

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

From Monday's Daily.

Mia Ina Hatt was a passenger on the morning train for the metropolis to day.

Mrs. C. Neff went to Omaha this morning going on No 15 to spend the day with a friend.

A. L. Anderson departed for Creston and other Iowa points this morning with his line of goods.

Geo. Thomas returned from Omaha on the morning train today where he had been on business.

Ed Schulff returned to Glenwood this morning having spent Sunday with relatives in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Guy R. French and daughter, of Omaha spent Sunday the guests of T. B. Bates and wife, returning to their home this morning.

Meek Davis, of Murray, came in on the early M. P. train this morning and was looking after important business matters in the city.

Miss Julia Svoboda left for Omaha on the morning train today, where she has accepted a good position with the green house people. Miss Svoboda is an experienced florist.

Miss Florence Royle returned to her home at Glenwood on No 6 this morning, having been a guest of Mrs. B. C. Hyde and family for a few days.

H. F. Kropp and V. P. Sheldon returned to Plattsmouth this morning to take their place on the jury in case their services should be required in the adjustment of cases in the court.

We are glad to see our little friend, Edith Dovey on the street again. It is her first appearance since her accident of a few weeks ago. Miss Edith says she has lost seventeen pounds but hopes to be herself again soon.

"Uncle Tom" the genial clerk at the Dovey grocery emporium departs this evening for Kansas City to hear Miss Alice Dovey, in "Old Dutch." Mr. and Mrs. George Dovey will go to Kansas City tomorrow.

O. K. Cromwell, of Weeping Water is in the city today registered at the Riley. Mr. Cromwell is a retired hotel man having been in the business at Weeping Water for many years.

Zuckewiller & Lutz have made a valuable improvement at their store and added to the convenience of their commodious building by having an arch cut in the front between the drygoods and grocery departments.

G. W. Snyder and wife accompanied by their son Andrew were passengers to Omaha on the morning train today taking Andrew to specialist Dr. Patton to consult the Dr. relative to the little boy's tonsils.

J. W. Reasoner, of South Bend, one of the staunchest republicans of his precinct was called to Plattsmouth to do jury duty this week. The jury in the Gering Leyda suit was selected before reaching Mr. Reasoner's name.

John Domingo, of Weeping Water, W. A. Dull, of Murray, John Bogard, of Avoca and William Kunz of Elmwood, jurors for the term, returned this morning to take up the work of settling facts this morning in the district court.

Dr. Elster and wife, spent the day in the metropolis, going on the morning train today. Master Richard, who celebrated his seventh birthday yesterday could not be persuaded to leave school, remained here while his parents visited Omaha.

There has been considerable complaint on the part of the Burlington employees about boys assembling on the right of way about the stock yards and climbing on moving freight trains, much to the annoyance of the trainmen, and to the great peril to their life.

George W. Harshman, one of the pioneer citizens, from near Avoca was a Plattsmouth visitor this morning having been called to the county seat on business. Mr. Harshman has returned recently from a trip to Kansas and other southwestern counties, with a view of investing in real estate. Mr. Harshman has been a leading farmer in his community for many years, and in spite of his politics is a fine man to meet.

Miss Kittie Cummings spent the day in Omaha going on the early train this morning.

Roy Isenberger, of Chappell, Nebr. was in the city looking after his real estate business this morning.

John Frochlick of Ealge, came in this morning and resumed his accustomed place on the jury.

Mrs. A. M. Franks and Mrs. Lamborg spent the day in Omaha going on the early train this morning.

John Chapman spent Sunday evening with his mother's family in this city departing on No 15 this morning.

F. E. Egenberger and wife spent the day with Omaha friends, departing for the metropolis on the early train.

Mrs. P. Lindsey and niece Miss Ellen spent the day in Omaha with friends going on the morning train.

H. S. Meisinger and wife, of Cedar Creek went to Omaha on the morning train today to look after business matters.

Lee Sharp, the Omaha machinist, spent Sunday with his family in this city returning to the metropolis this morning.

