DEGREES OF BURNS.

How They Are Marked and How They Should Be Treated.

The medical books describe several degrees of burns, according to the amount of damage the fire has done to the skin or the parts beneath.

The first degree consists merely in redness and stinging of the skin, such as is caused by the flame of a match touching the finger for an instant or by a drop of hot wax from a candle falling on the hand. Ordinarily this is a trivial accident, and the pain of it, if annoying, may be subdued by applying a cloth wet with a solution of cooking soda, but if a large surface is burned, as when a cambrie night dress catches fire and blazes up for a moment, but is quickly extinguished, the patient may suffer severely from shock.

In the second degree, blisters form on the injured part. Care must be taken not to tear the blisters—in removing the burned clothing, for example. A little snip with clean scissors or two or three punctures with a clean needle should be made in the part of the blister which protrudes most, and as soon as the water has drained away the part should be covered with a cloth wet with soda solution or with equal parts of lime-water and olive oil—called caron oil.

In burns of the third degree the upper layer of the skin is destroyed. This is the most painful of burns, for the sensitive cutaneous nerves are exposed. The first thing to do is to cover the part so as to protect the bare nerve endings from contact with the air. The same dressing as that for burns of the second degree will give relief until the physician comes. Carron oil is best, but the soda solution is better than nothing and much better than plain water or oil.

In burns of the fourth degree—the third and fourth degrees usually occur together—the skin is burned through and the bare flesh is exposed. This, strange as it may seem, is less painful than a third degree burn, for now the nerve endings, which receive and transmit the painful sensations, are entirely destroyed. It is more serious in its after effects, because it always leaves a scar which is disfiguring and may contract and draw the part out of shape.

In burns of the fifth degree the muscles and other tissues are more or less extensively disintegrated, and in those of the sixth degree the entire limb—finger, hand, arm, foot or leg—is destroyed.

In all these severer burns there is more or less shock, which may be so profound as to kill, and there are also serious symptoms caused by congestion of the internal organs and probably also by a poison formed in the burned tissues.—Youth's Companion.

The Chief Requisite.

Richard Watson Gilder had a dry wit of his own. He once received a call from a young woman who wished to secure material for an article of 3,000 words on "Young Women in Literature." "It was a fetching subject, full of meat," explained the young woman afterward, "and I saw not only 3,000 words in the story, but at least 6,000. But I never got any further than the first question. Mr. Gilder's answer took the very life out of me. I asked him, 'Now, Mr. Gilder, what would you say was the first, the chief, the all essential requisite for a young woman entering the literary field?' I waited with bated breath, when he answered, 'Postage stamps!'"

Where She Drew the Line.

A story of a little maiden who finally asserted her rights is related in an exchange.

She was only three years old, and it was her first visit to a number of relatives. Aunts, uncles and cousins crowded around her and kissed her over and over again. She stood it patiently and gave every kiss that was asked for without demur. After awhile, when she had run the gantlet of affectionate relatives, Uncle Tom said, "Now, baby, I'll take you out to see the cow."

Outside the door she stopped and shook her little head. "Uncle Tom," she said, "I won't kiss the cow!"

And Uncle Tom took pity upon her and did not insist.

It Made Him Angry.

When a merchant in the Hill district who had been standing in front of his store saw two young men stop the other day and begin looking over his wares he naturally was pleased and immediately gave them attention.

"I want to know," began one of them, "if you have any clean shirts ready to wear."

"Certainly, certainly!" was the quick response.

"Well, then, go in and put one of them on," was the reply of the smart young man as he and his companion continued on their journey.

Eyewitnesses say that the merchant didn't laugh.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

BASKETBALL SEASON ON.

Grand Struggles in All Big Leagues Anticipated.

HOW THE TEAMS SIZE UP.

In West Chicago Appears Strongest. In the East No One Team Stands Out as Best, but Cornell and Columbia Look Good.

Judging by the intense interest that is being displayed and the large attendance at every game, the 1910 basketball season will be the greatest strenuous and popular indoor game has ever had. In fact, basketball now occupies a more important place in the curriculum of college athletics than ever before. In the east a grand struggle is anticipated for the chance of playing against the winner of the western title for the national championship.

Yale, Cornell, Princeton, Pennsylvania and Columbia universities are all represented by strong teams this season; but, while the honors seem to lie among these teams, there are many other fives to be reckoned with. Take, for instance, the West Point cadets. Uncle Sam's boys have one of the strongest teams in the east, while Williams, Dartmouth, Penn State, Brown, Georgetown, Rochester and Syracuse are all to be reckoned with before the season's honors in the east are decided.

Of the so called big six Princeton's team is the weakest at present, but the Tigers have several good players, and the team may show improvement later. Cornell is represented by one of the strongest fives that ever represented the Ithacans on the floor. In Captain Crosby Cornell has one of the best all around players the game has ever brought to light. He is a splendid shot and Cornell's main offense.

As he is a first class man himself, it is up to him to develop some good guards and another forward. Last season he had a few green men and whopped them into such shape that at the end of the season the team disrupted the championship with Pennsylvania.

While Yale has lost Eddie Van Vleck as center, the coaches have any number of good subs left. The team for the present is made up of Captain Eames, guard; Holdenridge and Hyde, forwards; Scudder, center, and Legg and Murphy, guards. All these were regulars last year except Scudder and Murphy, who were substitutes. Fred Murphy, the baseball captain and football half-back, is the best basketball guard in college, and it is expected that he will play in the championship games. Yale expects to have a better basketball team than for two years, although there is no professional coach, graduates helping Captain Eames.

Although Pennsylvania is minus the services of the famous Klenath, one of the best basketball players any university ever had, and the two guards, McCrudden and Kiefeber, McNichol, Hough and Spier are left, however, while Miller, captain of last year's football team, also showed up well last year in the few games that he played. This in itself is a strong nucleus for a varsity team.

