

There will be no issue of this paper on Thanksgiving Day. The office force most of them have been feasting on imaginary turkey, goose, duck, etc., for several days, and for that reason the editor believes that they should be given a chance to partake of those things without the thought of going to work afterwards. After a fellow has filled up on Thanksgiving things he isn't worth a rap any how so it is just as well to knock off and feel uncomfortable.

There used to be a time when the democrats raised a big howl because the republicans had more money to spend than they did and pointed out this fact to show that the use of money in the elections was not right. But during the past election it has been shown that the democrats of the state of Nebraska used more money than did the republicans, and right here in Cass county the amount of money used by the democrats was far in excess of that used by the republicans.

The Journal recites a case of a gentleman who paid $15 for an overcoat two years ago and then a few days ago bought another one just like it for $20. Tariff. That is nothing. Under a democratic administration we didn't have money enough to buy an overcoat, but under a republican administration we own two overcoats and another which we loaned a democrat two years ago and he never returned it. More tariff.

The Nebraska State Capital publishes an advertisement this week saying "The first picture is that of a telephone girl built of steel," and then follows the picture of a mighty pretty telephone girl who to look at looks to be the real thing and no cold steel about her. Either the editor of the Capital has gone blind or else is too old to tell the difference between a pretty girl and a piece of pig iron.

It may look like small business for Uncle Sam to jump onto that small country down in South America and force it to be good, but some times these little fellows take advantage of the fact that they are small to swell up and seem like somebody. It will do a whole lot of good for Uncle Samuel to take yelaya over his knee and administer the strap.

We have seen nothing in the state house reports that that little debt of $22,000 had yet been liquidated. Hope, however, that it is not growing for it would be very discouraging after the republicans have paid off the old debt that had been standing for many years to have the democrats come in and start another one.

President Taft was presented with a sixty pound turkey, a fifty pound mince pie and a twenty pound possum for his Thanksgiving dinner yesterday. We trust that he had enough of the other fixings that are usually found on a Thanksgiving table so he would be able to make out a good meal and not have to go hungry to bed.

WILL YOU HELP?

Just a few words with you, people of Plattsmouth. The publishers of the Daily News are attempting to publish a newspaper in which all the people will feel an interest. They are attempting to publish a newspaper to which all may point with pride. To do so requires strenuous efforts on our part, and still we feel that we are falling short of the object which object it is necessary for the residents of the city to co-operate with us insofar as sending in the little happenings in their homes or such items of news as may come under their observation. We want you to call us up over the phone (both phones No. 85) and tell us. Don't get it into your head that we will think that you are trying to break into print for such will not be the case. On the contrary we will consider ourselves under lasting obligations to you for your courtesy. If you will comply with our request we can assure you a much better paper and one in which you will take more than an indifferent interest. Will you help?

Wabash Notes.

Arthur Braun, who has been gone since last spring, being in the employ of a railroad company at Alliance, came in last Thursday for a visit with his parents.

Three inches more snow fell Sunday night, preceded by rain.

Charley Hulfish is home making a visit with his parents.

Our local ninnyards are shooting lots of ducks lately.

Misses Mabel and Abbie VanEvery were Lincoln passengers Saturday.

O. O. Thomas was in Wabash last week looking after his business interests.

The Baptist ladies met at the home of Mrs. George Colbert last Saturday to sew for the bazar.

Charles Braun was in Omaha one day last week buying goods. He seems to be doing a good business.

Charles Clapp had charge of the Farmers' elevator last week in the absence of Mr. Gerbeling who was in attendance at a convention of implement dealers at Peoria, Ills.

Josie, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilson, had the misfortune one day last week to break her limb between the knee and thigh. Dr. Munger who was in town at the time set the limb and she is getting along as well as could be expected.

BASE BALL BREVITIES.

The Game as It Is Being Played Around the Base Burner.

Dick Cooley has issued a denial of the story that he will sell the Topoka club.

There is every likelihood that there will soon be a general shakeup in the personnel of the Denver base ball team.