H. H. Weideman, of Greenwood, came to the county seat this morning to renew his duties as a juror for the Febr. term.

J. C. Lemon of Greenwood, returned to Plattsmouth this morning and will take up his accustomed place on the jury this week.

J. C. Yost of near Cedar Creek was in the city today attending district court.

Joe Cook, of near Mynard, was a visitor in the city looking after business matters today.

George Hild and wife, of Eight Mile Grove were Plattsmouth visitors this forenoon transacting business with the Plattsmouth merchants.

Mrs. Kraue of Kansas City, is the guest of Mrs. Emma Nims. Mrs. Nims accompanied by her guest spent the day in Omaha.

Miss Margaret Hodgert was a passenger to Omaha on the morning train today, where she looked after business matters between trains.

Mrs. C. H. Campbell and son of Columbus, who have been the guests of Mrs. J. W. Larkins, Mrs. Campbell's sister for a few days.

Mrs. Jennie Riggle and daughter Miss Cora departed for Oregon, Mo., on the morning train today where they will visit relatives for a time.

Frank Warner and C. E. Weaver have returned from St. Joseph, Missouri where they have been invoicing stock for the C. B. & Q. for several days.

B. Golding of the Variety store, erected a new awning over the front of his building today. Sure sign of spring when the merchants begin to keep out the sun.

Bruce Rosencranz of the real estate firm of Rosencranz & Son, went to Omaha on business on the early train this morning to look after a business deal.

Elmer Leyda, the Fall City attorney is in the city trying the case for his brother, J. M. Leyda, in which he has been sued by H. R. Gering for damages.

Mr. T. J. Colbert of Ashland, arrived Friday to spend a few days with his brother-in-law Peter Bates, and will return to his farm home Tuesday.

J. W. Bowers of Clear Water, Nebr. who has been visiting his parents Lorence Bowers and wife for a few days departed for his home this morning.

From Tuesday's Daily.

George P. Benton, of Union was in the city today on business.

The only smoke is "The Acorn." It burns even and pleases you. Try one. Made by Ptak & Bajcek. tf.

W. E. Clark of Nehawka, was a

Plattsmouth visitor yesterday, looking after business matters.

Lee Kirkpatrick of Nehawka, was a Plattsmouth visitor last evening registered at the Perkins.

A. S. Will and son Tom departed for Hennesy, Oklahoma on the morning train today, via Omaha where they will take the Rock Island for their destination.

John Schippicasee went to Omaha this morning to investigate a car of wrecked bananas, with a view of having some that he can sell right.

County Commissioner L. D. Switzer, of Weeping Water, arrived today and met with the board in the transaction of business for the county.

R. D. McKensy, special agent for the National Fire Insurance Company a called on George Sayles in the interests of his company today.

J. W. Holmes, the handsome Murray merchant and his brother Troy, of Chicago will be the guests of their nephew Glen Rawls for a few days.

Leander G. Barnes, one of the News force, retired from the office on sick leave. The physician diagnosed the case as measles.

Try The Home Dry Cleaning Works of Plattsmouth, for Cleaning, Dyeing, Pressing and repairing. All work guaranteed and prices right. 118-3

Miss Terresa Oliff, head seamstress, of the M. E. Smith factory, came down from Omaha this morning to look after some matters at the local factory.

William Bintner and wife, of Carroll Iowa, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Bintner over Sunday, departed for their home this morning.

Adam Frederick and Miss Annie Frederick and John Volk of Pierce, arrived in the city Monday for a visit with their uncle Commissioner Martin Frederick.

O. C. Hudson, who has been in Kansas City for a few days invoicing stock for the Burlington, returned this morning having completed his work in good shape.

Senator Thomas, departed for Minco Oklahoma, where he will visit with friends for a couple of days, before continuing his journey homeward to Long Beach, California.

Mrs. Dr. Campbell, of Columbus, and her little son, departed for their home this morning, having been guests of Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. J. W. Larkin for a few days.

