The dance given in the hall Thursday evening was well attended the music was furnished by Messrs Holden and Carlson of Lincoln, and Manspeaker of this city.

Joe Lack has been on the sick list the past week.

A. L. McDonald attended the Hardware Dealers Convention at Lincoln Friday afternoon.

Henry Rugba went to Weeping Water Saturday after his automobile.

Geo. Myers and Louis Root each had a car load of hay shipped in from Holt County as hay seems to be very scarce in this vicinity.

ELMWOOD.

Saturday morning this community was shocked, by the news that Harrison Ohm had committed suicide, about 12 o'clock at night at his father's home, three miles west and one half mile north of Elmwood, by taking carbolic acid.

He had spent the evening in Elmwood and nothing unusual was noticed. He was in the barber shop of West & Rosenow playing checkers with the boys, joking and seemed to be feeling as well as usual. No cause is known for the rash act. His father and mother had gone to bed before his arrival, they heard him when he came in and in a few minutes they heard him fall on the floor. The father got up and went down, and he lay on the floor dead. An empty bottle lay beside him, having the label scratched off.

He was twenty one years old the 17th of September 1909. He was a young man that was respected by all and why he did such a thing is a mystery. He left a note bidding them all good by and asking their forgiveness.

Jin Jacobs a former Elmwood boy but now of Lyons Colorado, is here with his wife, they having been summoned to the bedside of his wife's mother Mrs. S. J. Frons.

L. R. Vakiner was shaking hands with the boys today. He is here from Elk Washington.

Elmwood coal man J. M. Rogge received 60 tons of hard coal today, which was much needed by those using

ELMWOOD.

Last Friday night while Mr. R. Creamer was attending I. O. O. F. Lodge at Elmwood, some one stole his team and buggy. He had tied his team south of Pentiman Bros. store. Two fellows were seen to untie the team and drive south of town at a fast clip, but the parties supposed they owned the team and nothing was thought of it until Mr. Creamer came after them. He supposed the team had broken loose and gone home, so he went home and came back Saturday morning and found out that two men had been seen to untie them and drive off. He notified the sheriff and the surrounding towns, but nothing has been heard of them yet.

L. A. Tyson and wife visited the capital city Saturday, going on the early train.

Mrs. James Durbin and daughter Edith and son Buster, E. T. Comer and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs.

A. Roger and Mr. and Mrs. Chas Gerbeling were sight seeing in the capital Saturday.

The funeral services of Harrison Ohm, took place at 2:50 at the M. E. church, conducted by the pastor Rev. Woodcock. The remains were laid to rest in the beautiful Elmwood cemetery.

Saturday one of the largest crowds gathered in Elmwood to trade, that has been our good pleasure to see for a long time. Elmwood merchants are surely drawing their share of the trade.

James Howell of Burwell, Nebraska is in town visiting old friends he having moved out in the sand hills in 1892. He says every body is doing well. Kinkead homesteads are selling for $3,000 each and some for more.

James Woodward spent Sunday at home with his wife and daughter Jim has a job with the Independent Phone Co., at Council Bluffs.

Last Friday evening the Elmwood high school basket ball girls played the Peru Normal, Score 33 to 23. It was an interesting game from start to finish. Our girls are feeling quite elated over results.

JUST PLAIN FOLKS AT THE PARMELE.

This Comedy Drama will be Put On Friday and is Full of Interest.

The weekly dramatic event of the season at the Parmele theatre will be the return of the popular Grew Stock Company, Friday Eve, Feb. 18th.

The popular favor with which this talented organization were received last Wednesday evening more than proves that the theatre going public of this city are anxious and willing to support a company of merit.

Mr. Grew has selected for his return engagement one of New York's latest successes, the delightful pastoral "Just Plain Folks". The play contains many delightful comedy situations that are out of the ordinary, and tells one of the sweetest love stories ever staged. The characters are true to life and the scenes move along with the ease and naturalness that holds the heart interest to the end.

