NEWS MAN AT HAVELOCK

Visits That Rustling Shop
City and Finds Things
Moving Briskly.

PLATTSMOUTH PEOPLE
THERE DOING WELL.

Has Novelty of Riding on the Celebrated Booze Cars to the Big Town.

At Havelock when we visited that place last week we found every thing all right, with business going on at the rate of a metropolis. Our first place to stop was the office of Joseph Tighe the rustling coal dealer, but at the place we did not find our friend as he was out with a team supplying his customers with the needful warming material. His son though was in the office and when he saw the News Herald, and the fact that Corrie Schlater, his cousin had won the ten dollar prize, he was greatly pleased, and inquired about his relatives health in the city and especially of that of Connie, and grandpa Conrad Schlater.

We next met Mrs. Geo Hawkins and was told that Mr. Hawkins who is the foreman of the blacksmith shop for the Burlington, was still at his work and the rush of business for the company made it necessary for them to work over time. Nels Hawkinson was at home on the sick list, having been out for some two weeks on account of the bad health, but thought that he would be able to return to work again in a few days.

Joseph Carrigan, was at home just having arrived from the Burlington blacksmith shops and said that he with his family liked Havelock very well but thought Plattsouth a better place to live. Mr. Carrigan likes his position with the Burlington at Havelock very well and is going good work there.

A. A. Hyers the postmaster at Havelock is doing well and has with him in the office Mrs. Hyers and Miss Mahoney a daughter of P. H. Mahoney formerly of this place as clerk. Mr. Hyers does a good real estate business as well, having his office in a suit of rooms in the same building as the postoffice.

At the postoffice we met Sam Hinkle, who is foreman for the Burlington and well satisfied with his position in life and has surely made good, being one of the trusted ones of the company.

Here we met Watt Holmes who was as jolly as ever, and glad to see us saying that any one from Plattsouth was sure to get the glad hand at Havelock and the treatment we received there carried out to a nicety the assertion. Watt is looking well and with the occupation of looking after matters for the Burlington is kept pretty busy.

Edwin Bates, formerly of this place is engaged with a livery in Havelock where he is employed during the day and a position which he has held for sometime. He is well satisfied with the city his position and the work in general. He greeted the News man cordially and asked regarding his many friends in this city and as to its welfare generally.

Geo. Bates who is now an engineer for the Burlington, was laying off on account of sickness and had been for a few days past. When at work Mr. Bates operated a steam derrick for the Burlington.

In order to get out to Greenwood the day following, and to visit our daughter Miss Crete, who is attending school at Lincoln, we took the eight o'clock car for the city and had the misfortune to have to ride with the out put of the saloon which closed at Havelock as in other places at eight o'clock.

Havelock, is making some very material progress, and will in the near future build another large shop for car work, which is to be of such dimensions as to accommodate four tracks for the work which is to be done therein. All of the former Plattsouth citizens now living in that city, are doing well and seem well contented with their place of abode.

Push!