E. L. Goodbar, of the Goodbar Shoe Mfg. Co. makers of the American Beauty shoes, called on Sherwood and Son this morning with his line of Goods. Mr. Goodbar is from St. Louis.

Miss Mary Lynch, the accomplished and up-to-date trimmer who was with M. Fanger last season, has been re-engaged for this season and will arrive in Plattsmouth today. This is good news for the ladies.

Mrs. Emily Haver, of Pueblo Colorado, who has been visiting her cousin A. W. Atwood and family for a few days departed for her home this morning. Mrs. Haver's mother and Mr. Atwood's mother were sisters.

O. A. Nystrom and wife, nee Miss Anna Johnson, spent Sunday with Mrs. Nystrom's parents in this city, and assisted Mrs. Johnson to celebrate her birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Nystrom departed for North Plate this morning where Mr. Nystrom will engage in business.

Chas Troap is looking after business matters in South Omaha today.

Bert Pollock is spending the day in Omaha looking after business.

Mrs. W. J. Hartwick was a passenger for Omaha on the early train today.

There will be moving pictures at the Parmele Saturday nights only.

Mrs. H. E. Weidman came this morning on Burlington train No 4 from Omaha.

The Acorn is the popular smoke and you will like it if you try it. Made by Ptak & Bajcek. tf.

John Bauer and family drove out in the country today to attend the Schaefer-Friedrich wedding this afternoon.

P. F. Vallery departed this morning for Lincoln, where he will spend a few days before going to Denver, Colorado

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vallery and son Gerald were among those taking the morning train for the west, going to Havelock, where they will visit.

Judge W. H. Newell was a passenger this morning for Wymore, Nebraska, where he goes to look after his stone quarry interests at that place.

Mr. C. E. Wescott left last night for Alberta, Canada, where he will spend a couple of weeks looking over his possessions in that portion of King Edward's domain.

Wanted women everywhere to assist with my startling physiological tuberculosis discovery. Mrs. Jennie Reynolds, Central National Bank, Columbus, Ohio. A postal will bring you full particulars and prove a revelation. d-116-6x

Miss Beeson in the county judge's office added another marriage license to her register this afternoon, just before going to press. The interested parties being, Miss Adah Mast, daughter of Abel Mast, of Nehawka, and Mr. Edward Murray, of Weeping Water, son of L. C. W. Murray, formerly of Mynard. This wedding will take place today, and a more extensive account of the affair will appear in tomorrow's News.

Henry Long, of Murray, a prosperous farmer, was in the city today on business. He informs the News that his nephew, Chas. B. Long of Macedonia, Iowa had moved his family to the Little Frank Young farm, situated about five miles south of Plattsmouth, having bought the property some time ago. They arrived today.

Mrs. T. L. and J. L. McKenney were passengers this morning for Omaha where they go to see their brother Will. Mr. McKenney is now at Immanuel Hospital in that city, where he has been confined since undergoing an operation for appendicitis. His many friends in this city and vicinity will be pleased to hear that he is recovering nicely from the operation and expects soon to be about again.

Witness my hand and the seal of the County Court of said County this 8th day of February 1910.

Seal ALLEN J. BEESON
86-6 County Judge

Notice of Sale.

In the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska.

In the matter of the Estate of Waclav (called James) Crowlek, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of an order of the Honorable Harvey D. Travis, judge of the district court of Cass county, Nebraska made on the 21st day of February, 1910, for the sale of real estate hereinafter described, there will be sold at the south door of the Court house in Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska on the 23rd day of March, 1910, at 11 o'clock a. m., at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real estate, to-wit: Lot 81, being the west half of the west half of the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of Section 12, township 12, range 13 east, in Cass county, Nebraska. Sale will remain open one hour. Dated this 21st day of February, 1910.

Will J. Streight, Administrator of said estate. 88-8

CHATTLE MORTGAGE SALE.

