I would not take $50.00 for my
Bissell Sweeper
if I could not get another.

A woman's tribute to the world-renowned BISSELL. A trial of the Bissell will make you regret the waste of years, the damage to fine carpets, corn broom, draperies, and clouds of dust and last, but not least, the injury to health in breathing a germ-laden dust that within the case when you sweep.

Consider, too, the great economy of the Bissell, as it will outlast fifty corn brooms.

QUITTING BUSINESS.

M. Fanger has been notified by the chief of police to take down the canvas advertising sign extending across the walk in front of his place of business. Mr. Fanger wishes to announce that even if the sign does come down he is still continuing his closing out sale. On account of the almost impassable condition of the roads the people from outside points have been unable to take advantage of the big sale as much as they would like and therefore the sale promises to be long drawn out, owing also to the fact that the stock is so large. From now on there is going to be something doing of an extraordinary nature at the department store. All Wooltex suits and cloaks must go and another cut of a third off has taken place. This is the chance the ladies should avail themselves of, for they may never again be given such an opportunity to secure high grade goods for so little cash.

Important Notice.

All persons knowing themselves to be indebted in any amount to M. Fanger are requested to call and settle at once. All persons having bills against me are requested to present same and get their money.

As is well known I am closing out my business and am anxious to close up all outstanding accounts. In the past I have never crowded any person for payment, but now it is absolutely necessary that all bills due me be paid promptly. All bills remaining unpaid when my business has been closed out will be placed in the hands of a collection agency. That means additional costs and I hope I shall not be called upon to take this means to collect what is due me.

M. Fanger.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED.

Some Plattsmouth People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers. You can't separate them. And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache. If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in splendid health. Young kidneys will make strong, healthy bodies.

Box 17, 1214 N. Lincoln Ave., Plattsmouth, Neb. Write: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills in our family for some time and after kidney troubles and rheumatism brought the best results. We advise you to get Doan's Kidney Pills and you will be glad that you have a trial."