In the character of Stillman Water, Mr. Grew has a part out of the ordinary, and his portrayal of this interesting character will long be remembered. Lloyd Ingraham, Anna Cleveland, Taylor Bennett, Mand Monroe, and the balance of the company are all well cast.

Mr. Grew has spared no pains or expense to make the production complete in every detail. "Just Plain Folks," will be presented on one night only Friday Eve., February 18th. Popular prices will prevail. 25-35-50 Seats on sale at Riley Hotel Thursday February 17th.

To the Theatre Going Public.

It seems to be the general opinion from the number of inquiries made each day that the moving picture show at the Parmele is going to be discontinued on account of the Stock Co., playing each week, but such is not the case. The picture show will continue as long as the patronage will warrant it and the management will continue to show the very best films obtainable. The price will remain the same 5 and 10 cents.

Has Hand Injured.

Luke Vroman, while working on the Freight Car repair track yesterday afternoon about 3:30 had the misfortune to have a heavy car door fall on the first three fingers of his right hand, and mashing them badly. The first finger was nearly taken off he hurried to Dr. Livingston's office, where the injury was dressed. Mr. Vroman will be off duty for several days.

A Good Proposition.

Dr. Barnes has secured the territory of Cass and Otoe counties for the best proposition in the way of a stock remedy on the market. He has fully investigated the matter and is fully convinced that he has a remedy which will meet the requirements needed. He would like to talk with all who are interested and he believes that he can do good service. w-85-ff.

J. R. Densen, has been a very busy man the last two days subpoenaing witnesses for the plaintiff in the case of Earl R. Blish vs C. B. & Q. R. R., which will be for trial immediately after the case now on trial is disposed of.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS AT VALENTINE PARTY.

Katie Whitaker Invites Eleven Little Girls to Spend Afternoon

Mrs. F. R. Whitaker entertained eleven of her little daughter's playmates at a valentine party Saturday afternoon, from four to six o'clock. The little misses were made happy with games and sports of various kinds. They were first given a stick of gum each, and a piece of white paper, and told to form a man from the gum, some dextrous work was done in this line, the booby prize being carried off by Myra Stenner, and the first prize was awarded to Vere Brown. Another very amusing contest was over pinning a cat's tail in the proper location. The animal's picture being pinned to a sheet, and the little girls being blindfolded, turned around a couple of times and told to perform the feat. Mabel Brown carried off the booby and Alice Pollock the first prize.

When the time for lunch arrived, the guests were given an opportunity to select their partners in a very unique way. Hearts of different sizes were cut in two and placed in a receptacle, and the little girls each drew from the receptacle and matched with some one else.

A two course luncheon was served. Those present were: Helen Roberts, Myra Atenner, Blanche and Delia Sayles, Abbie, Mabel and Vera Brown, Alice Pollock, Frances Morley, Elva Hartford and Katie Whitaker.

LORANCE BOWERS LITIGATES C. B. & Q.

Claims Damages For Roughly Handling Live Stock and Poultry.

A case entitled Bowers vs Burlington was before the court this afternoon, in which plaintiff claims damages in the sum of about $1500.00 against the company which he says occurred about one year ago, in the shipment of property of plaintiff.

At the time plaintiff was moving from Spencer to Cedar Creek, and the damage claimed is for injury, done to horses, poultry and household goods in the transportation in this county. The plaintiff is represented by Mathew Gering, and the company by Byron Clark and W. A. Robertson. A jury was selected this afternoon, and the trial begun, the case will be warmly contested.

Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnson, of this city announces the marriage of their daughter Miss Annie to Mr. O. A. Nystrom of Omaha, to take place Thursday February 24th at 8 o'clock from the Swedish Mission church. Following the wedding ceremony will be a formal reception at their home in South Park.

Miss Annie was born and raised in this city is a graduate of the P. H. S. 1904. Former clerk at the Variety Store.

