gave them great pleasure to present to him a means whereby at all times he would know when to go to his meals and at the same time when he looked it in the face he would recall one of the happiest moments of his official life. Judge Pemberton made the presentation speech in his most happy vein and the emotion of Mr. Robertson was most pathetic to witness. As the judge concluded his speech he stepped forward and "handed the clerk a package." For a few moments Mr. Robertson was too overcome to reply, but finally he arose to the occasion and spoke eloquently of the pleasure he felt. Then he removed the wrappings and disclosed to view a handsome "Ingersol watch." Tableau and then some. However, Mr. Robertson is wearing proudly his new timepiece, and looks as though he was happy.

Final Settlement.

In the matter of the estate of James C. White, deceased, final settlement was made this morning. The amount received by the executor was $17,525.00. The amount paid out was $3,747.03. For distribution among the four heirs will be $13,778.57.

AUBURN COUPLE HAPPILY WEDDED

Bride is Daughter of H. Norton of this City.

The following from the Brock Bulletin will be of interest to Plattsmouth people because of the fact that the bride is the daughter of Mr. H. Norton, agent of the Missouri Pacific Railway at this place:

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norton, in Talmage, at 9:30 a. m., Wednesday, occurred the wedding of Fred G. Hawxby and Miss Pearl Norton, both of Auburn.

The ceremony was performed by Elder Harris and the bride and groom were attended by Miss Gertrude Robertson and Elmer Dovel. Immediately after the wedding breakfast which followed the ceremony, the bridal couple drove to Julian and boarded the train for Kansas City at St. Louis to spend their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends in Auburn after January 1.

The bride is the daughter of H. Norton, formerly of Brock, and was reared in this village where she was very popular and has a host of warm friends. The groom is the junior member of the firm of Stull & Hawxly and is one of the leading attorneys of southeast Nebraska.

Uncle Tom Was Injured.

Thomas Kennish, called by his best friends "Uncle Tom," was injured this morning but, we are glad to state, not seriously.

Of late he has been driving a team for the Dovey store. This morning he had backed his team up to the rear door of the store, the wagon being heavily loaded. One of the mules got frisky and proceeded to hold the reins with his tail. Mr. Kennish reached forward to sooth them and about that time the contrary animals took a notion to run. The sudden start threw the driver forward onto the ground and one of the wheels passed over his foot. Mr. Kennish was picked up and carried into the store and later taken home where upon examination it was found that no serious injury had resulted from the mishap. The thick mud into which Mr. Kennish fell evidently saved him.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES.

Louisville Courier.
General Manager Pollock of the Independent Telephone Company, was a business visitor in town Tuesday.

J. W. Kinnison was agreeably surprised at his home Saturday by a party of friends, it being his 37th birthday. An enjoyable time was spent and Mr. Kinnison was the recipient of a lovely oak rocker. Refreshments were served and at a late hour they returned wishing him many more happy birthdays.

In our report of the vote of Louisville precinct in last week's issue of the Courier an error crept in, giving the vote received by Commissioner M. L. Friedrich as 95 when it should have been 95. Mr. Friedrich was elected for a second term, after one of the hardest fights of the campaign, his opponent, G. P. Meisinger, being very popular.

Files Two Petitions.

In the matter of the estate of Dr. Edward T. Rickard, deceased, Mrs. Lydia M. Rickard, the widow, has made application for appointment of herself as administratrix. Mrs. Rickard has also petitioned the court for the appointment of herself as guardian of her two children. This is made necessary owing to the fact that Dr. Rickard had left life insurance payable to the children, Elmer, aged 10 years, and Edward T., aged 3 months.

THE TURNIP CROP IS NOW ASSURED

Sixteen Year Old Lassie Elopes With Mr. Turnipseed.

OMAHA, Nov. 18.—Little Ruth Spencer, a pretty sixteen year old lassie from Rising City, this state, in company with a young man by the name of Thomas Turnipseed appeared before Judge Leslie and were made man and wife according to the rules laid down and provided.

Little Mrs. Turnipseed had the consent of her father who accompanied the couple. They first tried to get married at Council Bluffs, but the magistrate there would not grant them a license. Mr. Turnipseed's home is in Washington, Iowa, and they will probably return to that place ultimately, although Mr. Turnipseed has been working at Norfolk.