To all whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that The Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company of Chicago Cook County Illinois will on the 28th day of February 1910 in the Town of Plattsmouth Nebraska on 6th street in front of the Hotel Riley Block, at 10 o'clock A. M. sell at Public Auction by virtue and under the conditions of a Chattel Mortgage, the following described goods and chattels, viz Two 4 x 8 edge Carron Tables numbers 15208 and 15228 Cues, Cue Racks, Bridges, Ball Racks, Rubber cover, and two sets of Composition Pool Balls, all belonging with the said tables, and any other fixtures thereunto belonging. The reasons for said sale are as follows on May the 6th, 1909 H. E. Rand executed to The Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company ten Promissory notes of $10.00 each drawing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum due in one two three four five six seven eight nine and ten months after date, and to secure the payment of said note he executed a Chattel Mortgage of described to the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company, which mortgage was filed in the office of the County Clerk of Cass County Nebraska on the 19th day of May 1909 at 9 o'clock and 47 minutes A. M. and duly recorded. The conditions of said mortgage are such that in case default should be made in payment of either or any of said notes, or if the mortgagee should at any time deem themselves insecure it shall be lawful for said mortgagee to take immediate possession of said Chattels and dispose of them at public auction and out of the money arising from said sale pay all that remains unpaid on said notes, together with all charges, costs, and expenses incident thereto.

There is now due and unpaid six of the above described notes, those falling due October 6th, November 6th, December 6th, 1909 and January 6th, February 6th, and March 6th, 1910, the last mentioned note being due by virtue of default under said mortgage, a total of $60, with interest at 6 per cent from the 6th day of May 1909 and the said mortgagee having defaulted in the payment of said sums, the mortgagee now seeks to foreclose. No suit or proceeding at law has been instituted to recover the sums herein sought to be collected. The proceeds derived from the sale of the property herein described will be applied under the condition of the said mortgage.

Dated this 7th day of February 1910.

The Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company By R. B. Windham, Attorney and Agent.

Legal Notice.

State of Nebraska, ss. In County Court.

County of Cass.

In the Matter of the Estate of Frank G. Brown, deceased.

To all Persons Interested:- You are hereby notified that there has been filed in this Court the report of N. H. Meeker, administrator of above estate together with his petition for final settlement thereof.

You are further notified that a hearing will be had upon said petition before this Court at the County court room at Plattsmouth is said County on the 22nd day of March 1910, at 10 o'clock A. M., and that all objections, if any, must be filed on or before said day and hour of hearing.

Witness my hand and the seal of the County Court of said County this 21st day of February 1910.

Seal ALLEN J. BEESON
90-6 County Judge

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Notice to Pay Up.

In the most friendly manner possible I desire to notify all who are indebted to me in any amount that I will expect a settlement of their account at the time of the coming pay day. It is absolutely imperative that all bills be paid and no further notice will be given. If you owe me in any sum, you will avoid additional expense and legal difficulties by calling upon me at the time specified. If I owe you, present your bill and you will get your money. Again I say that this is positively the last notice.

70&75 t-f M. Fanger.

Legal Notice.

State of Nebraska, ss. In County Court.

County of Cass.

In the matter of the estate of Abel Bevan, deceased.

To all persons interested:- You are hereby notified that there has been filed in this Court the petition of Catherine Bevan, widow of said deceased, alleging therein that said Abel Bevan departed this life in said County, leaving an estate to be administered, and praying for the appointment of an administrator.

You are further notified that a hearing will be had upon said petition before this court at Plattsmouth in said County on the 8th day of March 1910, at 10 o'clock A. M. That all objections, if any, must be filed on or before said day and hour of hearing.

Witness my hand and the seal of the County Court of said County this 8th day of February 1910.

Seal ALLEN J. BEESON
86-6 County Judge

Notice of Sale.

In the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska.

In the matter of the Estate of Waclav (called James) Crowlek, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of an order of the Honorable Harvey D. Travis, judge of the district court of Cass county, Nebraska made on the 21st day of February, 1910, for the sale of real estate hereinafter described, there will be sold at the south door of the Court house in Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska on the 23rd day of March, 1910, at 11 o'clock a. m., at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real estate, to-wit: Lot 81, being the west half of the west half of the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of Section 12, township 12, range 13 east, in Cass county, Nebraska. Sale will remain open one hour. Dated this 21st day of February, 1910.

