A Communication.
"By their fruits ye shall know them," Mat. 7-20.
There are a few people in Plattsmouth that do not know the florist's wife, as a good, kind, christian woman. Not only does she carry or send flowers to the sick and aged and sorrowing ones, but honors many a friend and visitor to our city with with flowers to poor and rich alike.
To the sick many a dish of fruit or a dainty dish of something is prepared by her for them. She is working with might and main, "For every land to save the children from the dreadful curse of the saloon and gambling den, yes trying to save every boy and girl in our city instead of saving the saloon, as the cry goes out over our land from heart broken mothers and wives and sisters to save the boys and girls and not the saloons if you want to "see Plattsmouth succeed" Stand up for our righteous citizens and not for the out of town man that does not care for our city as we do. We care to protect its most sacred things and the up building of our city and our home.
Yours for the future to see Plattsmouth succeed. A Friend.

OBITUARY STATEMENT.

Popular Cass County Man Native of Liberty Precinct.

Robert Clark Kendall was born March 17, 1869, in this vicinity near the place where his death occurred. He was a son of Frank G.
Kendall, now a resident of this village. He was married April 2, 1891, to Miss Rosa Davis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Davis, of Wyoming precinct, and ever since their marriage they have lived happily in their pleasant home northeast of this village. Their three children are: Bessie, aged 15 years, David, aged 8 years, and Rachel, aged 2 years. Mr. Kendall was well known all over Cass and Otoe counties, and no man stood higher in the estimation of the people, his jovial disposition and strict business integrity making him very popular among his many acquaintances. He was an energetic citizen whose business ability resulted in the accumulation of a large amount of land and personal property, and their home was a model of comfort and neatness. The funeral services were held in the U. B. church northeast of this village Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev.
A. E. Perry of Nebraska City officiating, his text being John 5:16,
"The Pathos of God's Love." In terment was made in the cemetery near the church, the pall bearers being A. L. Becker, A. O. Pearsley, Ed Leach, Elmer Chapman, Jesse Pell and James Tigner. The large number of friends attending the funeral and the beautiful floral offerings were impressive testimonials of the high esteem in which the deceased was held by people who have known him well during his life-time, and all realize the great loss this community has sustained in the death of Robert Kendall—a shock from which his friends will not soon recover.
The devoted wife, the loving children, the aged father and other relatives have the most sincere sympathy in this sad bereavement.

note for $5000 face value due in eight years from next April 8th with interest at 5 per cent, secured by mortgage on 167.70 acres of land with farm buildings situated thereon, and the same was sold for $1850.00 to George Midkiff, husband of one of the heirs of the deceased, he being

King Cole Carnival at Union

"Old King Cole
Was a jolly old soul A jolly old soul was he,
He called for his pipe
And he called for his bowl,
And he called for his fiddlers three.

Every fiddler had a fiddle, And a very fine fiddle had he:
Twice-tweedle-dee, tweedle-dee, Went the fiddlers,
Oh! there's none so rare
As can compare,
With King Cole and His Fiddlers three."

At the village of Union, which by the way never does anything by halves the number of fiddlers used by the jolly King Cole has been multiplied by seven. And all this is in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Lincoln. And to add to the frenzy of the long haired musicians, prizes rearing from a shaving ticket, donated by the village barber to $4.00 worth of merchandise offered by Bill Banning, as well as $5.00 worth of false teeth to be donated by Dr.
Newell the dentist, will be given to the one extracting the best music from his fiddle. Twenty one lusty fiddlers have subscribed their names to the list of contestants. They will fiddle by ones, by twos, by threes and by fours, and finally the entire orchestra will unite in one grand burst of thrilling music. This is the first meeting and the movement is so popular that it promises to become an annual affair. The village trustees have ordered that no confetti be thrown which may mar the pleasure of the younger element.
Next year the number of violinists will no doubt be doubled.

"Tired at Three O'clock?" "No Sir! I Use the Monarch"

IF typewriters were machines run by mechanical means instead of human hands, you would find that, with a given amount of power, a Monarch could be run at a higher maintained speed than other typewriters.

Run by "girl power," you find that the Monarch is run at a higher all-day average speed than other typewriters, and without a "tapering off," from fatigue toward the day's end.
Both these truths are due to the fact that

MONARCH LIGHT TOUCH

lightens the draft, uses power more economically. Eliminates the waste of energy that typifies the heavy-touch machines.
This in turn means increased production per machine and decreased cost of typewriter work per folio.

The Monarch Light Touch and the Monarch Rigid Carriage are exclusive Monarch features, every other important feature of the modern typewriting machine, such as Back Space Key, Two Color Ribbon Shift, Contained Tabulator, etc., etc., will also be found on the Monarch. Let us give you a demonstration of Monarch Light Touch and other Monarch advancements.
