A Bridge Friend's Ultimatum.

The lady was preparing for her first trip abroad. She consulted her doctor as to the best course to pursue to avoid seasickness. He advocated eating heartily. Another doctor, to whom she mentioned her doubts, advised her to refrain from eating. In despair at such conflicting advice, she consulted a third physician and asked which was right.

"Both, my dear madam, both," he replied. "It just depends upon whether you prefer to discard from strength or weakness."—Lippincott's.

THE EDITORS ARE GOING TO COME

Bunch of Newspaper Men Will be Here Next Tuesday.

Mr. E. H. Wescott, Secy. Commercial Club, Plattsmouth, Neb.

Dear Sir:—Allow me to express my gratitude for the kind invitation of the Plattsmouth Commercial club to be their guest on next Tuesday evening. I have notified the publishers of the county and am pleased to be able to state that they accept your invitation with one accord. It has been our desire for a long time to visit your city and "See Plattsmouth Succeed." Yours is a motto worthy of the support of every citizen of Cass county, for our interests are mutual.

Again thanking you for the kind invitation I beg to remain,
Very truly yours,
L. J. MAYFIELD,

KETCHEL TO MEET TOUGH NUT

Sam Langford Likely to Surprise Champion.

BOUT SHOULD BE WARM ONE.

Both Men Have Punches With Force of a Mule's Kick Behind Them in Either Mitt and Are Game to the Core.

A battle second only in importance to the Jeffries-Johnson mill is now in order. Stanley Ketchel, the middleweight champion, and Sam Langford, the hard hitting light heavyweight, have practically agreed to meet in San Francisco within the next month or so. The bout between them promises to be a grudge affair and is a pugilistic plum for which the promoters the country over have been bidding for many moons.

With the men in good condition the battle should result in one of the best contests ever pulled off in this country. Both men carry a knockout wallop in either hand and are game to the core. Langford is a larger edition of Joe Walcott, the little negro who made things warm for the big heavyweights several years ago, and for the last two years has been the boggy man to the so called champions in the heavy and middle weight divisions.

In anticipation of his battle with Langford, Ketchel has canceled all his future engagements and will give his hand, which he injured in his go with Frank Klaus in Pittsburg recently, a chance to heal properly. Ketchel's battle with Klaus was a big disappointment to his followers. He displayed none of that form which made

SAM LANGFORD, WHO IS TO MEET KETCHEL, him famous. In fact, he fought like a second rater. After his poor showing Ketchel gave an excuse that he did not train properly. That's a time worn statement and a poor one. The middleweight champion should have been in good shape for the go.

With Ketchel in first class condition he could put Klaus away in six rounds or come pretty near it, anyway. The real trouble with Stanley is that he has been training on sparkling wine since he was defeated by Johnson last October and needs a good long siege of hard training.

In Langford he will meet a man almost as good as Johnson. In his last bout with Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, the negro showed what he could do when he tried. He toyed with Flynn for a few rounds, studying his style, and then planted a few telling blows on the latter's chin. Then, stepping back and measuring his distance, he sent over a crashing punch that sent his man into dreamland.

With condition guaranteed on both sides, it looks like one of the spectacular encounters of ring history—a great white middleweight champion pitted against an equally great hitting black man who has been denied the glories of a championship because of his ability. Want any more excuse for action than that?

TENNIS STARS COMING.

Brookes and Wilding of Australia to Visit This Country in Summer.

Word has been received that the Australian Lawn Tennis association will send an invading team to America the coming summer in hope of capturing the national championship and other titles. It is announced that this team will consist of the four greatest players in Australasia—Norman E. Brookes of Victoria, Anthony F. Wilding of New Zealand, A. Walter Dunlop of Victoria and Dr. Sharp of New South Wales. The team probably will sail for America the latter part of May and will be accompanied by a team of six golfers comprising the best golf talent in the island continent. Both teams will make complete tours of the United States and will compete in all of the important tournaments.

The visit of the Australasian players will mark the first appearance of players from the Pacific continent in the United States. Chief interest, of course, will attach to the appearance of the great Brookes, who for the last three years has been regarded as the greatest exponent of lawn tennis in the world. Wilding, his doubles partner, however, is almost as well known as Brookes and was responsible more than the latter for the victories of Australia over the two teams from America which invaded the British colony in 1908 and 1909 in quest of the Davis cup.

The other two members of the Australasian team, Dunlop and Dr. Sharp, are not so well known in this country, although Fred B. Alexander, holder with Hackett of the American doubles championship, regards the former as the greatest doubles player he ever has seen.

The actual plans of the Australasian team have not been made known, but it is regarded as a certainty that the quartet will appear in the western championships at Chicago this season.

Rubinstein's Reply.

When Rubinstein was traveling through the United States upon a concert tour it chanced that Barnum's circus followed almost exactly the same route chosen by the great Russian. On one occasion, when the train was filled with snake charmers, acrobats, clowns and the like, the guard, noticing perhaps Rubinstein's remarkable appearance, asked him, "Do you belong to the show?"

Turning his leonine head with a savage shake, Rubinstein answered fiercely, "Sir, I am the show."

Piling It On.

Chairman (at concert)—Ladies and gentlemen, Miss Discordant will now sing "Only Once More."

Sarcastical Critic—Thank heaven for that!

Chairman (coming forward again)—Ladies and gentleman, instead of singing "Only Once More" Miss Discordant will sing "Forever and Ever."

NATIONAL ROWING REGATTA.

Annual Event to Be Held on Potomac River July 29 and 30.

The annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen will be held at Washington, July 29-30. These dates were decided upon by the executive committee of the organization at its annual meeting in New York recently. All the races will be at one and a quarter miles over a straightaway course.

The following regatta dates were also approved by the executive committee:

Connecticut Valley Rowing club, Springfield, Mass., July 4; Southwestern Amateur Rowing association, St. Louis, July 16; Central States Rowing association, Quincy, Ill., July 9; Harlem Regatta association, New York, May 30; New England Amateur Rowing association, Boston, July 4 and Sept. 5; Hudson River Rowing association, Washington heights course, July 16; Middle States Regatta association, Sept. 5; Schuylkill Navy, July 18; People's regatta, July 4, and Amateur Rowing association, July 21, at Philadelphia.

USE 20,000 BALLS A YEAR.

Big League Clubs Get Away With That Many Each Season.

Twenty thousand balls are used annually by the major league clubs during the training trips and championship campaigns. John Arnold Heydler, secretary-treasurer of the National league, reports that last year the teams in his organization called on the manufacturers to furnish them with 800 dozen spheres. The Cincinnati Reds used the most balls, and then came the Pittsburg Pirates, the Chicago Cubs, the New York Giants, the Phillies, the Boston Doves, the Brooklyn Superbas and the St. Louis Cardinals.

International Chess.

Oxford and Cambridge have at last been heard from in regard to the annual cable chess match with the American colleges. They announce that an official challenge will be forthcoming shortly. The chess players at Oxford and Cambridge have had some difficulty in financing the match and therefore overstepped the time limit for challenging laid down in the deed of gift for the Rice trophy. This has been waived, however, at a meeting of the American Alumni committee. April 22 is suggested as the date for playing the games, which will be six in number.
