

GOVERNOR MAY CALL EXTRA SESSION LEGISLATURE

Failure of Last Session to Enact Laws reason urged upon Executive.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN URGES SUCH ACTION.

Initiative and Referendum Laws Urged which were Defeated last Winter.

LINCOLN, Dec. 1.—W. J. Bryan is urging upon the governor of the state that to call an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of passing laws which the last legislature either failed to consider, or after considering failed to pass.

Charles W. Bryan, brother of W. J. Bryan, called upon the governor at the latter's request yesterday, and after talking the matter over, they decided to call upon Chairman Byrnes of the state democratic committee for a conference.

Those who are anxious for the governor to call the session are pleading only for a law to be passed in the interest of the initiative and referendum. They figure that a law of this kind will settle the liquor question and that the democratic party will not be compelled to take it up.

NORRIS SAYS CANNON RIGHT

Has Done Nothing But What Rules of Congress Permit.

DOES NOT FAVOR ANTI-CANNON PETITION

Thinks Sentiment in Her Favor too Strong for Defeat.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Representative Norris from Nebraska is changing his mind somewhat on some things, but is still very bitter against the speaker, though he accuses him of doing nothing but what the rules of the house permit him to do.

He thinks that an attempt at this time to secure petitions asking the speaker to get out of the way would avail nothing, as he believes Mr. Cannon too popular with the members to be dislodged.

He says that while the rules allow the speaker to do all that he has done, he believes that the rules should be changed rather than the speaker, though he is heartily in favor of throwing him over the transom if it can be done, for he is a mean, cruel, ungenerous, narrow minded, and undignified old thing, and he believes that he ought to be put out of the game.

Gold Mine Shut Down.

G. E. Roman has returned from Lead, S. D., where he was working in the Homestake mine, which is the largest gold plant in the world. The mine is closed down at present on account of a lock-out. He will spend a few weeks visiting his parents.

QUITTING BUSINESS.

M. Fanger has been notified by the chief of police to take down the canvas advertising sign extending across the walk in front of his place of business. Mr. Fanger wishes to announce that even if the sign does come down he is still continuing his closing out sale. On account of the almost impassable condition of the roads the people from outside points have been unable to take advantage of the big sale as much as they would like and therefore the sale promises to be long drawn out, owing also to the fact that the stock is so large. From now on there is going to be something doing of an extraordinary nature at the department store. All Wooltex suits and cloaks must go and another cut of a third off has taken place. This is the chance the ladies should avail themselves of, for they may never again be given such an opportunity to secure high grade goods for so little cash. 44-65—M. FANGER.