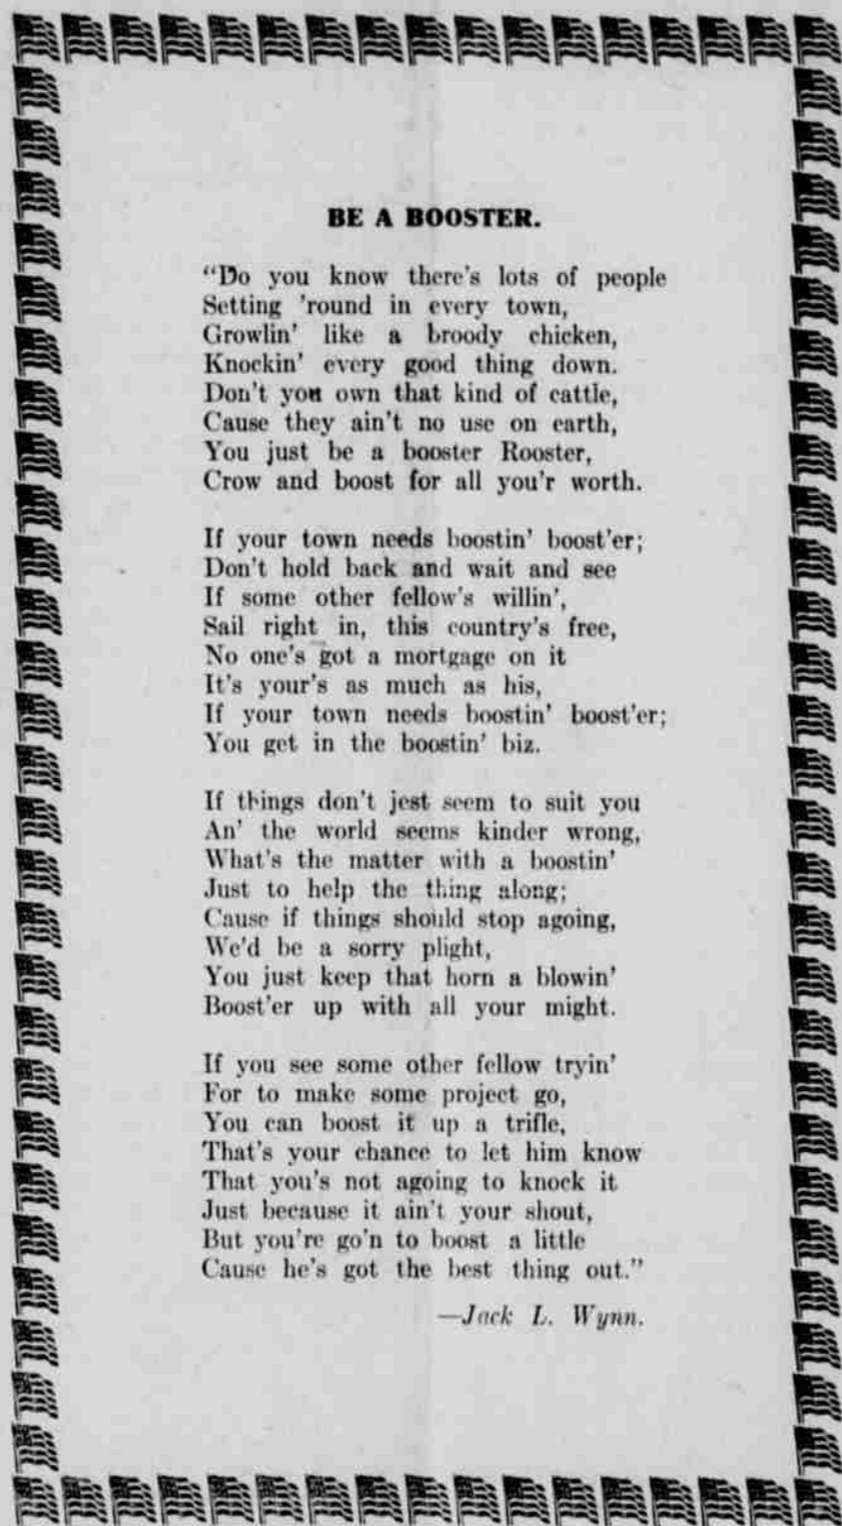

If there was more push in the world there would be fewer hungry, half-clothed, homeless, suffering children; fewer broken-down dissipated men and women; less need of almshouses, houses of correction and homes of the friendless.

Push means a lift for a neighbor in trouble. Push means a lift for yourself out of the slough of despondency and shiftlessness, out of trouble, real and fancied. Push never hurt anybody. The harder the push the better, if it is given in the right direction. Always push up-hill—few people need a push down hill. Don't be afraid of your muscles and sinews; they were given you to use. Don't be afraid of your hands; they were meant for service. Don't be afraid of what your companion may say. Don't be afraid of your conscience it will never reproach you for a good deed—but push with all your heart, might and soul, whenever you see anything or anybody that will be better for a good long strong, determined push.

Push! It is just the word for the grand, clear morning of life; it is just the word for strong arms and young hearts; it is just the word for a world that is as full of work as this. If anybody is in trouble and you see it don't stand back, push!

If there is anything good being done in any place where you happen to be, push!—Louisville Courier.

Mrs. Chas. Martin was a passenger to Omaha on the early train today.

BE A BOOSTER.

"Do you know there's lots of people Setting 'round in every town, Growlin' like a broody chicken, Knockin' every good thing down. Don't you own that kind of cattle, Cause they ain't no use on earth, You just be a booster Rooster, Crow and boost for all you'r worth.

If your town needs boostin' boost'er; Don't hold back and wait and see If some other fellow's willin', Sail right in, this country's free, No one's got a mortgage on it It's your's as much as his, If your town needs boostin' boost'er; You get in the boostin' biz.

If things don't jest seem to suit you An' the world seems kinder wrong, What's the matter with a boostin' Just to help the thing along; Cause if things should stop agoing, We'd be a sorry plight, You just keep that horn a blowin' Boost'er up with all your might.