Owen Bush is just as popular in Cuba as he is in the United States. He has the natives pop-eyed with his fine fielding, and the Cubans are some fielders themselves.

On one of the Cuban teams the Detroit-almost-champions are playing is a Cuban who got two three-beggars and a double in one game recently. They call him the Havana rapper.

Christy Mathewson and Rube Waddell have been picking up considerable easy money by pitching against each other on independent teams around El Paso and other Texas towns. Honors have been fairly even in the games in which the two stars have hooked up.

Miss Daisy Hoover, said to have been the best professional second base woman among women base ball players in the United States, was buried in the potter's field in Kansas City a few days ago. She died in destitute circumstances at the city hospital there. For years Miss Hoover was connected with the Boston Bloomer Girls. Last year she played through the east with the Star Bloomer Girls.

Bill Rourke of Omaha is one of the self-made men of the base ball game. Ten years ago Bill went to Omaha with $3.25 in his pocket and no return ticket. He borrowed $250 and went to work as manager of the Omaha club. Today he is worth $150,000, owns a 1,600-acre farm, a large interest in a canning factory, a base ball club that is prosperous, and has money in the bank besides. He gained his success by hard work and strict attention to business.

"Ty" Cobb had a narrow escape from serious injury at Atlanta a few days ago, when his automobile was crushed into and partially wrecked by another car. Both men were returning from the new automobile speedway, and had reached the crest of a hill just before entering the city. When Cobb yelled to the other driver as he dashed past. The latter set out in pursuit, and in attempting to go between Cobb's machine and a street car, swerved and struck Cobb's car with terrific force. Only presence of mind saved both drivers.

MARSHALL T. HARRISON HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Encounter With Swine Nearly Proves Serious for Ex-Representative.

MISSOURI "RAIL SPLITTER" TAKES FIRST FALL

Downs the Ex-Representative After a half Hour Chase About Enclosure.

The following from Nebraska City will be interesting to readers of the Daily News and we publish it in full: "Marshall T. Harrison, who served in the legislature as a representative between Cass and Otoe counties, and who is one of the largest stock raisers and farmers of this county and who resides near Dunbar, had a thrilling experience a few days since, which he will never forget and which he came near losing his life. He purchased several cars of hogs down in Missouri some month ago which to fatten and put on the market and one of the "rail splitters," a sow, got out of the pen and made her escape into a corn field where she was allowed to remain for about six weeks. Mr. Harrison finally concluded to go out and try and locate the missing animal. Because of the recent rains and wet spells the ground was very soft and every step he sunk into the earth from four to six inches. He located the sow near the center of the field and no sooner had she spied him than she started at him at full speed. He ran for a short distance and fell down, but managed to get to his feet before the animal reached him. He was chased about the field for nearly a half an hour, but could not get near the fence to get out of her reach and feeling that he was giving out side stepped as the wild animal made for him and fell on his back and held fast. They sank into the mud and he was afraid to loosen his hold knowing that she would attack and perhaps kill him. He held fast and yelled for help, but no answer came, and his cry for help kept up for over two hours, when it attracted the attention of George Holmes, a farmer residing a mile and a half away. He went to investigate and rescued Mr. Harrison after tying the hog with a halter which he carried. Mr. Harrison was confined to his bed for some days."

FOOT BALL FATALITY

Another Victim of the Great Game Added to the List.

WAS NOT KILLED BUCKING THE LINE

Could Not Attend Game and Hung Himself to Bed Post.

DES MOINES, Nov. 27.—The game of foot ball claimed another victim Thanksgiving day, but not in the usual way. Harold Perkins, a sixteen year old lad, asked his aunt if he could attend the Drake-Ames foot ball game and was refused. He went to the piano and played a few minutes, then arose and went to his room. Half an hour later he was found by a younger brother hanging to the bed post with his neck broken. It is supposed that he wished to alarm his aunt, and that he had no intention of killing himself, supposing that he would be found before any serious harm had come to him. His neck was probably broken by the fall.

Eating an Apple.

