Bad Words and Thoughts.

We trust that the city council will pardon us for suggesting a matter which they no doubt have in mind and which they propose to put into execution without any unnecessary delay. We refer to the advisability of ... the streets ... ice under the dirt a chance to thaw out and the streets a chance to dry up, ... pedestrians. By so doing many of us would not be guilty of thinking bad thoughts and saying a few bad words every so often and then saying them again more often.

AD WOLGAST, NEW CHAMPION

Man Who Beat Nelson Has Had Eventful Career.

MAY TAKE ON FREDDIE WELCH

Several Clubs Have Offered Good Sized Purses For the Contest—Holder of Lightweight Title Only Twenty-two Years Old.

Who will be Ad Wolgast's next opponent? This is the main topic of conversation in the pugilistic world at present. Since he wrested the lightweight championship crown from Battling Nelson the "Milwaukee Wildcat" has received defs from Packy McFarland, Owen Moran, Tommy Murphy, Joe Gans and Freddie Welch, the British champion. There is little doubt that Wolgast will take things easy for awhile, as he has been hard at it for the last two years or more. When he does decide to fight he will most likely take on Welch. Wolgast figures that several clubs would be willing to hang up good sized purses for the contest and that he would experience little difficulty in stowing away the Britisher. Wolgast has also promised to take on Owen Moran.

Adolph Wolgast, a featherweight a year ago and today champion lightweight of the world, has had a wonderful pugilistic career, and his victory over Nelson was all that was needed to cap the structure his wonderful fighting powers and gameness built. With a record totaling seventy-one fights Wolgast has but once been