If you see some other fellow tryin' For to make some project go, You can boost it up a trifle, That's your chance to let him know That you're not agoing to knock it Just because it ain't your shout, But you're go'n to boost a little Cause he's got the best thing out."

Foreign Invasion.

City Attorney B. S. Ramsay, today drew a complaint charging the violation of the city ordinance by the foreign merchants who expect to open their wreck sale tomorrow. The complaint is in two counts the first being that the accused has violated the ordinances of the city and committed the crime of circulating advertising matter offering goods for sale in the city, without obtaining a license therefore. The second count charges the offenders with distributing advertising matter by loosely scattering the same on the public street and on private premises and within doors and screens within the city, contrary to the ordinances in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the great state of Nebraska.

The feeling still runs quite high among the business interests of the city, and there was nothing for the city attorney to do but to make arrangements to enforce the ordinances of the town.

If they are wrong it is time to find it out, if they are right, then they should be enforced, and the gentlemen can return to the place where they are supposed to pay their taxes and carry on their business without any trouble or ill feeling.

Capt. McCaig Dead.

He came to Cass County in the early seventies, and was affiliated with the Republican party and by his party elected to the legislature and served the state with distinction.

The funeral will occur tomorrow at 10 o'clock, and any friends going would have to leave Plattsouth this afternoon.

Accidents.

(Louisville Courier.)

On Monday night of this week Miss Daisy Twiss, manager of the Independent Telephone exchange and her little sister Marjorie came very near losing their lives by being asphyxiated.

Upon retiring in the evening they turned the damper in the hard coal burner which caused the gas to escape into the room where they were sleeping. Later in the night Marjorie awoke with a violent spell of vomiting, which also awoke her sister Daisy, who at once realized the cause and started to the telephone to call a doctor. The gas was so strong in the room that she collapsed and fell to the floor twice before she was able to reach the phone and summon aid.

Upon the arrival of the doctor restoratives were administered and the doors and windows opened to free the room of gas, and Miss Daisy and her sister are now none the worse for their experience.

Fred Wegner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wegner, living four miles southeast of town, met with a very painful accident Wednesday morning which may cost him the loss of one of his eyes.

He was working around the farm as usual, and while driving a nail struct it in such a manner as to cause it to glance and strike him at the lower edge of the eye, cutting through the eye-lid and cutting an incision in the eye-ball.

He was at once brought to town and taken to Omaha and placed in the care of Dr. Gifford, the noted eye specialist, who has hopes of saving the sight, yet was unable to say positively when Mr. Wegner returned Wednesday evening.

Funeral of Mrs. Campbell.

The funeral of Mrs. T. M. Campbell occurred from the residence of her daughter-in-law Mrs. Campbell on Elm street at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. Austin of the Methodist church. Miss Harriet Dixon, was married to Mr. T. M. Campbell at Blairville, Pa. December 27, 1866. They removed from Blairville to Oregon, Mo., where they lived for a year, and then moved to Hiawatha Kansas, residing there until 1902, at which time they removed to Belfre Kansas where she died last Monday at the age of 66 years, 2 months and 23 days. In her youth she united with the M. E. church, later was an acceptable member of the Presbyterian church and afterwards again a Methodist.

Mrs. Campbell leaves her husband one son R. W. and family and a grand son Philip Campbell and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Campbell, of this city to mourn her loss.

WHY.

WHY would it not be better for our merchants to make a dollar in profit off of ten men instead of making the whole dollar off of one. Use the quick sale and small profit scheme a little while.

THE NEW BUILDING

Government Inspector Visits
Site of New Post Office Building.

INVESTIGATION MADE
AS TO FOUNDATION.

Work Will Probably Begin About the First of Next April.

C. F. Cramer, of Washington D.C. arrived last evening on No 2 from Council Bluffs, and prepared to make the preliminary soundings for the new government building to be erected this year.

Mr. Cramer is superintendent of buildings and is a busy man, having in charge at this time beside the building here, one at Clarinda, one at Council Bluffs and Omaha, Grand Island and several other points.

It was necessary to come here and make a personal inspection of the soil and the depth to which the foundation will have to go to be permanent, before the bids could be let, or even the plans could be draughted.

Four men were engaged this morning making an excavation at each of the four corners of the lot, going down some ten feet to ascertain the nature of the soil, whether filled or not, and any other peculiarities which might be found.

The footing will be of reinforced concrete, and brick on top of that. The building will be about fifty by ninety feet, one story in height. It will be some time before the dirt will begin to fly, as the plans will not be completed for a month after the soundings are made. Then it will require another month to advertise for bids, the bids will have to be let which will require more time, so that it will be the latter part of April before the work will actually begin.