"Do you know what you're eating," said the doctor to the girl. "An apple, of course." "You are eating," said the doctor, "albumen, sugar, gum, malic acid, gallic acid, fiber, water and phosphorus."

"I hope those things are good. They sound alarming." "Nothing could be better. You ate, I observed, rather too much meat at dinner. The malic acid of apples neutralizes the excess of chalky matter caused by too much meat, and thereby helps to keep you young. Apples are good for your complexion; their acids drive out the noxious matters which cause eruptions. They are good for your brain, which those same noxious matters, if retained, render sluggish. Moreover, the acids of the apple diminish the acidity of the stomach that comes with some forms of indigestion. The phosphorus, of which apples contain a larger percentage than any other fruit or vegetable, renews the essential nervous matter of the brain and spinal column. Oh, the ancients were not wrong when they esteemed the apple the food of the gods—the magis renewer of youth to which the gods resorted when they felt themselves growing old and feeble. I think I'll have an apple," concluded the doctor.—New York Tribune.

I. F. Travis Sick.

Judge H. D. Travis has been holding night sessions in district court in Beatrice so that he would be able to eat turkey with his family in this city. His brother, I. F. Travis, is very sick in the Wise Memorial hospital in Omaha and the judge visited his brother there last evening, but returned to Beatrice to finish up a case there. He hopes to be able to return home this evening as district court was adjourned here until Saturday morning.

VALETINE MURDER

Street Fight in which One Man is Shot and Killed.

MURDERER SURRENDERS TO THE SHERIFF

Climax of Week's Quarrel Between Members of a Bridge Gang.

VALETINE, Neb., Nov. 24.—Last night about six o'clock Charles McArthur, a young man employed on the bridge gang of the Northwestern railroad, was killed by a comrade, Edward Bell.

The two men had been quarreling for more than a week and Bell had been carrying a revolver most of the time. Yesterday the quarrel was renewed after the two men reached town and McArthur went to a hardware store and purchased a revolver. Bell claims to have shot in self defense and gave himself up to the sheriff immediately after the shooting.

No one seems to know at this time just who was the first man to draw his gun. The coroner's inquest will probably bring out the facts in the case.

Surprise Party.

The Loyal Sons' quartet of the Christian church and about forty of their friends chartered carryalls Thursday evening and went to the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Livingston, on the old Perry Walker farm, and completely surprised that family: Music and games rapidly whiled away the hours. A fine supper was enjoyed.

Mrs. Eliza Schultze Dead.

Mrs. Eliza Schultze passed away at the home of her son, Nathan, in this city Saturday morning at 7:40, aged 62 years, of pneumonia. Her husband preceded her two weeks. The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Canon H. B. Burgess will conduct the services.

Miss Eliza Culbertson was born in Toulon, Ills., April 1, 1847, and was married in the same town in 1864. She is survived by four children, Mrs. Nellie Hennessey, Missouri Valley, Ia.; C. W. York; A. A. Omaha, and Nathan in this city.

Still Grinding.

Judge H. D. Travis is still busy in listening to the evidence in the celebrated Chamberlain case, in which he is charged with receiving deposits in the bank after it became insolvent, and the case will probably not be completed in district court in Beatrice before the middle of next week. The case was previously tried before Judge Raper and was remanded, then tried before Judge Pemberton and the jury disagreed. District court in this city has been adjourned until Dec. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ellege, who have been visiting the former's mother, Mrs. J. B. Higley, departed Saturday for their home in Council Bluffs.

Plattsmouth Has to Bow to the Eminent—Scores of Citizens Proves it.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Plattsmouth, given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:
J. W. Hickson, Oak Street, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I will never cease to praise Doan's Kidney Pills, as they were of such great benefit to me several years ago. My kidneys and back were a source of constant suffering and I was subject to attacks of lumbago that came on without the least warning. The simplest movement was painful and I was annoyed more or less by the irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills, that I finally procured a box from Gering & Co.'s drug store. I was so gratified with the results of their use that I publicly endorsed them in 1906 and at this time, I heartily renew that statement. I hope that other kidney sufferers will profit by my experience."