MEN GO DOWN TO INVESTIGATE

Lowered in Mine at Cherry, Ills., But Driven Back.

CHERRY, Ills., Nov. 18.—Two brave men, unable to stand the uncertainty as to the conditions existing at the mine in which are buried 300 of their fellow workers, volunteered to go down and were lowered into the depths of the earth yesterday.

They were unable to go farther than about 300 feet, but reported that the fire seemed to be abating and it is hoped that in a short time investigation can be made. The men were utterly exhausted when they were hauled to the top.

PROMINENT MAN EXPIRES SUDDENLY

Charles M. Rigg, Well Known in Nebraska, Is Dead.

BEATRICE, Nov. 18.—Charles M. Rigg, well known all over this section of the state and a former Nebraskan who took much interest in politics, is dead at Julesburg, Colo., according to word received here yesterday. He was traveling for the Beatrice Creamery Company at the time of his death and lived in Lincoln.

DEAD MAN FOUND IN CORN FIELD

While Hunting Rabbits Hunter Finds Body Near Emerson.

EMERSON, Neb., Nov. 19.—The body of a man was found in a cornfield near this place yesterday by Mr. Hennington who was out hunting rabbits. He was found in a natural position with his coat under his head and a small sum of money with a pass book on the First National Bank of this place was found in his pockets.

The book had the name of Ed Hanlin written in it, but the bank officials were unable to identify him in any way. The book showed that there were $75 on deposit at the bank. The coroner has taken charge of the body and will investigate the matter.

SEVERE SNOW STORM IN CUSTER COUNTY

One of the Most Severe for Years and Drifts 20 Feet Deep.

BROKEN BOW, Nov. 19.—Roads leading into this city have been blocked for several days on account of the huge drifts of snow which have been piled up by the storm and wind. Some of the drifts are twenty feet high. The roads are now quite well opened and in a day or so traffic in and out of the city will be resumed again in a natural manner.

Owens Ranch.

A. P. Kiser of Sundance, Wyo., who came to Nebraska with his parents in 1850 and settled near Nebraska City on a farm, but now resides on his large ranch, departed for his home Thursday. He had been visiting his old friend, A. M. Franks, and has about concluded to dispose of his stock ranch and return to Cass county to reside.

Erroneous Report.

A representative of the Loose-Wiles Cracker and Candy Co., of Kansas City, was in the city Friday calling on the trade. He says that the report that he is looking for a location to establish a branch house is not so, but it he was he would not look any further than Plattsmouth.

MINSTRELS MAKE HIT AT COATES HALL

Attend Bazar Tonight or You will Miss Something.

Once more have the ladies of St. Mary's Guild demonstrated that they usually make a success of anything they undertake. The bazar given last night and which will be repeated tonight was well attended and the receipts were something like $170.

Coates hall which is being used for the event was beautifully decorated and the booths were filled with articles consisting of fancy needlework and other things of a nature to appeal to the shopper. As the News man viewed the pretty scene Wednesday afternoon his attention was first attracted to the Maidenhood booth, which was in the form of a garden party, with the wall covered with poppies. At this booth were served coffee, baked beans and brown bread. Next came Girlhood. This booth was built with a number of nets, and oyster stew was served, also lovely rich cakes, pies fruits, salads and "sich." Near by was Childhood, built in the shape of a ginger bread house, presided over by children who sold ice cream, popcorn and candy. One of their great drawing cards was a grab bag. The Infancy booth was built in the shape of a large cradle in red, white and blue. Here they sold everything to delight the little mother's heart. The Matrons booth, where all kinds of aprons and fancy work were on sale, was liberally patronized. Adjoining was a booth built in the shape of a porch party for old age. The decorations were conceived by Mrs. H. S. Austin and carried out under her personal supervision.

Then came the MINSTRELS—what are we going to say about them. We laughed so much last night that, honestly, when we start to write our impressions our old head is filled with merry thoughts and our heart with laughter and it is almost impossible for us to sober up long enough to do the job justice. Any way, here is the line-up:

Interlocutor—Mes. H. S. Austin as Miss Fillis Filena Funny Face.