The prospects for a strong team at Columbia are very bright. Captain Ted Kendl has two of last year's subs and one regular left to help him out. With Mahon and himself for forwards these two positions will be well taken care of. Columbia's recent easy defeat of Princeton in New York by a score of 40 to 9 shows that the Blue and White men will be in the thickest of the fight from start to finish.

In the west a grand struggle for the conference championship among the three big universities—Chicago, Wisconsin and Minnesota—is in order. Of the trio Chicago appears to be the strongest. Although former Captains Schommer and Georgan are both out of the game for good, the Maroons have a strong nucleus upon which to build up another powerful five in Captain Hoffman, Page and Fulkerson, guards; Hubbe, subcenter, and Clark, Kelly, Cleary and Henry, forwards. This squad of veterans will be re-enforced and strengthened by several likely candidates from last year's freshman five.

Minnesota has nine veterans of last year's team in Grimes, Meneka, Grant, Rosenwald, Anderson, Lawler, Walker, Hanson and Giltinan. Long, Robillard and Clark are some of the freshmen who are showing exceptional quality on the floor.

Wisconsin will have a powerful five this season and will undoubtedly make things warm for their rivals.

Nelson May Be Referee of Big Fight.

Battling Nelson says he may be the third man in the ring in the coming Jeffries-Johnson fight for the world's heavyweight championship.

"Johnson made the suggestion a short time ago that I act as referee in his fight with Jeffries," declared Nelson recently. "Since then I have also seen Jeffries, and he also is agreeable to my officiating."

Will Try to Swim English Channel.

Brent Hayes, an actor, new in this country, will next summer try to swim the English channel. Hayes has already made many preparations to attempt the feat. He has made several records for endurance swimming.

HOCKEY SEASON IN FULL SWING.

Title Games in All Circuits From Now On.

CLOSE RACES ARE EXPECTED.

In New York Amateur League Several Teams Appear to Be Evenly Matched—The Intercollegiate League Fight, Pittsburg Prospects.

Ice hockey, that fast, furious and brilliant national pastime of the boys across the border, will from now on until March occupy a conspicuous place in the limelight of the sporting world. In fact, judging by the present healthy condition of the sport and large attendance at the games in New York, Pittsburg, Cleveland and St. Paul and several other cities where the game is played, besides that on the different Canadian circuits, it surely looks as if the strenuous ice game will enjoy the most prosperous season it has had in some years.

The uncertainty which exists as to the ultimate outcome of the race for the championship of the Amateur Hockey league in New York tends to add greater interest to the season. Three of the five clubs which compose this circuit have shown great ability, and it is a tossup as to which of them will win out.

The New York A. C. is even stronger than it was last season, except in one feature—Jimmie Sherriff still is firmly ensconced in his announced intention of being a spectator and not a player this season.

The Wanderers are more than 100 per cent better than they were last year and have put what could probably be termed an all Canadian team on the ice. The St. Nicks will be in the fight right up to the finish and have shown that the club which defeats them will be going some. The other two clubs, the Crescents and the Hockey club, will furnish no end of opposition to the three "best bets" and will be stumbling blocks not to be overlooked.

All of these teams have had considerable practice, and their players are in the best shape for a hard season. Under such conditions and judging from the speed and fine play which have been exhibited in several games to date the caliber of hockey in the league will be of the best.

The fact that many of the sevens have been strengthened by the securing of the services of Canadian amateur players of the first rank indicates that the winners will have to travel at top speed throughout the season. The teams which have been seen in action thus far have all shown marked improvement over their work of last year. They have solved many of the more difficult features of play, and New York is in for a siege of the best hockey it has ever known.

The intercollegiate league of which Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth, Columbia, Princeton and Cornell are members holds another element of uncertainty. Princeton is the only one of the teams to show marked weakness, but this in a large measure has been eradicated. Probably the best showing by any of the teams has been made by Harvard, with Cornell next. All the teams in the league have been practicing steadily since Thanksgiving day and are in condition to play lively games and maintain their ability to the end. The campaign of the college boys will extend until Feb. 19, eight games being scheduled for New York, seven for Boston and one for Cambridge, Mass.

The recent visit of the Cleveland and the college teams to Pittsburg has stirred up renewed interest in the game there. And there is considerable talk of organizing a new league. As there are quite a few players residing in Pittsburg who were members of teams in the Western Pennsylvania Hockey league and who are more than anxious to get back in the game, it looks as if the promoters would experience very little difficulty in getting together several strong teams. Among these players are such stars as McKay, Donnelly, Strobel, Koch, Campbell, Ray Robinson, Garnet Sixsmith, Meyers, Brown and Rutledge.

Three Men Willing to Swim Rapids.

Three enthusiasts have expressed their determination to try to navigate the Whirlpool rapids, below Niagara falls, with motorboats and try for the prizes offered by John A. Pen-ton and others of Cleveland. These prizes are a gold cup worth $500 and $1,000 in cash. These three, who evidently hold their lives cheaply, are John L. Gibney of Brooklyn, John W. Kirk of Cleveland and Allan A. Blanchard of Oak Harbor, O. They have made formal entries. Those who are booming this affair say that a dozen others have made inquiries and will probably enter in the next few weeks. The committee to manage the trials will be named shortly.

New Heavyweight Pugilist.

Joe Choyanski is boasting a new heavyweight. This man is colored, and his name is George Cotton. He is a 195 pounder, and Choyanski says he will make the best of the big ones he will meet in the near future.

Vacation For the Eel, 2:02/4.

The Eel, 2:02/4, will not be raced on the ice this winter. The gray wonder has been barred in the free for all at Ottawa; hence his vacation.
