

HE WAS SO VERY EASY

Marries a Woman He Never Saw and Wishes He Hadn't.

NOW ASKS COURT TO SET HIM FREE

Experience of Man who went to Spokane to see the Town.

SPOKANE, Nov. 22.—Married to a woman he never saw before nor since the ceremony was performed in the parlor of a hotel in Seattle on Nov. 1, is the strange experience of F. M. Stipp, a widower living at North Yakima, Wash., who sought to file an action for divorce in the superior court of Yakima county. The complaint was not filed for the reason that Stipp had no counsel and the prosecuting attorney would not order the clerk of court to put it on record. Stipp alleges that he does not know the name of his wife, also disclaiming having acquiesced in the proceedings. He says the ceremony was performed while he was seated in the hotel parlor reading. Three men and a woman entered the parlor and went through a marriage ceremony, in which he was made the bridegroom. The party left the room soon afterward and he has not seen the men or woman since, but fears an ulterior motive in the action of the strange quartet. Stipp's wife died 20 years ago, and, he declared, he has no desire to marry a second time, but if he does he wants to know something about his wife, at least to become familiar with her name.

Attend Funeral.

W. A. and Albert Leesley and Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Laughlin arrived from Greenwood and attended the funeral services of Captain McPherson Monday.

Reticence in Trouble.

Rev. W. L. Austin was greeted by an unusually large congregation Sunday morning in the First Methodist Episcopal church. There being no service in the Presbyterian church many members of that denomination availed themselves of the privilege of being present, were cordially welcomed, and with the others had the pleasure of listening to a very able, instructive and interesting sermon on the theme of "Reticence in Trouble." The speaker admonished all to not unnecessarily parade their troubles before others, but to tell their sorrows and trials to God only, and urged them to get right with Him.

The large choir under the able leadership of Mrs. E. H. Wescott furnished excellent music, and sang an anthem. Mrs. Wescott also sang a solo very sweetly, while her husband presided at the organ with a master's hand.

Sealed Bids.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Board of County Commissioners of Cass county, Nebraska for bonds for the several officers of said county, said bids to be submitted before 9 o'clock in the morning of December 7th, 1909. The amount of the bonds for the several officers may be learned by applying at the office of the county clerk.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

M. L. Freidrich, Chairman Co. Board of Com's. Dated at Plattsmouth, Neb., Nov. 23, 1909.

Verdict For $550.

The jury in the damage case of Herold vs. Coates brought in a verdict Saturday night in favor of Herold for $550. The case was bitterly fought from start to finish and it is reported that the verdict does not suit either party to the controversy and both may take an appeal although, as yet, no move has been made.

Thanksgiving Services.

The annual union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church in this city Thursday at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Luther Moore, pastor of the Christian church, will preach the sermon. As this will be a union service of all denominations, it is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

BROKEN BOW OFFICER SHOOT AT THIEF

Dodges a Few Bullets Himself But Thinks He Hit Man.

BROKEN BOW, Nov. 22.—To the music of singing bullets a stranger who was supposed to be a thief, rushed down the street and boarded a train that was pulling out for Grand Island and got away Saturday night.

Marshal Draper had received notice only a few moments before over the phone to look out for a man who answered the description of the stranger who had stolen an overcoat and some other valuables at Grand Island and was liable to show up at Broken Bow. When the man noticed the marshal watching him he lit out and when the officer took after him he turned and fired, just missing the marshal's head. Draper fired at him in return, and again as he passed beneath a street light, and thinks that he hit him. The missing goods were found later at a hotel where the man had registered under the name of James. No trace of him has since been found.

Acknowledge the Benefit

Plattsmouth Has to Bow to the Enevitabl—Scores of Citizens Prove it.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Plattsmouth, given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this: J. W. Hickson, Oak Street, Plattsmouth, Nebr., says: "I will never cease to praise Doan's Kidney Pills, as they were of such great benefit to me several years ago. My kidneys and back were a source of constant suffering and I was subject to attacks of lumbago that came on without the least warning. The simplest movement was painful and I was annoyed more or less by the irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills, that I finally procured a box from Gering & Co.'s drug store. I was so gratified with the results of their use that I publicly endorsed them in 1906 and at this time, I heartily renew that statement. I hope that other kidney sufferers will profit by my experience."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