Will J. Streight, Administrator of said estate. 88-8

CHATTLE MORTGAGE SALE.

To all whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that The Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company of Chicago Cook County Illinois will on the 28th day of February 1910 in the Town of Plattsmouth Nebraska on 6th street in front of the Hotel Riley Block, at 10 o'clock A. M. sell at Public Auction by virtue and under the conditions of a Chattel Mortgage, the following described goods and chattels, viz Two 4 x 8 edge Carron Tables numbers 15208 and 15228 Cues, Cue Racks, Bridges, Ball Racks, Rubber cover, and two sets of Composition Pool Balls, all belonging with the said tables, and any other fixtures thereunto belonging. The reasons for said sale are as follows on May the 6th, 1909 H. E. Rand executed to The Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company ten Promissory notes of $10.00 each drawing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum due in one two three four five six seven eight nine and ten months after date, and to secure the payment of said note he executed a Chattel Mortgage of described to the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company, which mortgage was filed in the office of the County Clerk of Cass County Nebraska on the 19th day of May 1909 at 9 o'clock and 47 minutes A. M. and duly recorded. The conditions of said mortgage are such that in case default should be made in payment of either or any of said notes, or if the mortgagee should at any time deem themselves insecure it shall be lawful for said mortgagee to take immediate possession of said Chattels and dispose of them at public auction and out of the money arising from said sale pay all that remains unpaid on said notes, together with all charges, costs, and expenses incident thereto.

There is now due and unpaid six of the above described notes, those falling due October 6th, November 6th, December 6th, 1909 and January 6th, February 6th, and March 6th, 1910, the last mentioned note being due by virtue of default under said mortgage, a total of $60, with interest at 6 per cent from the 6th day of May 1909 and the said mortgagee having defaulted in the payment of said sums, the mortgagee now seeks to foreclose. No suit or proceeding at law has been instituted to recover the sums herein sought to be collected. The proceeds derived from the sale of the property herein described will be applied under the condition of the said mortgage.

Dated this 7th day of February 1910.

The Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company By R. B. Windham, Attorney and Agent.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Galt

Smoke an ACORN And be Happy

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Smoke an ACORN And be Happy

Do you want an AUCTIONEER?

If you do, get one who has Experience, Ability, Judgement

Telegraph or Write

Robert Wilkinson, Dunbar, Nebr.

Or call at the News-Herald office and we will save you trouble and expense in getting dates and terms.

Good Service. Reasonable Rate.

John Durman Expert Blacksmith Has taken charge of the William Puls Blacksmith Shop 4 1-2 miles west of Murray. All kinds of Fine Horseshoeing and all kinds of Blacksmithing. Satisfaction guaranteed. Call on Him.

HATT & SON BUYS Poultry, Butter, Eggs and Cream

W.L. DOUGLAS $3.35 to $4. SHOES BOYS SHOES $2.00 to $2.50

THE LARGEST MAKER AND RETAILER OF MEN'S FINE SHOES IN THE WORLD. "SUPERIOR TO OTHER MAKES." "I have worn W. L. Douglas shoes for the past six years, and always find they are far superior to all other high grade shoes in style, comfort and durability." W. G. JONES, 119 Howard Ave., Utica, N. Y. If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would realize why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater value than any other make. CAUTION—See that W. L. Douglas name and price is stamped on the bottom. Take No Substitute. If your dealer cannot fit you with W. L. Douglas shoes, write for Mail Order Catalog. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass. — FOR SALE BY —

Joseph Fetzer

SETTLER'S EXCURSIONS

At Low Round Trip Rates

On sale every first and third Tuesday in each month to every part of the Southwest.

MISSOURI, ARKANSAS, LOUISIANA, TEXAS, OKLAHOMA, KANSAS AND COLORADO

MISSOURI PACIFIC IRON MOUNTAIN Hugh Norton, Agent.