Mr. Nystrom is employed at the Omaha Post Office, is a son of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Nystrom of that city.

Two Fancy Cats.

Ed Bratner is the possessor of two of the finest haired cats in the village. These rare specimens of the feline family were sent Mr. Bratner by J. H. Fitton, of Council Bluffs, the gentlemen who drew the thoroughbred pup last Saturday evening at the raffle. The cats are of the Angoria species, and are covered with hair white as snow and several inches in length. The Tom cat cost Mr. Fitton $65.00 and the Tabbie $35.00, so that when one sees them he is looking at something of value. A fine cocker spaniel pup accompanied the cats. If you want to see something fine just take a peep in Ed Bratner's cigar store.

Lost His Hat.

A farmer was driving west on Maine street between Third and Fourth with the top of his buggy down, trotting gaily along, this morning, when he encountered a hard gust of wind which whisked off his fedora. The head gear lighted on its rim and struck off at about a thirty mile clip, in the opposite direction from which the farmer had his prow pointed. He circled his team as quickly as he could and put whip to his steeds and chased that hat almost to the subway before overtaking it. One needs a string under his chin with each end attached to his hat to be sure of having it with him these days.

Mrs. Julia Neilson, departed for Council Bluffs this morning where she will visit relatives for a short time.

SHELDON RETURNS

Undecided as yet as to his Action in the Field of Politics.

FRIENDS DID NOT KNOW HE WAS HERE.

Came up from Mississippi on a Matter of Business and Will Return.

A representative of the Daily News had the pleasure of meeting ex-Governor George L. Sheldon at Nebraska City last Sunday morning as he was returning from his cotton plantation in Mississippi to his home at Nehawka.

The governor did not have very much to give out regarding his action in the matter of becoming a candidate for governor or for the senate, and felt that his long absence from the state and unfamiliarity with the political conditions would not warrant him in making a statement. When he had had time to look the situation over he will be better able to judge of the matter.

While talking with the governor coming up on the train, Col. Will Hayward appeared on the scene and of course no politics was discussed after that. The colonel has lately shied his caster into the congressional ring and while he hopes to land the nomination, recognizes the fact that he is up against some good men.

MRS. HARRY REGNIER DIES VERY SUDDENLY.

Body Will be Taken to Galesburg Tomorrow.

Plattsmouth citizens will be pained to learn of the sudden death of the wife of Harry Regnier, the Burlington shop storekeeper which occurred at 2:30 this afternoon.

She suffered from heart trouble since childhood and has not been well for sometime. She leaves two daughters 10 and 13 years respectively to mourn the loss of a kind mother. Mr. Regnier will receive the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community in the loss of his wife. The body will be taken to Galesburg, Illinois on No 2 tomorrow for burial.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MRS. HARRY REIGNER.

Rev Austin Conducts Service at Late Residence this Afternoon.

A brief and impressive funeral service over the remains of Mrs. Harry Regnier, was held this afternoon by Rev. Austin of the Methodist church at the late residence of the deceased on Pearl street. The music was furnished by the M. E. Sunday School Choir of which Gladys Regnier is a member. The deceased had been a resident of Plattsmouth, but about a year, and in that time had won a place in the affections of all who knew her, and she will be greatly missed from her circle of friends. Interment will be made at Galesburg, Illinois, from which city Mr. and Mrs. Regnier came to Plattsmouth.

Unloads Three Cars Horses.

Will Fight arrived at the Plattsmouth yards this morning, with three car of good horses which he shipped in from his Colorado ranch. There are three stallions in the bunch worth something over $2000 each, beside two loads of heavy draught horses. The stallions are one Belgian, one English-shire and one standard bred trotter.

Mr. Fight is taking these horses to his farm southwest of Murray, where they will be kept. Some of them will be sold, and at present prices, there is quite a bunch of money in shipment.