Bones—Gretchen Donnelly as Miss Dina Do Little and Miss Gladys Sullivan as Miss Pansy Heartbreaker.

Tambos—Florence Dovey and Bernice Newell.

Minstrelmen—Helen Kline as Miss Sweetie Spellbinder, Edna Patterson as Betsy Belinda Butter Ball, Mollie Seivers as Miss Nancy Nimblefoot, Dorothy Britt and Verna Hatt.

The soloists were Gladys Sullivan, Helen Kline, Gretchen Donnelly, Edna Peterson and Mrs. H. S. Austin.

The dancer was Mollie Seivers and the accompanist Ione Dovey

The troupe of trained artists were under the direction of Mrs. H. S. Austin.

The large crowd which gathered to see the minstrels expected to be entertained, but it was totally unprepared for the appearance of the black face artists when they made their appearance upon the stage and therefore the burst of applause following was spontaneous and hearty. The specialty stunts by Misses Kline, Sullivan, Peterson, Donnelly, Seivers and Mrs. Austin were ridiculously funny and each artist received all that was coming to them in the way of handclapping. One feature not down on the bills happened when two of the beautiful colored "gentlemen" appeared wearing whiskers which simply wouldn't stay on. It is no use, girls, you will have to wear whiskers by proxy.

We want to compliment the entire company upon their efforts, and Mrs. Austin upon her success in bringing her troupe to such a state of proficiency. The show will be repeated twice tonight.

Montana Exhibit Coming.

A special Great Northern railway car of exhibits from the Milk River valley of Montana is now touring Nebraska and will be here on December 5. All are invited to see what President James J. Hill of the Great Northern pronounces one of the most wonderful exhibits of agricultural products that has been raised or seen in the West. This exhibit created a sensation at the recent Dry Farming congress at Billings, Mont., where President Hill made one of his remarkable addresses. A limited number of copies of this address are carried on the car and a copy may be had upon request.

Handkerchief Shower.

Miss Gretchen Donnelly gave a delightful handkerchief shower this afternoon in honor of Miss Lena Fricke. Bridge was the chief source of amusement. A delightful two-course luncheon was served. Those present were the Mesdames T. P. Livingston, A. E. Gass, Carl Fricke, George Falter, Rea F. Patterson, and the Misses Frances Lee Hatch, Claire and Florence Dovey, Lucetta Patterson, Omaha; Minnie Guthman and Dora and Lena Fricke.

They Saw the Scrap.

The English-Fitzgerald prize fight in Omaha last night which went ten rounds to a draw was witnessed by Messrs. Thos. Bates, Dr. Elster, Matt Gering and Cloyd Shumaker.

They Like His Herd.

H. H. Teich and E. T. Teich from Sheridan, Wyoming, were in the city today and went out to see the herd of Red Polled cattle which are owned by W. H. Hile. Mr. Hile will have a sale of his stock some time in the near future and the gentlemen were so well pleased with the herd that they are coming back at the time of the sale and make a bid for the whole herd. They say that it is the best bunch of cattle they have ever seen.

Mrs. Henrichsen Entertains.

Mrs. William Henrichsen most delightfully entertained the Kensington club at her home on North Third street from 2 till 5 o'clock and was thoroughly enjoyed. Games of various kinds and vocal and instrumental music quickly whiled away the hours. A splendid dinner was served. Those who were fortunate enough to be present were the Mesdames Fred Renzer, Andrew Kroehler, Olga Croskary, John Lutz, George Bruhl and Flora Waddick.

Acknowledge the Benefit

Plattsmouth Has to Bow to the Enevitabile—Scores of Citizens Proves it.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Plattsmouth, given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

J. W. Hickson, Oak Street, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I will never cease to praise Doan's Kidney Pills, as they were of such great benefit to me several years ago. My kidneys and back were a source of constant suffering and I was subject to attacks of lumbago that came on without the least warning. The simplest movement was painful and I was annoyed more or less by the irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills, that I finally procured a box from Gering & Co.'s drug store. I was so gratified with the results of their use that I publicly endorsed them in 1906 and at this time, I heartily renew that statement. I hope that other kidney sufferers will profit by my experience."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 60-4
